We want to take this opportunity to thank all who are laborers together with us--holding up our hands with your prayers and giving. There is no way we could get out this word of the kingdom without you.

Every once in a while we feel to have the brethren share throughout the whole issue—they have so many good things that we cannot share them all each month. Hope you enjoy it!

1. E. H. Britain: (We met this relative of Bill Britton's years ago .He was a pioneer of this Gospel of the Kingdom. We share it for the new ones who are coming into this message. He had a vision which lasted all night.) "In the most wonderful vision I ever had, I saw the sons of God in action all over the world, ministering to the multitudes in every tongue and nation, to all people. I saw both men and women ministering. I saw them standing, suspended in mid-air, in the midst of a busy intersection of a large city, with all traffic stopped, and thousands of people seeing them with their eyes, and hearing them with their ears, regardless of distance, and without the aid of mechanical devices. I saw them speaking to a people of one language, speaking to them in their own language, having power over all mechanical devices and natural laws, so that they could cause every activity to cease, and every eye to be fixed upon them, until their message had been delivered.

"I saw them walk upon the water; and I saw the terror in the faces of the wicked, at the sound of their voices. I saw the professing Christians fall upon their faces in true repentance, crying out for mercy, and I saw them being genuinely converted. I saw the skeptics being convinced, and the blasphemy of the wicked, as they would rail and mock, only to be struck dumb or blind at just a word from the manifested sons and daughters of God.

"The vision lasted all night, as in my spirit I was living in that future time, when God will be manifested in fullness in His sons, while my body was in bed alongside my wife. Sometimes the scenes would make me weep and I would sob, my body shaking violently with pain and agony, whereas another scene would cause me to laugh with holy laughter, as I witnessed the genuine repentance of the shallow church members.

"I'll never forget the vision of the young girl who spoke with the voice of many waters. Human language could never describe the quality of her voice. All I can say is, it was so filled with love and compassion, it would break the hardest stone. At her command, every infirmity, every sickness, every blindness, every lameness was healed; every one was made perfectly whole, even those who had been lunatic from birth.

Sister Britain got no sleep that night, and finally when the dawn was ready to break, she asked me why I didn't get up and write the vision. I did try, but could not hold my hands on the keyboard of the typewriter. Some unseen force held them aloft over my head. I walked the floor and wept, and begged the Lord to permit me to write some of the visions I had seen. At last He did, and I wrote just a very few of them, for a large book could not contain them all.

"This experience set my soul aflame! I was just getting started in the writing ministry and was afraid people would think me mad if I wrote such things. But, with tears streaming, I said, "I'm going to publish it, regardless of the cost. I know it's true and is going to come to pass!" The reaction of the people was that their hearts were thrilled and they believed what I had written!" (unquote)

And today we are nearer to this happening than when we first believed! The old prophet has passed away, but thousands of saints in every nation have been quickened to these truths. This mighty remnant is being prepared for the Feast of Tabernacles, the manifestation of the sons of God.

2. David Weber, New York: The "upward call of God" is to receive Life in the first resurrection at the beginning of the Feast of Tabernacles. This is the resurrection (extanastasis) that Paul also hoped to "attain to." (Phil. 3:11 Amplified: "That if possible I may attain to the [spiritual and moral] resurrection [that lifts me] out from among the dead [even while in the body]."

Paul never believed in or taught the unbiblical “rapture” teaching that has and is robbing so many in their understanding in this word. The word “ex-anastasis” means the out-resurrection, and is used only once in the entire New Testament. Paul put an “ex” in front of the usual word for resurrection (anastasis) for it is his way of differentiating this greater resurrection from the general resurrection 1000 years later. This is what he hoped to attain to. This is the “prize” that shall be given the “overcomers” that shall rule and reign with Christ throughout the age of Tabernacles. Most of the church knows nothing of this, nor do they have ears to hear.

3. Nicki Cocks, New Zealand: There was a lovely part in Paul and Emily Mueller’s Sept. issue which spoke of how our heavenly Father has invested a portion of Himself within us. And that we each have a portion of kingdom treasures within us, and that our Lord and Master, when He returns in the glory of the kingdom, will expect of us a spiritual return on that spiritual “investment.”

And they go on to say that if, through our own neglect or careless indifference to the things of God, we allow the fertile soil of our spiritual life to be filled with ‘rocks’ and other counter-productive spiritual debris, the precious Seed of Christ and His Kingdom within us cannot grow. I want His Seed to grow in me! The Lord demands truth in the inward parts, and to become constant in his ways! Only He can do it—we just put our hands in His and trust Him, and look to Him.

4. Rick Joyner, U.S.: I had been saying to the Lord, “If all of mankind could just have a glimpse of Your Judgment Seat, they would all quickly repent. Lord, why do You not just show Yourself to the world so it will not have to endure this evil? No one would choose evil if they could see you as You are!”

His answer was, “I will reveal Myself. When evil has run its full course, then I will show myself to the world. As the evil one is being revealed through fallen men, I will be revealed through restored men. Then the world will see Me—not just the glory that I have in heaven, but as My glory stands against the darkness. My glory is more than what you see here; it is My nature. After I reveal My nature in My people, I will return in the glory that I have here. Until then, I am seeking those who will follow Me because they love Me and love the truth, not just because they love this glory and power.”

(This word spoke to my heart because this year I kept hearing this verse in the spirit: “...for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.” The Lord was speaking of when Israel would be delivered from Egyptian bondage (Gen. 15:16). There needed to be a fullness of iniquity before He brought deliverance to His people. Elaine)

5. Elaine Cook: I had been asking the Lord where other races fit in today, in the light of Ezra where the men had to send away their wives from other nations. I heard Him say “This is the day wherein you shall know no man after the flesh. Did I not say that you should no longer know Me after the flesh, but after the Spirit? This shall be true of every man. As I taught My Israel of old to keep themselves from heathen idols by not joining themselves unto the heathen, even now I say you are to see only two men in the earth: Adam and Christ. If a man is in Christ, he is a new creature and no one should regard the color of his skin. His skin pigment does not add to or take away from him—only a new nature, which all men, of every race, must receive.

“Have I not spoken of the restoration of Egypt and Assyria and all those nations who knew Me not? So it shall be in this new day, that I shall bless all nations and count none of them unworthy of My favor, for they have but to come into Me to receive My nature and be fully restored.

“I have many new things to reveal unto My people in this day-- to those who are willing to hear My Voice. In this day I am dealing with only two men in the earth: Christ and Adam. There are no other considerations here. Did you not see how My people flowed together with all who assembled at the sheepecote (a gathering place where there were different races attending)? That was but a foretaste of what you shall see in this New Day. Rejoice that this day has come that My mercy is extended unto all!” (See Isaiah 19:18-25)

6. A true story by Paul Harvey: Years ago, a hardworking man took his family from New York State to Australia to take advantage of a work opportunity there. Part of this man’s family was a handsome young son who had aspirations of joining the circus as a trapeze artist or an actor. Biding his time, he worked at the local shipyards which bordered on the worse section of town.

Walking home from work, this young man was attacked by five thugs who wanted to rob him. Instead of just giving up his money, the young fellow resisted, so they proceeded to beat him to a pulp. They mashed his face with their boots and kicked and beat his body brutally with clubs, leaving him for dead. When the police found him lying in the road, they assumed he was dead and called for the Morgue Wagon.

On the way to the morgue, a policeman heard him gasp for air, and immediately took him to the hospital. When he was placed on a gurney, a nurse remarked to her horror that this young man no longer had a face. Each eye socket was smashed, his skull, legs, and arms fractured, his nose literally hanging from his face, all his teeth were gone, and his jaw was almost completely torn from his skull.

Although his life was spared, he spent over a year in the hospital. When he finally left, his body may have healed, but his face was disgusting to look at. He was no longer the handsome youth that everyone admired. When he started to look for work again, he was turned down by everyone just on account of the way he looked. One potential employer suggested to him that he join the freak show at the circus as The Man Who Had No Face. And he did this for a while. He was still rejected by everyone and no one wanted to be seen in his company. He had thoughts of suicide. This went on for five years.

One day he passed a church and sought some solace there. Entering the church, he encountered a priest who had seen him sobbing while kneeling in a pew. The priest took pity on him and took him to the rectory where they talked at length. The priest was impressed with him to such a degree that he said that he would do everything possible for him that could be done to restore his dignity and life, if the young man would promise to be the best Catholic he could be, and trust in God's mercy to free him from his torturous life.

The young man went to Mass every day, and after thanking God for saving his life, asked God to only give him peace of mind and the grace to be the best man he could ever be in His eyes. The priest was able to secure the services of the best plastic surgeon in Australia. There would be no cost to him, as the doctor was the priest's best friend. The doctor too, was so impressed by the young man, whose outlook now on life, even though he had experienced the worst, was filled with good humor and love.

The surgery was a miraculous success. All the best dental work was also done for him. The young man became everything he promised God he would be. He was also blessed with a wonderful wife and many children, and success in an industry which would have been the furthest thing from his mind as a career if it were not for the goodness of God and the love of the people who cared for him. This he acknowledges publicly.

The young man was and is: Mel Gibson. His life was the inspiration for his production of the movie "The Man Without A Face." He is to be admired by all of us as a God-fearing man, a political conservative, and an example to all as a true man of courage. No wonder he had such a passion to make the movie, The Passion, showing the reality of the last 12 days in the life of the Lord!

7. Rick Mathes (a well-known prison ministry leader). Last month I attended my annual training session that's required for maintaining my state prison security clearance. During the training session there was a presentation by speakers representing the Roman Catholic, Protestant and Muslim faiths who explained their belief systems. After the presentations, time was provided for questions and answers.

When it was my turn, I directed my question to the Islamic Imam and asked, "Please, correct me if I'm wrong, but I understand that most Imams and clerics of Islam have declared a holy jihad (Holy war) against the infidels of the world. And, that by killing an infidel, which is a command to all Muslims, they are assured of a place in heaven. If that's the case, can you give me the definition of an infidel?"

There was no disagreement with my statements and without hesitation. he replied, "Non-believers!"

I responded, "So, let me make sure I have this straight. All followers of Allah have been commanded to kill everyone who is not of your faith so they can go to Heaven. Is that correct?"

The expression on his face changed from one of authority and command to that of a little boy who had just gotten caught with his hand in the cookie jar. He sheepishly replied, "Yes."

I then stated, "Well, sir, I have a real problem trying to imagine Pope John Paul commanding all Catholics to kill those of your faith or Pat Robertson or Dr. Stanley ordering Protestants to do the same in order to go to Heaven!" The Imam was speechless. I continued, "I also have a problem with being your friend when you and your brother clerics are telling your followers to kill me. Let me ask you a question. Would you rather have your Allah who tells you to kill me in order to go to heaven, or my Jesus who tells me to love you because I am going to Heaven and want you to be with me?"

You could have heard a pin drop as the Imam hung his head in shame. Chuck Colson once told me something that has sustained me these 20 years of prison ministry. He said, "Rick, remember that the truth will prevail." And it will!

(Let this account put to rest that false teaching by the New Age teachers who say that the Muslims worship the same God we do! Look at the natures of Allah and Jesus, and see if you can say they are the same God! Elaine)

8. Campus Crusade for Christ: In southern Iraq, two Muslim leaders had a vision, independently of each other. They saw the risen Son of God, Jesus our Lord. He appeared before them in glory, declaring that He was Jesus and that they were to seek out the truth. Overcome by His presence, they both fell to their knees in awe and worship.

Days later, these two Muslim clerics were given the opportunity to watch "JESUS" on video—again, in separate locations. They were taken aback. The person they saw in the video was the man they had seen in their visions. Both prayed to receive Christ. Days later, they met. They were so transformed that each had come to share his experience and win the other man to Christ! What a moment it must have been when they discovered they had seen the Lord and had both become believers! They now lead a group of 17 other new believers who have all experienced a vision of the risen Christ!

9. Grace Aderinto: (Grace is a young woman in the U.S. Armed Forces). I have come to learn that storms are not meant to break me, but to make me, and transport me to my place of divine placement where I shall reign with Christ. God has imparted supernatural peace of mind and soul to me through His Holy Spirit.

I am learning to embrace the suffering that comes with taking a stand for Christ in a dark world. I have been commanded to arise and shine, for my light has come...., but I have spent a long time in despair. All of a sudden, fear of people's reactions engulfed me, but now I am praying for strength and the anointing to live this life.

I never understood that for everyone who is ordained to partake in Christ's glory, there will be the glory of partaking in Christ's suffering also. I am slowly embracing this, because I know it's for my good and growth in the Lord.

The new thing I'm learning about is the second circumcision, just as the children of Israel had done, by Joshua. They needed this before they could conquer the giants in the land of Canaan. I am now in Gilgal, where I'm healing from my circumcision.

As the church is already in the third day and moving into the realm of perfection and the fullness of the stature of Christ, there are giants ready to withstand us. But, I've learnt that though I may be weak and small as Israel was, I would never submit to the "grasshopper" theory. I would never see myself as a grasshopper in the sight of these "giants." "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" Phil. 4:13.

10. Randall Hoekstra: In prayer I saw a huge archive of Latter Rain and Sonship material which, if not collected now will be lost to my generation. I felt impressed of the Lord that many of these saints are going on to glory and these treasures may be tossed in the trash or recorded over with the latest pop music or sold for next to nothing. I am looking for those who have materials or know about people like Clara Grace, IQ Spencer, Anna Schrader, Seelye Kinne, Bill Britton, E.H. Britain, Paul Grubb, George Hawtin, Reg Layzell, Mama Beal, David Scoch, CL Moore.

If you can help, write me at: 40 Celia, Wyoming, MI 49548, U.S.A.

11. New Age Influence: I have been participating on a Kingdom Talk board for some 9 months. I have come to the conclusion that it is very difficult, if not impossible, to fellowship where there is an odd mixture of people, some few who believe in the truth of the scriptures and many who do not. The many who do not are there to tell the born-again Christians "the truth"—they are not seekers—they are false teachers. There is an increasing New Age influence there which has caused many battles and great tension, severed relationships between believers and roots of bitterness.

I have felt the tug of that spirit of New Age trying to draw me away from the simplicity of the gospel of Jesus Christ into a complex world of "believe whatever you want" style religion—a "let's just all be nice to each other and judge nothingism." I have recently sunk into a state of depression because I was to the point of questioning everything I believe. Do you have any thoughts or writings you can share with me about the New Age influence in the world? (Name withheld).

12. 26 Guards—sent in by Barbara Anderson: Here is a message that will bring you chills. “A missionary on furlough told this true story while visiting his home church. “While serving at a small field hospital in Africa, every two weeks I traveled by bicycle through the jungle to a nearby city for supplies. This was a journey of two days and required camping overnight at the halfway point. On one of these journeys, I planned to collect money from a bank, purchase medicine and supplies, and then begin my journey back.

“Upon arrival in the city, I observed two men fighting, one of whom had been seriously injured. I treated him for his injuries and at the same time talked to him about the Lord. I then traveled two days, camping overnight, and arrived home without incident. Two weeks later I repeated my journey. Upon arriving in the city, I was approached by the young man I had treated.

“He told me that he had known I carried money and medicines. He said, ‘Some friends and I followed you into the jungle, knowing you would camp overnight. We planned to kill you and take your money and drugs. But, just as we were about to move into your camp, we saw that you were surrounded by 26 armed guards.

“At this, I laughed and said that I was certainly all alone in that jungle campsite. The young man pressed the point, however, and said, ‘No, sir, I was not the only person to see the guards; my friends also saw them, and we all counted them. It was because of those guards that we were afraid and left you alone.’ At this point in the sermon, one of the men in the congregation jumped to his feet and interrupted the missionary and asked if he could tell him the exact day this happened. He did so and the man told him this story:

“On the night of your incident in Africa, it was morning here and I was preparing to go play golf. I was about to putt when I felt the urge to pray for you. In fact, the urging of the Lord was so strong, I called men in this church to meet with me here to pray for you. Would all of those men who met with me on that day stand up? The men who had met together to pray that day stood up. The missionary wasn’t concerned with who they were; he was too busy counting how many men he saw.

“There were 26! If you ever hear such prodig, go along with it!”

13. Kathryn Stumpo: As I was reading, I was led to go to Ezekiel 16:8: “Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine!”

I can’t say in words what was taking place in my spirit. I was reading it over and over again. Then I memorized the words and was repeating them time and again in my waking hours and in bed. Then, early one morning, just being overwhelmed by these words, I was caught up so that it was as though I was “taking off”, just the Lord and me as in a whirlwind for a few moments and He said to me, “I am your lover.”

When I got back to my place, and thought how glorious that was, I understood what He meant. For years I would cry out to Him and proclaim that He was my husband. I was denied a relationship with my husband because he had a stroke. I was left with eight children with older ones in high school and the youngest was four.

That was 36 years ago, and I’m still taking care of him. He is 83 and is the most contented person I know. I will be 81 soon and thanks be to the Most High God, He is my protector, my strength, and I thank Him every day for the strength to carry on.

14. Betty Jo Tocco: As I read in your paper, “I feel in my spirit that the Lord has begun a purifying of His called-out in the area of healing”, I felt I should write you about what has been taking place in my life. I am almost 67 years old and have had a bad back since I was 30 years old. It would ‘go out’ many times and I had chronic pain. About 15 years ago, I formed the habit of going to the chiropractor once a month and was very dependent upon these adjustments. Even though I exercised faithfully several times a day along with the adjustments, two years ago my back went out worse than it had ever done. I was in constant pain and the chiropractor didn’t make it any better. I prayed for healing, all to no avail.

After two years with no relief, I suggested that perhaps chiropractic wasn’t the way to go and my chiropractor proceeded to dismiss me as his patient. I didn’t want to be dismissed. I just left, crying because my back hurt and there didn’t seem to be any solution.

I tried a medical opinion and an MRI showed I had a bulging disc but they didn’t recommend surgery. Another dead end! I decided to try a new chiropractor who might have a new technique. I found one who offered some relief, but my back got bad again and I couldn't seem to keep an adjustment. On Aug. 15/03 during the blackout on the east coast, I was transferring all the food from my freezer into my son's freezer. It was raining and we were tracking water into the kitchen. I slipped and fell down the steps into the laundry room, landing on my back! As my back hit each step, I kept asking, "Why? Why did I have to land on my back? Why my back?"

I was so bruised that I couldn't stand to be touched for three months, so I could neither do my exercises nor have a chiropractic treatment. One day my chiropractor called and suggested I should come in and have my back x-rayed to be sure of what happened. I agreed to be there in half an hour. Within ten minutes, he called back exclaiming, "I'm sorry, but our x-ray machine just broke down. We never had this happen before and we are having trouble getting someone to fix it." I knew this was no coincidence.

As I hung up my phone, I knew I was not to back to the chiropractor. It took being dismissed by one chiropractor, falling down the stairs so I couldn't go to the second one, and an x-ray machine being broken so that I couldn't even know what was taking place!

It is now Jan./04—over six months since I have not gone to a chiropractor and my back is better now than it has been in over two years! In addition, I have had a condition where I haven't been able to eat anything but cereal, hot dogs, graham crackers and ice milk since 1982. I am starting now after 21 years to eat things that I could never eat before. I did not hear God say, "I am healing you." All I know is that I seem to be getting slowly better. So, when I read that you felt in your spirit that God had begun a purifying of His called-out ones in the area of healing, I thought you might want to know that I am experiencing many things concerning my physical body.

Also, I was told by my doctor that I should get the flu shot but I felt in my spirit that I was not to do so. The air waves have been flooded with warnings about getting a flu shot! As I had decided not to get it, my carnal mind began to think of all sorts of things that I should do to keep from getting the flu. I must stay away from people. I must wash my hands excessively. I must wipe the bar of the shopping carts at the grocery store with antibacterial wipes. Then I was reminded of Elijah as he challenged the prophets of Baal. He poured water all over the altar and in the trenches around the altar. I knew that I was to do nothing differently than I would do if I had gotten a flu shot.

My hairdresser cuts my hair in her home. I went there and she warned me that her husband and son had just come home from work with 103 degree temperatures. I went on into the house! I had to assist my son with a puppet show in a day-care center surrounded by 30 sniffling, and coughing children running up to hug me. I did it!

I heard in my spirit, "If in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?" I believe that we are being prepared for something that is coming on our land. If I cannot trust Him to protect me from the flu, what ever would I do if it were anthrax? I believe that these may indeed be some signs in the natural that the Kingdom of Heaven is coming down to earth in a new way!

15. Lucy Leslie: While reading your booklet "Seven Days of Creation" and getting some understanding of God's strange ways of leading in my life, (and not seeing it in others), I am now assured I'm part of the remnant. As I was reading, the Lord interrupted with this thought: I used to do oil painting right after I found the Lord. I discovered a talent there. Within six years He required me to put "my brushes" up. I did, but not joyfully. He showed me, while reading your book, that "I'm His canvas." He has stretched the canvas on the frame (which is most stressful). The background and base coat colors have been applied, but the picture and scene haven't yet been put on the canvas. Of course I had to cry and chuckle at the same time because so much enlightenment came to me. I have to say that I am still a gazing-stock and all ways will be!

16. Faye Flynn: During this past year the Lord has been speaking to me about my thought life. We are to keep our thought life focused (or our mind single) on the Lord. Phil. 4:8 says, "Whatever things re true, honest, just, pure, etc...think on these things." He is true, honest, just and pure. When we keep our eye single or focused on God and not on ourselves or our situation, then we find we have peace and joy and rest. (Focusing on oneself brings dissatisfaction).

When we focus on God and keep our thought life there, we begin to live by the Tree of Life, (Jesus). This brings us into a state of worship and we truly learn to worship Him in spirit and in Truth.

When we live by the Tree of Life, we recognize that God is in total control of everything, including us and our situation. This once again brings us into rest and peace because God is in charge and we and our situation are His problem. (“Except ye become as a little child.” A little child trusts his Father). Jesus lived a life where God was in total control. He did nothing except he saw or heard the Father do it. He lived in peace and joy and rest, knowing that God was in control.

By focusing on God, we learn to get rid of “reason,” which is living by the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. Instead, we learn to live by the Tree of Life which brings about obedience. “Obedience is better than sacrifice.” If we live in total obedience to God, then our lives become a worship, a sweet-smelling savour, a burnt offering, unto the Lord. By keeping our minds stayed on the Lord, reason is replaced by obedience and we die to self—our wants, our needs, our desires and our wishes. Then, God becomes All in All—not only in us but in all of our circumstances as well.

17. Jim Alspaugh: I have been praying for some time for the Lord to take over my imaginations. He showed me that our imaginations are our creating facility, and that we would misuse this creative power if it were not kept on a spiritual level. He impressed upon me “If I’m not doing it, you stop it!” He caused me to know that He “imagined” the world before he spoke it forth!

18. Ron & Mandy Powers: The pressures of dying daily are increasing and the release of His life seems to be getting easier. Why not? Who wants it? The fact is, it is He and He alone who is bringing His Kingdom to earth(en vessels). All we can do is pray and yield. Amen! Alleluia! We would like to think a climax is coming for all that is happening, for it sure feels imminent, but it is in His timing. He is looking to see who endures to the end—when He is finished making us into Jesus’ image and golden light vessels reflecting and radiating His glory.

19. Norma Therault: As I was bowed low before the Lord, I saw a picture before me that held my attention. It was a highway, very narrow, very, very long and very straight. I knew that along this highway were deep valleys and high mountains that I was to walk through. This was my present experience and I was to continue walking along this lonely path. On both sides of this highway were very deep forest, thick and dark. I was alone, yet I knew the Lord was my great Companion along the way. I periodically felt His tenderness, and His presence as an encouragement. At times I looked behind me to see if anyone was coming. At one particular time, I saw some others. As they came closer I thought, that instead of walking alone, I might join them! But, to my surprise, they just waved me by! I knew this was allowed of the Lord, for I had understanding as they moved on ahead that I was not to join myself with “other ministries” while on this highway.

After this I heard the Lord gently say, “Turn aside into the forest area”, and as I did, I saw a clearing for me to walk into. I felt I was in a very small tent of some sort. There was no one in it. I was aware of being very much alone. But, just as I was getting a bit uneasy concerning this new place, the entrance part of the tent was lit up with a lovely light, I was aware of Someone special coming to visit me. I welcomed this beautiful angelic figure as I sensed such holiness and purity radiating from her (him)? She sat down and explained to me that she was sent to assist me on this journey and teach me God’s ways. This was a secret place. I felt encouraged and set my heart to listen carefully as to what would be told me. After that, the vision lifted from me and I was back to where I was...bowing low before my Lord.
