THE BRETHREN SHARE

It is time once again to share from the brethren throughout this entire issue. We hope it ministers to you! It is also time to publicly honor and thank those who labor together with us in the Lord. There is no way we could send out this newsletter or all the kingdom material without their help.

Both long-time helpers, Jon and Leanna Johnson of Canada and Ted and Judy Martin of Washington have moved and are very busy. I wondered if that meant we should stop sending out the newsletter but the Lord said, “No. It is just the changing of the guard.” The new “guards” are William and Lavina Adair and Gwen Powers. Lavina said, “I asked Father about doing your papers and He said, “It is not Elaine’s work you are doing. It is My work!” And, John and Faye Flynn continue to send out Canadian and foreign materials. Marion Polzin is like my right arm in the office. Last, but not least, is our trusted printer, Steve Prince, who always does an excellent job and keeps his price as low as he can. And those who stand behind us with their gifts make all this possible. To one and all we send the Lord’s blessing and our thanks!

1. Bill Cook: As we were in prayer this a.m. the Lord dropped into our hearts the words of the well known song, “How Great Thou Art” and particularly— “when I consider the worlds thy hands have made”. Then it seemed that the Spirit was speaking of the inner realm that He is making within us and that we should rejoice and exult over that realm more than the in the beauty of the outer world.

In that instance we think on this: God has made us as tiny worlds. If we are moving on-track, we have a sun (Son) in our heavens. We have beautiful clouds in our skies for we are surrounded by “so great a cloud of witnesses”. These send warm showers that cause every thing to flourish in new growth.

When darker clouds come we have but to wait and pray for the sun (Son) to send the particular rays necessary to melt the clouds. We often think of these tiny worlds (planetoids) as insignificant, yet when we consider the tiny worlds such as Charles Finney, Jacob Boehme, etc., the atmosphere of these little worlds have expanded and have been felt around the whole earth—“they being dead yet speak.”

The Lord spoke to Jacob Boehme His reason for making these “little worlds.” Jacob, feeling his inadequacy, asked the Lord as did the psalmist of old, “What is man that thou art mindful of him?”

The Lord’s answer shall ring down through eternity, namely, He was desirous of having children of his own kind so—He made mankind to be a visible expression of Himself!!!

2. Jackie Caporaso: I was sitting in my chair reading when, as a bolt of lightening, I received a clear revelation of the glory of God. What I saw was the new creation of God in Christ. It was a people filled with His glory on display for the whole world to see. Indeed, “We are the glory of the Lord.” God has created us for His good pleasure. We have been in the likeness of Adam but now we are being transformed into the image of His dear Son, Jesus.

Just as Jesus was the glory of his Father when He came to the earth, so all His saints, on either side of the veil are about to show forth the magnificent glory of their Almighty Father to all creation. All flesh shall see this new creation coming down into the visible realm of the earth! All will stand in awe of what God has done! All the old will have passed away, and behold, all things will be new! This is the glory that will be known in all the earth, even as the waters cover the sea.

He has made our crooked places straight. We had believed the lies we had been taught by man’s religious interpretations, but He has brought His light and life into our hearts and minds. He has changed our perspectives and made us to know that we are His inheritance, “The eyes of your understanding being enlightened that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints..’ (Eph. 1:18)

Just as Abraham of old, we have been given a seed and a city. We have heard the call too and have been looking everywhere for that group of folks that are of that same seed. Abraham heard the call and believed God. He followed the Spirit that led him out of his comfort zone to the unknown. We were comfortable in our denominations when we were stirred by a new call. Something was drawing us away from the routine works and fellowships that we were accustomed to. There was another city beckoning to us. There was another gathering somewhere, another city beckoning to us. There were those that were hearing the same voice somewhere; but where were they?

Some have interpreted this as a physical rapture in the sky; but by the Spirit we know that it means much more than a physical flight in the literal blue sky. This “catching up” is when those on both sides of the veil are caught up together into the same substance and nature as our Lord Jesus Christ.

This is when the “city” comes down to earth and those who are still on the mortal side become immortal. Abraham waited for that city and so it has taken its time but we are seeing it and we are realizing that we’re entering into it and did not really know it. We have been in the company of those who are also heirs with us but we have been as strangers and sojourners in it, dwelling in tents. When we are fully into that city we may still be here on earth but we will no longer dwell in these mortal temporary tents; we will have entered into our new permanent dwelling places from above.

3. Faith Williams: This is a vision and prophetic word that I had some time ago. I saw the Lord walking away from me toward a partially-finished edifice. As He walked, He stooped to pick up rough, soiled stones from the gutters, one at a time. He then cleaned them off carefully, and breathed His Life into them. He then gave these words: “These, these are the Living Stones with which I shall build the temple. What man has despised and rejected I will make living stones in the Temple of God.”

4. Pastor Ron Poch has written a book called, “I Want to be Left Behind.” It is an in-depth look into the rapture. It is easy to read and is available from: Arrows of Truth, P. O. Box 108, Kennesaw, GA 30144.

5. Larry Hodges: “What is meant by the “second appearance” of the Lord? He appeared the first time in the humility of the vile body and being so clothed over with it, was not recognized by the very ones whose religious claims implied they should have been the first to know Him. He is now about to make what He terms His “second appearance”, in His saints.

“If His first appearance was in the humility of this vile body, His second appearance will not be after that order. He appears this time without sin unto that salvation which shall include the redemption of the body and shall involve the swallowing up of the mortality of that body of death by the Life-giving Spirit of Christ within, putting under foot the last enemy that shall be destroyed.”

6. Marion Polzin: I help Elaine in the office and I was discussing how prayer has changed for me. Previously; when a problem arose, I would try to “reason” out what would be a “good” way to resolve it. Then, of course, as every good Christian does, I prayed and asked the Lord to bless my decision or course of action.

Little did I realize that I was still eating from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil! I had decided what was good and asked the Lord to bless it! I did not look to the Tree of Life within to determine the mind and will of the Father in the matter. I had simply asked His blessing upon what I had determined was good.

Upon doing so I acted as if God had reversed His warning to Adam not to eat of this Tree. I was freely eating of it and expected the Lord to bless it, for after all, I was only choosing the good! I did not realize that I was still forbidden to eat of the Tree that divided our forefather Adam from union with God. As His child, I have learned that I am to eat only of the Tree of Life that is in me.

When I look to the Lord in every matter, seeking to know His mind, I experience a refreshing sense of relief. I don’t have to “labor” to find my own way. I can rest in Him Who is sovereign and trust my entire way unto Him. I believe that is what is meant when the Song of Solomon 8:5 says, “Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?”

7. Jane Leade: On the previous topic, she has this to say: “You may not take from the inhabitants of the outward world any of their bitter, unsavory morsels in all of which the secret union of that evil tree lieth hid to this day. Yet, the whole universe of spirits (people) do still take this same evil tree and feed upon it as if it were lawful for them to do so, claiming it to be a matter of necessity or even claiming it to be an ordination from the Most High. But the fact that this is not so will soon be made apparent when the sun shall break forth (the Day-spring even now arising) that shall convince the unbeliever that there is quite another way for the ransomed of the Lord to live.” (unquote)

(Elaine’s comment: How many times have you heard people say: ‘The Lord gave us a mind with common sense. We are supposed to use it. So, they defend eating of that infamous Tree and know nothing of living from the Tree of Life that is that new mind that is within them.)

8. Marian Sands: John 15:11 “These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain (abide, continue, dwell) in you, and that your joy might be full (filled, plentifully supplied, stuffed).” Nehemiah tells us that “the joy of the Lord is your strength.”

The joy of the Lord is our “power to resist attack.” If there was ever a day when the body of Christ needed the power to resist attack it is today. The assaults of the enemy on our minds, bodies, and families are increasing to the point that many are buckling under the strain. It is going to be the joy of the Lord that will cause us to stand strong inside no matter what outward pressures present themselves and that will be like a force field protecting our minds from the oppression of the enemy. It is crucial that we have the joy of the Lord!

Some may scoff because they see joy as a weak and worthless emotion incapable of holding anybody up in times of fear and uncertainty or all-out enemy attack. How can a fluffy cotton ball be expected to reinforce a sky scraper? Joy is about feeling happy and good times--right? It’s about vacations at Disneyworld getting the promotion at work and having a fat savings account isn’t it? That kind of “joy” tends to disappear when life gets rough. It crumbles under disappointment or loss. True joy stands even when Disneyworld is closed due to hurricane, we lose our job and all we have left are a few dirty pennies. Joy is more than an emotion that we feel when everything is going well in our lives. Actually, it’s not an emotion at all. Joy is faith’s smile. It’s knowing with every fiber of our beings that our Father loves us and has everything that concerns us in the palm of His hand and that He’s working all things together for our good. Joy is delighting in the ways of God even when those ways run contrary to our own.

Jn. 15:10,11 “If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love....These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might be in you and that your joy might be full.” True joy is the product of unbroken fellowship with the Lord through obedience. For example, one of God’s commandments is that we are to forgive. When we extend forgiveness, whether it is merited or not, we free ourselves and open ourselves up to experience joy. I like that saying “To forgive is to set a captive free and find that that captive was you.” God honors obedience to his Word with the unshakeable joy that only He can impart. Still, there are those who live in the wretched atmosphere of unforgiveness, believing that holding on to a grudge or hurt will bring more pleasure and satisfaction than letting it go. They don’t want to be denied their bitterness. Obedience is a key to joy.

We wrongly associate joy with what we possess and what we can attain. Joy that exists solely because of things or because we get our way is a sad, plastic counterfeit to the joy that exists even in the absence of things and when we don’t get our way. We were created to love God. We were designed to pour our lives out for Him and for others and it is only when we are doing what we were created and designed to do that we will ever truly be happy. We become that sacrifice of joy that Psalm 27:6 speaks of.

May there be in each of us a heart that bows down and says, “I’ll take the spoiling of my goods joyfully, Lord! Spoil me of my pride! Spoil me of all vain and selfish ambitions! Spoil me of my worthless anger and jealousies! You are my better and enduring substance and for you and others, I am willingly and joyfully spoiled.”

Heb. 12:2 “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross despising the shame and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.” Jesus was strengthened by a joy that was so powerful, and that girded Him up so securely that He did not buckle or waver in what the Father had sent Him to do. What was the joy that was set before Jesus that enabled Him to endure the cross? It was you and me. It was knowing that we would be able to draw near to Him and have the sweet and intimate fellowship that we were created to have. Through His sacrifice that joy was realized.

9. Book Warning (Lee Wigand): Beware of the book “Conversations with God” and “Conversations with God for Teens.” They have been on the New York Times best sellers list for a number of weeks and makes truth of the statement, “Don’t judge a book by its cover/title.” Dr. James Dobson has spoken publicly against these books.

The author purports to answer questions using the “voice of God” yet his answers go against the Bible’s teachings. One girl asked, “Why am I a lesbian?” He told her that she was born that way because of genetics. Then he told her to go out and “celebrate her differences.”

It promotes the New Age doctrine that sin is not real. One girl wrote, “I am living with my boyfriend. My parents say I should marry him because I am living in sin.”

His reply: “I do not forgive anyone because there is nothing to forgive. There is no such thing as right or wrong and that is what I have been trying to tell everyone: do not judge people.”

10. Health Warning (Betty Martini): Aspartame poisoning is escalating Alzheimer’s Disease. Women are now being admitted to hospital at 30 years of age with this disease. The Conference of the American College of Physicians said, “We are talking about a plague of neurological diseases caused by this deadly poison.”

There are 92 documented symptoms of aspartame and Nutri-Sweet, from coma to death. The majority of them are all neurological because the aspartame destroys the nervous system. Aspartame is partially the cause to what is behind some of the mystery of the Desert Storm: health problems. Several thousand pallets of diet drinks were shipped to the troops. (Heat can liberate the methanol from the aspartame at 86 degrees). Diet drinks sat in the 120 degree Arabian sun for weeks at a time on pallets. The service men and women drank them all day long. All of their symptoms are identical to aspartame poisoning.

(If a product says “Sugar-free” it most likely will contain Aspartame which is far worse for you than sugar could be. If it says “Sugar-free”, beware! It’s bad news! I can’t even find any chewing gum that is not sweetened with Aspartame. It is in so many of our foods. Stevia, a plant product which helps in the metabolism of sugar, tho’ little known, is an excellent sugar substitute. Elaine)

11. Times and Seasons: Even in the natural we can see that God has ordained different times and seasons for crops to be harvested, each as they come to maturity and not before. This is not because He shows a preference for the early crops; no, this is just part of His ordained plan and order of His creation. As it is in the natural, so is it also with the spiritual. As the barley comes to maturity and is harvested before the wheat, and the wheat comes to maturity and is harvested before the grapes, so also there are some believers in Christ Jesus who shall come to maturity (to the fullness of the stature of Christ) before some others...yet ultimately, this is the destiny of us all.

God is performing a fiery spiritual work in a remnant of His saints in this day as He has in many generations past. The divine work of the Spirit is creating within a people the insatiable desire to know the Lord at absolutely any cost; to be conformed to His death that they might also be partakers of His resurrection, that is, the first resurrection. This is not some elite group of super-saints that He is working in, in this way. On the contrary--this company has always seemed more like misfits than those who shall be caught up to the throne of God as first fruits of the harvest. But these misfits have been willing to pay a price, for they know by the Spirit that there is but one way out of this life and that is through a very real death...death to self by way of the cross. They have not believed the lie that we are delivered from death by the cross of Christ merely to await a “rapture”, but that we are delivered unto death so that we might “attain” to that first resurrection from the dead. (Name withheld).

12. Rex Andrews: The Lord showed me “The mercy that I have done to you, do to all others.” But how was I to do it? He taught me a little prayer for my own need, and it never occurred to me that I would ever teach it to anyone else. This was the prayer: “Flood the one that I am thinking of with fulfilling mercies. Dear Lord, flood with Thy Spirit in fulfilling mercies the one in my mind now.” And by that prayer I found out how to conquer. My testimony is that we can know the will of God, and do it, and abide in it.

13. Andy Snoke: Many Christians still believe that their only hope is to somehow escape this world, to be with the Lord forever, to be perfected after this earthly life is over. Yet God has decreed that He would have a Son, then a remnant, and eventually a Creation, completely in His likeness and image.

The groaning creation is waiting for the deliverance that can and will only come by the appear ing of Christ. But the Word of God tells us that His appearing is in His saints, in a remnant called to be just like Him. A remnant called to be completely identified with Christ. Just about the time that many are planning on being divinely evacuated, Christ will appear in His saints, in that Glorious Church without spot or wrinkle (no stain of age). All of creation is inwardly crying out for this great event. (From The Sharon Star)

14. Jane Leade: “As it was said that the writing of the law was by the finger of God, even so, yet once again God will copy out Himself, not in a dead draught (written on stone or paper) but in a lively acting power (in living epistles).”

15. Jim Alspaugh: Here is a word God gave me. The baptism of the Holy Ghost is a necessity in order to make us a clear channel that Jesus can flow through. When we are saved from sins, we think we can now do good, but we have not yet been completely separated from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. We don't have satan inside any more, but we still use his plan of operation, and try to do good in our own thoughts and actions. When we are baptized in the Holy Ghost, we learn we are helpless to do good and are dead to the law. This means we are dead to further trying to do independent good. Only God can do good.

To reverse the effects of the fall, He sent Jesus to make a way from heaven to earth so that He could bless us with His perfect good. The fall split perfect good into good and evil. Jesus in His death and resurrection, put good and evil back into perfect good with the negative always supporting His perfect positive. Jesus is the channel between heaven and earth, but He must come to indwell us in the baptism of the Holy Ghost so that we can be His channel to flow through to bless us and others on the earth. We must learn we are a helpless channel so He can perfectly flow through us without us messing things up by trying to operate off of the wrong tree of self effort.

16. I Saw Satan Fall Like Lightning—A Testimony: Luke 10:17-19, “The seventy returned with joy saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your Name.” And He said unto them, “I saw Satan fall form heaven like lightning. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy and nothing will hurt you.”

The Lord was teaching me about spiritual warfare and about the power and authority that we have been given over all the works of the devil .I knew the words but had never seen this power exercised. That was about to change! I was eating in a restaurant when the Spirit said, “Go into the city.” I went to my car and flipped my Bible open where this verse leaped out: “Go into the city.”

I prayed for guidance and was led to the Library. I walked into the area containing religious books. I saw a man dressed in tattered clothes that smelled of urine and feces, with open scabs on his face. He took one look at me and leaped from his chair, ranting and raving. I knew I had been called to minister to him.

I retreated to a book shelf and grabbed a Bible, hoping the Lord would guide me in this situation. This verse leaped off the page of the Bible: “Jesus rebuked the demon and the demon came out of the man.” This kind of ministry was new to me so I opened, in all, five Bibles and they all fell open at this same verse so the guidance was clear. The Lord said, “Just do it!” At that, I sat directly opposite the man who became enraged and started spitting at me. I spoke calmly, “You can no longer have any power over this man because of the authority given to me by the Blood of Jesus. I command you and all your demons to leave this man immediately and do not return to trouble him.”

To this the demons muttered something like “Yeah, yeah, we’re going.” The man slumped into his seat like a worn-out rag doll when the demons left him. This opened up an opportunity for us to talk about Jesus.

I’m sharing this testimony to help you understand just what Jesus was saying to His disciples when He said, “I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning.” It would be a strange time for Jesus to reminisce about some fall that Satan supposedly had many thousands of years prior to this conversation that Jesus was now having with His disciples. When the seventy returned to Jesus saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your Name, Jesus was responding to them. He said, “I know, for in the spirit I saw Satan fall like lightning from a place of usurped authority in the lives of those demon-possessed people. I saw Satan fall from his position and power that he held over them. As soon as you exercised the faith to use the authority that has been given to you, Satan fell like lightning from the position of authority that he held over those people.

It is unbelief that allows the devil to have any power over us. When we rise up in faith and realize that our names are written in heaven, that we are now seated with Christ in heavenly places, then that spiritual reality will become our actual experience and we will surely overcome all the works of the devil.

On the way out of the library, I was impressed to look at the floor beneath my feet. There was a zodiac pattern inlaid into the tiles of the foyer. And directly beneath my feet was a big gold scorpion that had been inlaid into the floor! I was walking on a scorpion! The Lord repeated, "I have given you the authority to trample underfoot snakes and scorpions, and I have given you authority over all the works of the devil."

A year later this man crossed my path again. He was transformed! He wore clean clothes and his skin was clear and his countenance bright. It was plain to see that the devil no longer had any power over him. Satan had fallen "like lightning" from a position of power and authority over him and his life was now being transformed because of the mercy and love of our Lord Jesus.

17. From our African sons: (1) Akinyemi Olusegun: "Thank you so much for the booklets sent to me recently. It has really done what I desired by instilling kingdom mentality in my pastor who I gave to read as gifts. It seems others are becoming more interested and the veil of the deception of the new age is being removed. Conformity to the stature of Christ is now our daily walk. We still want to learn more. The link site of Preston Eby also provided much needed kingdom thoughts."

(2) Babalola Bunmi: "I feel excited when I'm reading those materials you sent to me. They have opened my eyes to know the kind of worship and service God requires from me so that I will not offer a vain worship and be serving myself thinking that I'm serving God."

(3) Tafesse Kidane: "I could see your gladness and how you praise the Lord for what He has done for me. God is finally teaching me that 'All things work together for good' and the place He saw for me like He saw for all His beloved is the realm where I die for myself and live for and in Him and He lives in me. Yes, I must divorce everything which is not God's will."

(4) Ekemini Benson: "Thank you for loving us!" (I usually cry when I read my son's beautiful letters. They are so appreciative of everything we give them and are so humble before God. Elaine)

18. Laura Anderson: In a dream I saw stars aligned in a straight line. The Lord told my husband Terry, "This is what I am doing now. I'm aligning My people with Me!" The stars of heaven, which are the sons of God, are being aligned. They're not being aligned with one another; they're being aligned with God. When they are aligned with God they will be one with one another. It is the spirit which quickens, the flesh profits nothing. Man is trying to align himself with other men; this God will not accept."

19. Gerald Pike: I had an open vision one night while in prayer. I had my eyes closed when in front of my view I saw what I could only describe as a mass of buildings, burned out and fallen to the ground. I had seen pictures of Dresden burning during World War II, and the scene reminded me of what was left of the buildings after the fire went through the town. Among this rubble came beings of light walking. I say "beings of light" because I did not know what they were (angels or men). As I was watching these beings (who all had the shape of humans), they just glowed with intense light. They walked up to a pile of rubble directly in front of me, reached into this pile and lifted a person out of it and set this person on his feet and taught him the word of God.

20. Deborah Lampinen: Recently, I had a dream about resurrection. In the dream I heard that this dear saintly Christian lady friend, Sister Brubaker, had died. I went to view her body. She was lying in some kind of a square (or oblong) casket with a shroud of some sort covering her, like a mist, fog or cloud. I could vaguely see her face. As I was viewing her—so sadly—all of a sudden, I saw movement and she threw back the "shroud" and exclaimed, "I'm tired of this." Then, she resurrected right in my presence.

It was revealed to me as I pondered this dream, that the saints on the "other side" are anxiously waiting to return and join us who are alive and remain on "this side." Sis. Brubaker exemplifies the whole body of Christ. She was a wonderful example of a true child of God. I think she was about 96 when she died.

21. Judy Mahar: I still seek to grow in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. The bottom line seems to come to "growing up into Him in all things” (Eph. 4:15) which is the destination of all, being “predestined to be conformed to His image.” I think of this growth as utilizing His mind, instead of mine. There is a vast difference. His is alive, virtuous, active, pure, holy, and accomplishes what it is set to do. His life stems from the deepest qualities of heart. To know and be One with that mind is my deepest prayer.

In 1996 I was given a vision and told there would be a people who carry “His heart” as well as “His thinking.” Recently, I heard that still, small Voice say, “Welcome to the Kingdom within.” I realize I have mostly lived in the kingdom without—placing my energy, time, thoughts and attentions there. Jesus said His kingdom is within us—and it is ‘now.’ I embrace every moment as He takes me to the place where I go no more in and out. Here are a couple of recent significant thoughts: Always be the Love that you are.....and, There is much more power to be found in uniting, than in dividing.

22. India’s Miracle: Moses Paulose is a man whose life reads like the book of Acts. Born in India, he was saved as a teenager and soon gave his life to the work of the Kingdom of Christ. Now in his 60’s, he has been homeless, without food, beaten and humiliated many times because of his witness for Christ in a culture hostile to the gospel. His message has been confirmed with signs and wonders: the lame walk, the blind see and thousands have come to know Christ. Now he is raising up and training hundreds of Indian believers to continue to reach the unreached villages of India.

Several years ago, the Lord directed him to a 40-day fast to seek direction for his ministry. On the 40th day, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself appeared to Moses and directed him to establish a mission base in Rameswaram, India. This island is one of the top two Hindu worship sites in all of India. Though the work there has been very difficult and costly, God has provided through one miracle after another to see this work established.

Over the past several years they have been working to complete a massive training complex where they will house and train hundreds of missionaries and accommodate gospel meetings of up to 20,000 people. The work is about 2/3 complete. They have met with constant resistance from the Hindu religious community. Three days before the tsunami, they were successful in convincing the local authorities to withdraw Moses’ building permit, bringing the work to a complete halt.

This tiny island is located just west of Sri Lanka between that island and the mainland of India. It is right in the middle of the area most affected by the tsunami. When I located it on the map, my heart sank as I realized that they were right in the middle of the devastation. I called their missions coordinator in the U.S. who relayed the following story:

At 3:30a.m. the morning before the tsunami hit, an elder and respected prophet was awakened to a vision wherein an angel of death appeared to him and told him that Rameswaram had been marked for death and destruction. Keep in mind that no one had any idea an earthquake was about to occur. He immediately alerted Moses and the body of Christ was activated to prayer to plead for mercy and for the Lord to spare them from this fate. They prayed all through the night. By now everyone knows of the devastation in Southeast Asia. Rameswaram, in the center of the worst damage, was completely unharmed! The only casualties were people who were not on the island when the tsunami hit.

The island was completely spared because of the prayers of the saints and for the sake of the work that He has established there. The same official who revoked their work permit came to them after the catastrophe and asked their forgiveness for taking the permit. He asked them for the use of their facility to house the influx of refugees from Sri Lanka, since their building was the only one big enough for this purpose! The ministry is perfectly suited to carry out this task since they have been ministering to refugees from Sri Lanka for years due to ongoing civil war in that country

It is no accident that of the 11 nations affected by this disaster, 97% of the casualties occurred in countries where the Voice of the Martyrs is actively helping the persecuted church. These countries represent some of the most hostile nations in the world to the gospel of Christ. This was no “natural disaster” but a “supernatural” judgment of God. Yet, God is, by His own description, filled with mercy and compassion. Even in His severity, He never ceases to be the God of loving kindness. It is part of His plan .

(This account was published by “Glorybound Ministries” from Tennessee, U.S.A. It was sent to us by both Terry Crisp and Travis Ogletree who have personally met Moses Paulose and confirm to us that he is a humble, dedicated servant of the Lord.)
