PRISONERS OF WAR...

PRISONERS OF HOPE Ms. Chris Taylor

Be keeping Me at the forefront. A Jezebel spirit would seek to destroy that aspect that is coming forth after the (likeness of the) boldness of Elijah. This Jezebel spirit is like a suicide bomber and most willing to die in order to bring about your death. Walk carefully. She (the Jezebel spirit—control, manipulation, legalism, rebellion, etc.) will gladly lay down her life in order to take yours from you.

Be not deceived. I am the good Shepherd. I lay down My life for the sheep with that “greater love” (John 15:13) to preserve protect, and keep you.

Be calling upon My Spirit and My grace to pour forth, in greater measure, in order for you to discern and have your senses exercised. I will gladly pour forth, but not upon any who are passively waiting (in disobedience). I pour these blessings forth upon those who are willing to be as nursing babes in My arms...coming close in helpless trust, lying yielded in My mothering arms (but also) drawing and actively nursing from My many breasts all the sustenance and strengthening milk that is needed to digest the strong meat that is coming to My own.

Be restored to your places in Me, in My arms. Be actively trusting. Be learning how to forcefully advance and take the kingdom. It is time for these lessons and for the forerunners to advance through the barriers that have been broken down before them. It is time to rise from passive acceptance into places of granted authority. The scepters are being held out, and the time of enlargement, increase, and birthing is near.

In times past, there has been a coming to the birth, and no delivery—a bringing forth of wind, so to speak. “As a woman with child is in pain and cries out in her pangs, when she draws near the time of her delivery, so have we been in Your sight, O Lord. We have been with child; we have been in pain; we have, as it were, brought forth wind; we have not accomplished any deliverance in the earth, nor have the inhabitants of the world fallen.” (Isaiah 26:18)

But now, I rise and you with Me, My fore-runners—and there will be a coming to the birth and a bringing forth and increase. Some have planted and some have watered, and I have given increase, some 10—some 20—some 30-fold, some more, (I Cor. 3:6), but the time is coming for the double portion to be outpoured on those who have been processed, refined, and prepared to bear the heavy weight of My own glory.

Many are the days of increase ahead of you. Many are the times ahead when you will walk in a double portion of anointing and fruition. The new year will bring many trials and sorrows, much sadness and misery for many. But upon My fore-runners—upon those in My household who have been enduring the first judgments (for judgment begins with the household of God)—will come a time of increased effectiveness and a holy unction upon words and actions that have been prompted by Me.

Even today I declare that I will restore double to you.” (Zech. 9:12) I will rise in 2002 and give them the double portion. I will restore hope and help, and pour great and extensive grace upon each one who has traveled a long and dusty road in obedience and surrender to the will of their Father and Savior. They have bowed and served under hard bondage, but it is time for deliverers to be sent forth from Mount Zion and the kingdom will be the Lord’s (Obadiah 21).

Now furnish all accouterments to those who are coming forth from gravesites and isolated solitary confinements. The set time is coming. The soon outpoured grace is His gift to be unfolded to a waiting company in a time of perplexity. Hold on. Your redemption draws nigh. You are nearer to My full salvation—salvation to the uttermost—than when you believed.

I work on behalf of those who are actively trusting and who have been obeying My requests for more trust in times past. Each one who has been exercising his “trust muscles” will be coming forth soon into greater effectiveness. The lessons and classes begin anew for others who are wanting to learn, practice, and obey Me in this .

Many are proceeding on timetables of mercy. Let grace extend to all who are following closely. I am preparing a mighty army of yielded priests who will carry no weapons but Mine. Enlist now and be found, in a time to come, ready to serve the wounded, distraught, vanquished ones who relied on carnal weapons that failed them utterly. You will be brought forth as gold, rank upon rank, as My will is done in each one, individually and corporately.

Trust the outworking plan. Envision a brighter day, for it will surely come and will not tarry. (Habakkuk 2:3).

Hold onto the stronghold, you newly-inducted prisoners of hope (those who are just now coming into this place), for the day will come for your deliverance, just as it has for these who are soon to be released. Accept all your lessons in trust. Follow Me in organized rank, fitting into My plan and purpose, for I set about a marvelous outworking, and I invite your participation.

THE SONG OF THE BRIDE

Part 7

Elaine Cook

Song of Solomon 2:14 “O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs (or the “inaccessible places”).

When Moses asked to see the glory of the Lord, the Lord said, “Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock..... and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen” Ex. 33:21,22. He also told Moses that no man could see His face and live!

In that dispensation, only His “back parts” could be seen. I wondered what that could mean, and I felt the Lord dropped into my heart the thought that his “back parts” were the types, symbols, shadows and similitudes that represent the Lord, who is the Spirit. We cannot really tell who a person is by looking at their back—but, once we look into their face, we know their identity and their nature. So it was that in the Old Testament, Christ was concealed, and in the New Testament, He was revealed.

Israel saw the back parts of God when they beheld the pillar of fire and the cloud that led them in the wilderness. When He gave them the pattern of the temple, He revealed Himself in detail in all the shadowy types, from the Brazen Altar to the Mercy Seat. He revealed His plan and purpose to them and the way they would need to walk, yet they were “dull of hearing” until they would see Him in the face of Jesus Christ.

But, God told Moses that he would see His glory (nature) when he would be hidden “in the cleft of the rock.” I Cor. 10:4 says, All our fathers...did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them and that Rock was Christ.”

To see the face and the nature of God, we must understand that He is “...the Messiah, Who is the image and likeness of God. For God Who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts so as [to beam forth] the Light for the illumination of the knowledge of the majesty and glory of God [as it is manifest in the Person and is revealed] in the face of Jesus Christ, the Messiah” 2 Cor. 4:4,6.

In another version, Heb. 1:3 says, “The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of His being, sustaining all things by His powerful word.”

The shadows all point us to the reality, which is Jesus the Christ. When we see His Face—His nature and character as revealed as He walked among men, we know these words are true: that we will surely die-- for who could live any longer in the nature of Adam once they have beheld the beauty of His Face? All their carnal ways and self-effort are cast at His feet and a new nature begins to be inworked in those who have seen His Face.

It is in this Rock that was cleft at Calvary, that the bride is hidden away from “the plottings of man and kept secretly “from the strife of tongues.” We are in the Rock because God has put us there. If we abide in this place we shall prove that He is a wall of fire round about us and the glory within. Her Beloved keeps her in perfect peace because her mind is stayed on Him, for she has taken refuge in Him.

In this hiding-place, the bride of the Lamb does not fear though a host encamps against her; though battles and persecution arise against her, her heart is confident. Though the waters of the sea (nations) roar and are troubled, her heart is fixed, trusting in her God; though the mountains tremble with the swelling thereof, she has set the Lord always before her; because He is at her right hand, she shall not be moved.

The bride journeys ever upward, walking in Christ. No vulture or proud beasts of the flesh nature can find this path, for the hidden stairs are built in the clefts of the Rock. This stair that Jacob beheld, reaches from earth to heaven, from sinful humanity to God through the finished work of Jesus Christ. This stair leads to the throne of God.

It is not an easy way, but all hardness and suffering are forgotten as we hide deeper in Him. As we look upon His Face, we begin to see more clearly what has been provided for us and we begin to cling to the Rock in abandonment, in closer fellowship and communion. As our eyes are fixed on the recompense of the reward, unseen arms bear us over the hardest places and plant our feet upon the next higher step, which to us appeared so inaccessible. We feel the everlasting arms carrying us upward while we can only cling to the Rock. As we cling, we drink of the living waters that flow out of the Rock and we are sustained.

This shining way is not an easy one, but it becomes more blessed as we understand that we are upon the stairway that will bring us from the earthly to the heavenly realm and from weakness and humiliation to strength and glorification. Oh, to see His Face and to follow the Rock is “exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think.”

ZARAH & PHAREZ Terry Crisp

(Terry is tracing the differences between Sonship and New Age beliefs. Elaine)

A Difference May Be Seen Between Soul Power and the Power of the Spirit: The question might be asked: “If Christ is not in every man prior to a ‘conversion experience’, then how are the amazing and phenomenal powers sometimes exhibited through those who have never professed Christ as Saviour explained? Doesn’t the Bible itself teach that there is no power but of God, and that the powers that be are ordained of God? From whence then cometh this power?” As we’ve pointed out in our studies, The New Age movement teaches that all men have a latent human potential resident within them, a power which awaits discovery. To this we would have to agree. But it is the latent power of the soul, not the power of the spirit.

Watchman Nee’s book “The Latent Power of the Soul” begins by elaborating on the remarkable powers which God originally endowed the first man with in order to rule over His creation. He describes how the fall affected Adam’s usage of and accessibility to that power. He says, “..the living soul, which is the result of the coming together of the spirit and the body, possesses unthinkable supernatural power. At the fall, though, the power which distinguishes Adam from us is lost. Yet this does not mean that there is no longer such power; it only denotes that though this ability is still in man, it is ‘frozen’ or immobilized. According to Gen. 6, after the fall man became flesh. The flesh enveloped the whole being and subjugated him. Man was originally a living soul; now, having fallen, he becomes flesh. His soul was meant to submit to the spirit’s control; now it is subject to the dominion of the flesh.”

“Adam had not lost this power altogether, only it was now buried within him. He had become flesh, and his flesh now enclosed tightly this marvelous power within it. Generation has succeeded generation with the result that this primordial ability of Adam has become a ‘latent’ force in his descendants. It has turned to become a kind of ‘hidden power’. It is not lost to man; it is simply bound up by the flesh.”

“Today, in every person who lives on the earth there lies this Adamic power though it is confined in him and is not able to freely express itself. Yet such power is in every man’s soul just as it was in Adam’s soul at the beginning. Since today’s soul is under siege by the flesh, this power is likewise confined by the flesh. The work of the devil nowadays is to stir up man’s soul and to release this latent power within it as a deception for spiritual power. The reason for my mentioning these things is to warn of the special relationship between man’s soul and Satan in the last days”

“The Babylonians, the Arabs, the Buddhists, the Taoists, and the Hindus all try to release the power which Adam has left to our soul. In any religion, using whatever means or ways of instruction, there stands a common principle behind all their apparent differences. This common principle is to aim at overcoming the outward flesh so as to deliver the soul power from all kinds of bondage for freer expression. Some instruction is directed at destroying the obstruction of the body, some at uniting the body and the soul, while some are aimed at strengthening the soul through training and thus enabling it to overcome the body. Whatever the ways may be, the principle behind them all is the same. It is” important to know this or else we will be deceived.” –end quote.

As he points out, soul power can be extremely dangerous, given the fact that its function can lead one to believe that he is right with God. One may follow a strict regimen of mental and physical disciplines for the purpose of releasing the power within him. He may even be motivated by a sincere desire to help hurting humanity, but unless he has submitted himself to Jesus Christ as Lord, he will invariably fall into the snare of the devil, and will use this power to advance his agenda. (This is called “ the Satanic/Adamic alliance.”).

Be it known that when Jesus manifested the miraculous, He was not exhibiting “soul power.” When He told His disciples, “The works that I do shall ye do, and greater works than these shall ye do, because I go to the Father”, He was not suggesting that they make a diligent search for their latent human potential! According to Lk. 4:14, Jesus moved by the power of the Spirit; and He did so throughout His earthly sojourn. And, He told his disciples, “But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you” Acts 1:8. This should suffice to show that the power to which He referred, and by which they would do these ‘greater works’, was not something which they inherently possessed, but was one which would come to them at the time appointed of the Father. But how might a comparison be made between these two powers?

In Acts, Ch. 8, there was a certain man named Simon, who for a long time had bewitched the people through sorceries, in so much that they all, in one accord, declared that “this man is the great power of God.” He may even have been convinced of this himself. But when Peter and John began to lay hands on the people, and to impart the gift of the Holy Ghost, Simon suddenly realized that they had something he did not, namely, the power to raise men up in the newness of life. Being covetous of this power, he sought to purchase it with money. But Peter rebuked him, saying, “Thy money perish with thee, because thou has thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter; for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.”

When Simon’s power was compared to the power which Peter and John had, it was evident that his was soul power, wholly devoid of the quickening of the Spirit. You see, the power of the first man can be operated independently of the Spirit, at one’s own discretion. The power of the last Man relies entirely on the Spirit. The power of the living soul can be used for selfish purposes, even though it may look as if it may lead to a good end. The power of the quickening, life-giving Spirit is the power of His resurrection, and will bring to life that which was dead. This is something soul power cannot do.

God’s Word is the only thing that can divide soul and spirit; it will clearly separate the two. This is why the message of sonship relies upon the Word of God to make that distinction, rather than accepting everything that is beyond the realm of the natural as being of God. Remember, “for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God” (Rom. 8:14) and those who are the sons of God refuse to operate in soul power. They have the testimony, “The son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever He doeth, these also doeth the son likewise...My Father worketh hitherto, and I work” (John 5:19, 17).

RETURN TO YOUR FIRST LOVE

A Dear Friend

The Lord was talking to me early one morning about “idolatry.” He told me it came in when Adam and Eve decided that they wanted to be as God, to know good and evil. In reality, they wanted to be their own god. They wanted to reason things out and make their own decisions. This is where the soul (carnal mind) started to rule instead of the Spirit. This is “spiritual adultery.”

Therefore, it is no wonder that “reason” (the carnal mind) has to go. It is a “high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God.” And sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.” When we return to the state of the Spirit ruling the soul (complete obedience to the will of God) then we will have totally died to self.

One other morning, the Lord awakened me by saying, “Return to your first love.” I replied, “But, Lord, I have always been taught that ‘the first love’ was what you felt when you accepted Jesus as your Saviour, and I love You a lot more now than I did then.”

“No,” He replied, “that was not your first love. Your first love was the love you had for Me before you came down to earth—remember from whence you are fallen.”

When God created Adam, Adam was in a state of “first love.” When Adam and Eve sinned (fell) and partook of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, they left their “first love” and committed spiritual adultery.

FROM MY PRAYER TIMES Elaine

Lawlessness: I heard the Lord instruct me: “Lawlessness is not submitting oneself unto the law of the spirit of life and walking in the law of sin and death—choosing one’s own way and walking in self-will. This was ‘winked at’ in lesser realms, but not in the Tabernacle realm, for I have come as King and Priest—and to continue to allow self to rule is to nullify and to make of no effect, the ministry of both king and priest in your life and in the lives of those with whom you have to do.

“Many have not seen this and have embraced this message of My coming in fullness with great anticipation, but it shall be futile for them since they have not yielded their will and their way unto Me. They walk in the assurance of sins forgiven but know not that their very nature must also be yielded up to Me that I might inwork My nature. This is so much higher than knowing ‘sins forgiven.’”

Betrayal: Different ones have been telling us that the Course in Miracles is being promoted by some as the new bible for the millenium. This made me very sad and I started to talk to the Lord about it. He shared with me: “Every move has its share of Judases, betraying the Son of Man for reward. In this case, the reward is acceptance.

i.e. Accept everyone just as they are.

Love everyone just as they are.

So that you will be loved and accepted just as you are!

A Question: I was pondering about a man’s spirit. An unregenerated person does have a spirit, for when he dies, the scripture says his spirit returns to God Who gave it. How then, could it be said to be “dead”?

My conclusion was that it is “dead” to the realm of God, to things heavenly, to the Spirit of God. Only a rekindling of the spirit of man can impart unto him the life of God. This is what happens at salvation—the man’s spirit is quickened (made alive) to the things of God!

Take No Offense: We all have personal lessons that the Lord is teaching us in our walk. I’ll share one that the Lord has put upon my heart. The Spirit of the Lord spoke to me: “O, My little one, the way has been hard and long, but you have made progress. Thy lessons now are not to be offended when your good is cast out as evil and your motives are falsely construed.

“Shall this not be your lot if you walk the way of the cross, to follow Me fully? Is the servant above his Lord? Think not that that which happened unto Him in a green tree would not also happen to you in the dry? It is a necessary evil to endure for My Love to be perfected in thee. For My Love never fails and is constant because it does not depend upon being accepted or counted righteous by any man. It is divine love because it loves—because that is its true nature. This is what I am presently working in my children and how does it go against their human nature—only a wounded heart can tell!

“But, I shall not spare for the crying of My sons, for if they learn not how to love with My Love, they know Me not at all and can never deliver another from the strength of the miry clay.”

THE FIFTH SEAL Bill Cook

“And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?”

“And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled” Rev. 6:9-11.

This is another instance of “What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother’s blood crieth unto Me from the ground” Gen. 4:10.

The scriptures teach that “even the very hairs of our head are numbered.” This all goes to prove that His loving care over us is on a daily basis, for He has even put “voice” in our blood.

It is most important to see that the voice of those under the altar was the voice that Father had put there as a reminder to Him, for those thoughts being expressed were not those of the martyrs but rather such brethren who said, as did Stephen, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

For if they held the offense and refused to forgive, they would not be amongst this number; but to those who readily forgive, God has said: “Vengeance is Mine; I will repay.”

It is a mystery, but He gives answer to this voice of their blood—“Rest awhile until the remainder of those of My beloved who have sacrificed all, will join your number.”

This passage does not elaborate on the judgment meted out on account of their martyrdoms but we think of that passage in Rev. 18:21-24, “Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found nor more at all. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.”

THE BRETHREN SHARE

1—Barbara Caswell: Last night (Dec./01) our granddaughter Angela, 19, had a dream about the time hands of the clocks spinning out of control. Old clocks came to an end—there was no more time. She saw every clock in the world. The clocks went fast forward and stopped, coming to an end. Today many confirmations were given.

2-- Inez Bouton: A word given on Dec. 2/01. “Unlimited life comes to the forefront now, not in spurts or measured but unlimited. Time truly has no hold. What was spoken years ago and over the years comes now—timeless, limitless, ageless, breaking all bonds of death. Former things no longer are brought to mind. A new thing done now.

3—Gwen Powers: During one of my “down”days I felt so sick and tired and I brought my burdens to Him. Then I knew I had to sacrifice praise to get out of my hole and did so for the next 45 minutes and then the Lord spoke through my spirit.

“I praise you, Oh Lord, with my hands lifted up. I draw power from the blood and from the name of Jesus. You do all things well. It is for us to seek You until we find You and You fill up our well so that we may drink from Your presence all the day long. For You are merciful and mighty and pull down strongholds of the enemy’s hold on us. Glory to God. Your majesty is past finding out. Mercy and Goodness are your middle names. Peace be unto you this day. I’ve heard your praises and I’m with you. I will guide you. I will make your paths straight. I will strengthen thee in the way. Your desire pleases me. You want to follow My way and My will—that is #1. You will overcome. You are victorious because I am living within and resurrection power belongs to you. Draw from My well which is overflowing. I am the answer to your every need. Amen.”

4—Marian Reesor: The Lord speaks often to my heart and very recently He said, “Fear thou not to step out into each new day, for I have arranged thy pathway, and as you walk in it—it doth lead unto Me.”

5—Lavina Adair: I offered up a “peace offering” this morning. I sat quietly before the Lord, offering up in full contentment—just being quiet before Him. Then I heard, “You are offering up your first ‘peace offering.’ What a joy—a quiet contentment—a feeling (awareness) of peace: peace with my Father.”

6—Rita Speers: In the early days after the Sept.11th bombing, the President called a day of prayer and fasting. I was working that day, and I had thought that I would make a special effort to pray more and to fast. For some reason, I just could not get into it! I was relatively busy at work, and just did not feel the anointing to really pray or fast. I felt sort of guilty....then, as I was going about my chores, the Lord spoke to my heart that I was no longer of that realm....not to worry...these things were not to concern me.

Now, I realize that some would say, “Boy, do you think you are something!” Believe me, I don’t (as the Lord spoke to Ruth Tillery, ‘Not everyone can receive these revelations, for they are strange to some and actually appear to be the devil of pride.”) Days went by, and I was still pondering my lack of spiritual activity—questioning it in my heart as to just what it was that I was doing....then I heard a Voice that seemed to speak quickly and with emphasis...”Waiting to hear My Voice!” I had the sense that this was not just an ordinary command I/the saints would be hearing, but the Voice that will effect change in us...in the world! Something new! Something not seen before! We are lying in wait for His Call!

7—Linda O’Neill: I’ve been in a state of the doldrums, feeling I just couldn’t be all that Father would have me be. I was struggling to rest in Him and fighting to resist every thought and imagination that beset me. I got to the place where I thought, “I’m just hopeless. I can’t seem to overcome in the simplest of disciplines. Maybe it is just my dream to be one of His overcomers, and has little to do with being chosen of Him to be one!

Friday night I went to bed and didn’t even try to pray. I just kept saying, “Jesus, Jesus” over and over until I finally fell asleep. Sometime in the wee hours of the morning I awoke speaking these words out loud, “Separate the precious from the vile.” All day these words rang in my mind and ears. I found it in Jer. 15:18-20 Amp.: “Why is my pain perpetual and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will you be to me as a deceitful brook, like waters that fail and are uncertain? Therefore thus says the Lord, if you return, give up this mistaken tone of distress and despair, then I will give you again a place of quiet and safety, and you shall be my minister; and if you separate the precious from the vile cleansing your own heart from unworthy suspicions concerning God’s faithfulness, you shall be as my mouth piece, but do not yield to them. Let them return to you and not you to the people. And I will make you to this people a fortified, brazen wall. They will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you; for I am with you to save and deliver you, says the Lord.”

Shortly after reading this, your newsletter came. Chris Taylor’s prophecy was a confirmation on that very thing: the separation of the precious from the vile. I was so delighted and renewed with faith that yes, Father does speak to me, and though I fail every day, it is He who does all the restorative work within by His Spirit. My part is to trust and know He is able to finish what He has begun. The battle is His and so am I!

8—Cathy Heim: I had a vision of a football camp. We were in intense and rigorous training. We had to ram up against a battering ram again and again. This would strengthen our muscles of the Spirit to finish the course (the game).

The Word came forth: “Do not fear, My children, the battering ram. Do not become discouraged, My own. The battering ram has its purpose for strength and endurance for the days ahead. Iron sharpens iron. You shall be pioneers paving the road ahead. At times I shall use you as the battering ram, and at times, others, as you must ram up against them shoulder to shoulder, until neither shall be easily moved or swayed, but strengthened in the inner man, able to withstand strong winds of adversity, and yet still remain faithful. For those who endure to the end shall be saved.

“Be faithful, little ones, unto the end, for then you shall receive the Crown of Life.”

9. Pamela Hill: I was looking at my only daughter in the Emergency Room when the enemy spoke to me mockingly, saying, “Where is this God you are to serve....your firstborn lies dead....where is He? I will destroy your faith with this death!”

Deep within...from my belly I heard a Voice. It started out as a small, tiny voice and as it spoke it became bold. “Oh, no, you won’t! I will come to know my God in a way I have never known Him and you will rue the day you touched me in this area!” Praise God. (And so it has been!)

10. Tracy Kerestesh: Raising two teenage girls seems to be the finest refining process I could go through. One can only begin to understand the depth of God’s love for us while working through the day-to-day demands of parenting. The hardest thing I find is correcting. How much the Father must love us if He is willing to put up with all our tantrums and complaints while we learn obedience. It is so tempting at times to just give in to the demands of a spoilt child, yet what would they profit? I see myself in my children, being weaned bit by bit, to walk as mature adults. We are being stretched daily. Just when one over coming is complete, the knife goes in a little deeper and we are again asked to stand in faith. Our faith seems to grow with each experience and we almost delight in the trial because we start to know it is all blessing. I can no longer choose between good and evil; I must choose Christ!
