I WALKED THROUGH TEARS

Elaine

My recent ministry trip to the Cornerstone Community Church in Singapore is one I shall never forget! Before I tell you about it, I want to thank all who prayed for us while we were gone. The Lord answered your prayers by watching over us and by giving us hearers with open ears and open hearts.

Our first stop was in Hawaii where we spent five days and had some home meetings there. We met a sister who had written a book telling of her research into the ancient Chinese characters which reveal that the Chinese had a knowledge of God in olden times. There are even records of them performing animal sacrifices similar to what the Israelites did.

Shortly before we were to leave for Singapore with our friends Milton and Marion Lee, Bill's trip was cut short. No sooner were we in the warm, damp atmosphere of Hawaii when he came down with the flu. We thought, "Hey, what's going on?" Bill usually avoids both colds and flu. However, he thought he had better not take a chance on the 15 hour flight to Singapore so he waited for my return to Hawaii after completing the Singapore leg of the journey

Pastors Tuck and Daphne Yang provided a lovely apartment for our use, and stocked the fridge with food. They took us out for lunch and dinner every day so we got to know them and those who labor with them, on a personal basis. They are all very serious about their faith; but they have a lot of fun when they eat together. They kept telling me, "We have to eat for two hours." I found that a little difficult to do, but I enjoyed the fellowship. I said to one sister, "I didn't know the Chinese people could be so warm and full of laughter. I've always seen them as a serious people"

She said, "Oh, we warm up slowly."

My answer to that was, "The Canadians are God's frozen chosen and we have to thaw out!"

I had never asked the size of the congregation because it didn't matter to me when the Lord said I could go. Imagine my surprise when I found there were 1500 people and they had to have two sessions on Sunday to accommodate them all! The average age of this group is 28 and they are "first generation" Christians. That means they have no history of Christianity in their families and have come into the faith out of some form of idol worship. One sister told me that only a year ago she had been offering gifts unto idols.

A number of young people have won their parents to the Lord so there is another group of 200 called "the Chinese Church" who have a separate meeting in the Chinese language. I ministered to them through an interpreter. I thought I had died and gone to heaven to have the privilege of ministering to all these hungry hearts!

At the sides of the platform were 20 different flags. They told me they represented the countries in which they were working in various capacities to help the people and to establish them in the Lord. I was impressed at their large outreach in Asia. I believe these believers will light a fire that will spread throughout all Asia as the Spirit blows upon the flame. The last time Pastor Yang ministered in India since the Tsunami, he saw 20,000 people come to the meetings

This is all "background" to the worship that I witnessed. Seeing this was the highlight of my trip! Jane Leade, a prophetess of the 17th century, prophesied that there would arise a "virgin church" in the last days that would not be defiled by man. Their worship and the manner in which they conducted the meetings was as close to a virgin church as I have ever seen.

The songs were worshipful and anointed. You didn't feel like you were being "entertained", for everyone was participating. While singing Amazing Grace, the song leader of the smaller Chinese Church fell to her knees. She told me later that the thoughts of His grace had overwhelmed her.

After a time of singing, the pastor exhorted the people to offer a praise offering to the Lord by praying in the Spirit. Now, I really liked that, for so often the Spirit is relegated to a place in the back room, or you can only pray in tongues in the privacy of your home. This worship in the Spirit was with much crying and tears. I didn't realize how much until I had to walk across the front of the church to speak a word over the microphone. It was clear that if I walked in front of these young people that I would have to walk through their tears, for they literally covered the floor!

I breathed a prayer and walked forth. Later, the pastor told me that they often had to mop up the floor before the next meeting! At no time have I seen such an outpouring of hearts as I saw among these young people in Singapore.

And, when it came to taking up the offering, the pastor announced it only once and then kept on with what he was saying. There was no big appeal taking up a major portion of time telling the people how blessed they would be if they gave generously, or how cursed they'd be if they withheld their tithes and offerings. The churches in the West would do well to follow their example!

We found this city-state to be very modern and progressive in every way, but we won't go into that. Most cities have a central bank of skyscrapers but Singapore seems to be made up of skyscrapers! Their land mass is only 10 by 35 miles so they build up and even have projects whereby they are claiming land from the sea!

The believers were so good to me in every way that I felt "pampered" every day. On my 78th birthday (of my everlasting life!), Pastors Tuck and Daphne took me to a fancy "English Tea" held at a special place on the 70th floor of a skyscraper. It is reputed to be the highest restaurant in Asia or Europe. Of course, we ate for two hours!

I pray the young people will never forget the word I shared with them, for I know I will never forget them and the pure love they have for the Saviour!

(I have four CD's of the messages I shared there on: Be Thou Perfect, The Three Feasts, The Melchisedec Priesthood and The Feast of Tabernacles. They are ideal for those just coming into this message. Available in CD's and tapes).

THE END OF ALL THINGS

Elwin Roach

On one hand, Jesus said that if he was lifted up (on the cross) that he would draw all unto Himself, which would bring an end to all things carnal, while on the other hand, to this day Adam continues to say in his heart, "I will ascend into heaven; I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will be like the most High;" This is the way of the fragmented man; he is self-inclined, self-motivated, self-built. To sum it up, he is the self-made god of this world, and he is out of balance.

He is double minded and never comes to the knowledge of the truth which is at hand.

Ah, but praise God! The fragmentation of all things ends by overcoming the I will syndrome and living in His will. It is in and by Christ that we and the rest of the world are defragmented and made whole. It is in Him that every subtle, aggressive, ravenous beast is joined again to the ones that are gentle, harmless, and sacrificing. The simplicity of it is, every fragmented creature ends in Him, whether mellow or mean. It is a mandate! For they are held as firmly by the law of circularity as little red apples are held by gravity; and as soon as their grip weakens, they are pulled instantly to the source of the power. The law of circularity wins over, as it will with all things. It is a law that has a strong hold on everything, on each particle and fragment, and once they lose their resistant grip, the force of the higher law instantly pulls each one in its own order into the End.

Until that becomes a fact, the process which is working in every man must finish its course. To open slightly heaven's window of understanding, let us note an experience of an anointed vessel, one of those in the forefront of revelation today, our friend, Alyce McPherson:

"During the church age, the ministry has declared Christ, but Christ will soon declare Himself! He will appear out of the midst of a people, sons of God who will be the voice or divine expression of their father.

"This appearing will be in perfection. A people will be seized or caught up into His Spirit and become one with Christ.

"I have been behind the veil. Christ Himself appeared out of the midst of me and totally seized me into a glory I have never experienced before. He came from the inside out and was in total control. I was inside Him and found myself experiencing a oneness with Christ Himself. I felt His great love and compassion for mankind and I saw all things finished in Him. Understand what I am saying; all things are finished in Him! In the realm of spirit He has finished what He was sent to do. Now He has seated Himself in a position, high above all principality and power. This position will never be usurped by any other power, for He has put all things under foot. He will come as a thief out from the midst of man, binding the strong man of the house and taking full control, as He catches man up into the glory behind the veil of our flesh. We will never again return to the beggarly elements, for we will be enveloped with the mind of Christ.

“I did not stay there, but I was there. While I was there I was able to function in the realm of earth and accomplish the necessary things of life, but my mind was His mind, seated in the heavens. My whole being was bathed in pure love for His creation. There was no respect of persons in this place in Him.

“When I was released again to earth’s consciousness, I asked Him why I could not stay. His answer was, “I took you behind the veil, so that you could spy out the land I’m taking you to, and now you are to bring back the report to creation.”

“I knew why He was willing to give His life in the flesh and return as the seed of a quickening spirit. It was to take up the greater glory of indwelling all mankind as the life principal of a new creation in the earth. A seed after His own planting. A people who would declare His generation. The glory of this appearing will never pass away nor be defiled by man. It is a place prepared in the midst of man himself. This place is the Christ in man and will soon emerge from the inside out and swallow up death in victory. A people will walk upon the earth with the mind of Christ in total control, putting down all rule and authority.” (End quote)

This total control is the End of all things not only in the body of Christ, but is the beginning of the end in all things of the earth. When all rule and authority ends in the presence of He who is the End, all rule and authority will likewise end in the same. He is the Goal, the Godhead, the End, of all things, whether they know it or not.

As the light penetrates the darkness, we can wholeheartedly say amen to: the end of all things is at hand (I Peter 4:7), now in the end of the world (Heb. 9:26), and old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

SONG OF THE BRIDE

Part 33

Elaine

Song of Solomon 5:6, “I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.”

To “open the door” is to yield to and obey the Spirit through faith so that Christ may be our all in all. Let us now fill our alabaster boxes with the precious myrrh of repentance, of communion and prayer, yielding to the Holy Spirit. Let us search for every bolt that has barred the door to our Beloved. No bolt can stand before our deeper adoration, obedience and prayer, lying at His feet in utter humility.

He had continued knocking at the door of her heart until He roused her from slumber. She loved Him alone and knew His voice, but He was not content to let her remain in a place of satisfaction of answered prayers, spiritual experiences, and prophetic words. He was calling her to come apart with Him, to leave everything to come into a higher place of revelation and separation unto Himself.

The Bride may not intentionally refuse Him. She feels she must finish what she is doing, and fulfill her commitment to her fellow man or to her family. There may be some “Christian work” that is demanding her attention. Or, she may continue resting and enjoying the admiration of those about her. We are happy to be called but often we let some small thing hinder us from obeying His Voice. Sometimes we are lulled to sleep by good resolutions. We can see ourselves, by the eye of the Spirit, possessing all He has shown us. This is so deceptive that we settle down to sleep, dreaming this delightful dream, and fail to gird up our loins and follow after Him.

When the true Bride awakens and opens the door and does not find Him there, her heart bleeds for Him. She feels she must find Him even though it means intense suffering. She will not return to her passive state and wait for Him to come and seek her. She steps out into the darkness, not understanding why He went on, and plunges into the night to seek Him whom her soul loveth. This intense seeking after her Beloved presents new problems from unexpected sources!

Vs. 5:7 “The watchmen that went about the city found me; they smote me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.” The shepherds in the third chapter had pointed out the way to her so that she was able to find her Beloved. But, in this passage, the watchmen are backslidden and resent the hunger and the repentance of the Bride. They are embarrassed that anyone should seek Him more diligently than they. Nothing will stir up persecution faster than to have a poor, hungry soul run ahead of the shepherd. This brings conviction to the shepherds who, unless they pursue after Him also, must revile the one who has thus shamed them.

We are all aware of watchmen who had lulled us to slumber by their soothing words, and who warned us of fanaticism—of “going too far” in our search for Him. They wanted us to sleep and be satisfied like the rest of the sheep who lie docile in their stalls. ‘Don’t rock the boat,’ seems to be the watchword. Don’t bestir the others and cause them to be discontented. Leave well enough alone! They hinder, rather than assist the bride in her search for a deeper walk with her Lord.

When she found He had gone on and left her behind, she no longer had any arguments about soiling her feet, or getting up to open the door. No—she heeded not the remonstrances of the watchmen who tried to silence her voice with thinly-veiled threats. They accused her of emotionalism, and a desire to be seen, of disturbing the peace of the flock. With such words they beat her and took away her veil.

To an eastern woman, to take away her veil meant she was a harlot, for only harlots go unveiled. The watchmen taking her veil is a symbol of persecution, misrepresentation, and slurs upon her zeal for the Lord. These are echoed by the sheep, who always follow the shepherds, no matter where they lead, not discerning the Voice of the True Shepherd and Bishop of their souls who calls every hungry heart to a closer walk with Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach.

THE BLOOD COVENANT

Elaine

How does this covenant of hospitality work? The book and movie of “Not Without My Daughter” tells of an American girl who married an Iranian. When they went to Iran, his family killed a goat and poured out the blood and poured it on the threshold of the door. It was their way of welcoming her as their guest. To show that they received and honored her as their guest, they poured out blood upon the threshold of the door.

In ancient times, the threshold was made with a little basin, a little hollow that was to catch the blood that was poured out upon it. In some instances, the word “threshold” is translated “basin” in the Bible because it was made to catch the blood. When a person wanted to honor a guest, he would pick out an animal that would convey the extent of honor that he wished to show his guest. If the guest was very important, he would choose a very valuable animal. If the guest was not very important, they would use a dove or a pigeon, or even wine or salt.

The blood represented the host’s own life and when he poured blood upon the threshold, he was welcoming his guest with his own life. Today, we would say, “Make yourself at home—treat this home as if it were your home.” If you admire anything in the house, it will be given to you. We found the American Christians treated us this way. We hardly dared to admire anything or it would be given to us! Even if they didn’t know about the hospitality covenant, they had hearts that were hospitable!

In the East, no man would enter another man’s door to do that host harm because if he did he’d curse his own life. For this reason, no thief would enter through the front door. He would break in the back door or a hole in the wall. Jesus said, “...He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.” When you enter by the front door, you submit yourself to the hospitality covenant. You cannot do that host harm! If you come in some other way; you are not bound by this covenant, and you can do whatever you want.

There is an interesting custom connected to the Olympic Games. Whoever won the Olympic games was given special treatment. A little breach was cut in the wall of the city which allowed the winner to enter the city through this breach, signifying to him that he was as a conqueror to them. And, a conqueror would not enter by the city gates but would seek to enter through a breach in the wall. By doing this, he had no need to subject himself to the laws of hospitality. He is saying, in effect, “I shall do as I please with you. I am the conqueror!” Jesus is using this picture here and He says, in Vs. 9-11, “I am the door; by Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.” These are covenant terms. To what is Jesus the door? “I am the door to covenant with God Almighty. If you want to abide under the shadow of the Al mighty, you must go through Me! There is no other way! Anyone who tries to get to the Father by any other way is a thief and a robber and will be thrown out of the house! But, whoever comes in through the Door, I shall receive and bring under the shadow of the Almighty. And all I have and all I am I give to that one—My nature, My possession!”

The most insulting thing you could do to your Host is to step on the threshold. The blood in the threshold basin represents his life, so if you step in the blood you are telling your host that his life has no value. It is like refusing to put out your hand and perhaps spitting in a person’s face when he extends his hand to shake hands with you. This imagery is portrayed in Heb. 10:26, “For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins.” Vs. 28-29: “He that despised Moses’ law died without mercy under two or three witnesses. Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite (insulted) unto the Spirit of grace?”

When we refuse to acknowledge the Blood that was shed for us, and refuse to receive that and continue to sin willfully, we are standing in the blood on the threshold.

FROM MY PRAYER TIMES Elaine

1. Come into the Ark: As I was checking through my notes recently I came upon a word the Spirit gave me in 1998, the same year that Samuel Doc-torian was given the vision of the Five Angels of the Continents. First, were three verses:

Jer. 51:20, “Thou art My battle axe and weapons of war.”

Psa. 18:29, “For by thee have I run through a troop; by my God have I leaped over a wall.”

Gen. 6:13 “For the whole earth was filled with violence.”

“Did I not cause Noah to be protected in the Ark while I judged the wicked world around him? Tell My people to ready themselves to that place where I might shut them in the Ark—safe from the strife of tongues. And, after a season they also shall find themselves in a new world—a world that has been cleansed by the Hand of God, that is ready to be established upon righteous principles. If you would be a part of this new world, you must be with those who are shut up in the Ark—walking always conscious of My presence and My will in all that they do.

“Entreat My people to abide always in the Ark, for the rain is even now falling to judge unrighteousness in the earth.”

(Bear in mind that the Ark in our day is the presence of the living God!)

2. The Chinese People: I have met some believers who have been led in intercession to pray for forgiveness for the way we Canadians treated the Chinese who came to our land. They were originally bought here as cheap labor to build the great railroads across our country. Many lost their lives in this dangerous work. They were given no rights as citizens and were not allowed to bring their wives or children to Canada. This caused quite a hardship for the men who became very lonely for a family life. Eventually, after some years, things changed for the better.

I was surprised when the Lord began to speak to me recently about the Chinese people. We know there are millions of Christians today who are in the Underground Church of China and who suffer severe persecution for their faith.

This is what the Spirit said to me: “Thy people have rejected them and subjected them to a lower place, but I have received them, for they also are My ancient people who knew Me in shadowy form. Now I desire that they should know Me clearly and be delivered from all the barbarism that has entered into their culture. My Own are yielding up their lives to serve me and shall I not answer for such as this? Shall I not reveal hidden secrets unto thee and reveal Myself in a way they have not known? These living martyrs have honored Me and shall they not be honored by Me? I do honor them by sending the good news of the kingdom to their brethren who are free to share it with those who are bound (i.e. the brethren in Singapore). Rejoice at My plan, for I forget no man’s sacrifice, but My ears are open unto those who call upon Me in truth.”

CROSS OVER (Prophecy) Chris Taylor

“It is not to the world that I would manifest Myself at this time, but to My own—to My disciples—and that, behind closed doors for the most part. For the world will often trample even pearls, but My own are learning to tread more carefully and to reach out and accept that which is holy with clean hands and pure hearts. My own are coming forth and drawing near in greater numbers, challenged and drawn by My Spirit's wooing.

"Indeed, I am alluring My church into the wilderness and she shall be found of Me—she who asked not for Me. For she has so often turned away from the sound of the knock and the sense of My presence, but the time is coming when the wilderness walk will close in and that will be her only choice—to walk in circles until she finds the One Who is All in all.

"Blessed be the name of the Most High Who alone calls forth the quick and the dead—who manifests Himself among the humble followers who, ignored by the world and cast aside as unimportant, without value, without worth, have been found by Him to be of greater value even than fine gold, than much fine gold...for My Own will soon manifest the living Son and His dawning. Therefore have I chosen you, called you, and drawn you to come forth for such a time as this, for you are following as lambs after their mothers. You are learning to stay close and look to Me. All of the Baptism of helplessness that has come to the fore is accomplishing its mighty workmanship and gathering an army of cross-carrying believers. Honor to the Lamb."

CALLING EVIL GOOD Bill Cook

In the last issue we discussed certain conditions that could lead to severe judgment.

I am thinking of a vision that was given to Tommy Hicks in the early 60's where the Lord revealed that the evil forces in the land must have their cup full and then judgment follows.(the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full) Gen.15:16a.

Our God is not a wrathful God, for He waits patiently and continues to hold the waters of the judgment dam back but when things wax evil and more evil, rebellious to the point of blasphemy against God Almighty, the dam breaks and delivers the terrible floods of judgment.

Consequently the dam that broke open on Boxing Day/04 is still flowing, and according to the "Five Angels" who revealed these frightful judgments to Samuel Doctorian, it will continue to flow until each continent is dealt with according to the sin that has mounted up against them.

But the Lord has promised to look after His own. First Angel: "There shall be the greatest spiritual awakening. Bondages shall be broken. Barriers will be removed. Millions.....will turn to Christ. It is the last harvest. I shall prepare my church for the return of Christ.

Further confirmation, a note from Betty Soukup : "As I awoke one morning the Lord revealed to me that the disasters happening all around the world is like the flood in Noah's day. He showed me that the raven is out there now picking up dead stuff, but when the waters are abated the new life will come forth and God will send forth His dove company which will bring life to the people and creation.

"We are surely living in awesome times, great sifting and purging going forth – primarily in God's people but also in governments and all corruption. The kingdoms of this world must become the Kingdoms of our Lord and His anointed ones. For this to take place the ungodly kingdoms of this world must come down.

"Governments are being exposed, people in high places are falling like the stars from heaven. Mark13:25. Darkness is covering the earth but God's people will arise and shine for the glory of the Lord will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. Praise God, the days we live in are glorious and awesome days."

THE BRETHERN SHARE

1. A Response From A Muslim Woman: "Let this earthquake and Tsunami that are so ghastly, and assume it as God's direction of what we, as the Moslems, should do to dedicate ourselves to humanity, disregarding religions, without boasting that our religion is the best and that people from other religions should be destroyed by God. Look at how all of them help us wretched people who are disaster-stricken, yet we are shamelessly ungrateful. They are the ones whom we persecute; we close the doors of their churches; we force their Christian schools to teach Islam religion; we burn their churches, and their shops! We even slander them, saying that they are the enemies of our religion. Is that our attitude to express our thanks to those who help us by cursing them only because they do not believe in Islam!

"Just watch on the TV, thousands of people whom you consider your enemies, and whom you persecute, came together only to save our lives, to ease our suffering. They even ignored their New Year Celebration. They gave their donation with their strength and their money. The Japanese, the idol worshippers, have donated 500 million dollars that excels the American donation of 350 million dollars. They compete to help us, to bless us and to make us happy, while we always compete to curse them, to mock them, to slander and persecute them. I cried when I watched how my brethren were rescued by those whom we persecuted. My conscience knocks the hearts of all.”

2. Darin Runyon: I am grateful for the work of the Father in my life. You can read scripture over and over but when that word becomes alive in you, it will change you into His image (nature). I was born with a defect. As a child, I never “fit in.”

March 9, 2005 was a day I will never forget. I was praying my morning prayer. Father told me to give Him a Jubilee. I didn’t understand how I could give the Father a Jubilee. He said “Wipe the slate clean and give Me a rest.” I had been reading about the Jubilee. In the spirit I had knowledge of what He was talking to me about. I was upset and held the Father accountable for my defect and all the pain of the past was still deep within me. I gave the Jubilee. I wiped the slate clean. In the spirit I was back on the playground many years ago where a group of kids were making fun of me. Father told me to speak forgiveness to them. I saw the Spirit enter me and it was Christ Jesus. I have had a peace like I have never known. What a wonderful God we serve! What a ministry of reconciliation we have! (2 Cor. 5:18-19).

3. Seven Lamps of Fire: This is the name of George Warnock’s new book about the seven spirits of God. We highly recommend it, along with his classic “Feast of Tabernacles”. All writings are free as God enables. Write to him at: P.O. Box 652, Cranbrook, BC, Canada V1C 4J2

I’ll give you a little taste of P. 51 which really spoke to my heart. “God is preparing a people after His own heart who will be ready to don the mantle of a meek and humble shepherd when the hirelings flee from the flock, or when God drives them out. He is preparing a people of mercy who will be ready to stand in the gap when our social structure collapses. They have God’s anointing on them now—in the day of their weakness. Often they feel like David when he said in his trouble, “I am this day weak, though anointed king.” (2 Sam. 3:39). For weakness, and suffering, and rejection for the sake of the truth is one of the ingredients of the holy anointing oil. It takes the myrrh of suffering to give true incense to the ointment on the head of the one who in the purposes of God will become a vessel of mercy.

“ For God must have vessels of mercy in this world that is full of hate and malice and cruelty. And the irony of it all is this: that earthly governments that profess to be merciful and helpful to people in distress, are making laws, or tolerating laws, that promote a reckless disregard for God and the Bible, in the name of human rights—in the consequence of which our families suffer more trouble, more abuse, and more devastation than ever. The bottom line in all of this confusion is: “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

4. A Reader: After the tsunami, I kept hearing in my spirit “groaning of creation...birth pangs...” When I asked, “Father, I know Your will is perfect. What are You saying here?” I was led to Luke 21:25: “’And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring:’”

During the torrential rains we’ve been having in California, I also went to Abba, as I always do with this question. My bible fell open to James 5:7 & 8. “Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.”

5. Kitty Pace: There has come a time when we have no faith, but we live because of His faith within us. I want to warn you about faith. This faith is Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. I have known people who seem to have faith in their faith itself. They use this faith to confess all manner of things. When we enter into the Most Holy Place, self does not do anything, but rather we trust in Christ within to manifest Himself in any way He chooses. It is God who worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure.

6. A New Book! Ricky and Karen Evans: We highly recommend their book called “Balanced and Established.” It is an excellent book by a couple whom we respect highly. It is available at: www.buybooksontheweb.com. It will be available at Wal-Mart in six months. The price is $18.00 each, which includes postage.
