Before The Foundation of the World

Kevin C. Blacker, Sr.

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.” Eph. 1:1. Many believe that they are already in Christ because Christ is in them. Col. 1:27 says, “...which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.” (Hope is something that you don’t possess yet. Christ is in you, but you have yet to come into the glory of the Christ.)

Is He being manifested in you; is He appearing in you? (2 Th. 2) Can the world see His righteousness in you? (Ps. 22:30-31). Does His seed remain in you and you go no more out? (Rev. 3:12; 7:14-5). These are compelling questions that we need to ask ourselves. The scriptures tell us to judge ourselves to see whether we are in the faith, not to condemn, but to examine ourselves.

Over 30 years ago, I considered the rapture doctrine. I thought, “If I were taken right then, as a new Christian, into the presence of God, the darkness still in me would draw back from the light.” At that moment, God spoke audibly to me, “Yea, and I will try you in all points of your life.” I’ve remained in faith to His processing in my life even when others said, “He said it is finished, so you are finished and you don’t have to do that; that is works.” I’ve come to know when He speaks such things, that it isn’t for one member, but applies to the whole body of Christ. In that statement, He gave a promise that when He was done, there would be nothing that would draw back from His light. I believe that He is well able to do that which He has promised. I Jn.3::2-3, “...and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is. And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.”

It has been said that, “It is not by works’ and I would say, “Not by the works of the flesh.” God is asking us to come into agreement with His work in us. Abraham had to believe what God spoke to him and his works manifested his faith in God. It was not his works, but his agreement with God’s work in his life.

James 2:20-24,26 asks, “...that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which says, “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.” And he was called the friend of God. You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only. For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.”

Abraham believed God and it was accounted to him for faith. His faith was put into action. Faith is believing and believing is—trusting in, relying upon, and adhering to.

God has revealed to us what was in His mind before He ever said, “In the Beginning” (Gen. 1:1; Eph.1:9-12) “...having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself, that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him. In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.”

Are you fully trusting in Him to bring forth His glory that will be a praise unto Him? See I Peter 1:3-5; I Cor. 15:50-54.

I Peter 2:9 “...but you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.” (Proclaim is “to publish, celebrate.” Praises means “properly manliness (valor); excellence.”

To say that we are already manifesting these praises to the full measure of what was in God’s mind before He began is misleading to say the least. If there is anything in us that isn’t in agreement with the life that He has placed within the darkness of our soul, then we are an unfinished product. Eph. 1:4-10 and I Peter 1:20 give us the understanding that before God ever began, He had it finished in His mind. No master artist or builder would begin a work without first envisioning the finished product in his mind. How much more so would God, the divine Creator, do the same.

Isa. 46:10 says, “Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.”

It has been said, “There is nothing that we can do since we were in Christ before the foundation of the world.” (I would say, before the work of God was ever started.) The work in us is not complete until we come to a full manifestation of His image. The image is still hidden within the stone when we are not in complete manifestation.

One kingdom ministry speaks of a new dimension that “knows no boundaries or limitation and is not bound by lower laws of time and space, right and wrong, or any other law that governs the lower vibratory dense realm we call time, space, and matter.” (This sounds like lawlessness!)

He also says, “We want you to see the cross as the finished work of Christ. There is absolutely nothing for you to do. Nothing! Nothing but believe and rest in what was accomplished at Calvary.”

Some have gone so far as to say, “In God’s eyes He only sees the finished product.” I say this, as an artist, the finished product is always in the artist’s mind while he is at work hammering away at the stone. If the stone said, “Stop! I’m a finished work, because I’m finished in your mind.” and, if he stopped, would the image ever be manifest for everyone to see? Don’t worry, God won’t stop until He has accomplished His plan. What if Abraham, Noah, Moses or Joshua had not put their faith to work in what God commanded them to do? They were blessed for faith and not unbelief.

“For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us” Rom. 8:18. We need to yield and come into agreement with the handiwork of God in our lives and not resist the processing. He is bringing us out of darkness into His marvelous light. The work is not done in us until He has put His approval (signature, name upon us. Rev. 2:17.

Further scriptures that deal with these things are: Rev. 2:17; I Jn. 3:10-16,22-24; 1:5-10; Gal.

4:19; Rom. 5:1-5; I Cor. 3:11-15; I Peter 1:7; Heb. 2:12; Mal. 1:6-8; 2:17; 3:1; Zech. 14:2-21; Rev. 7:14-15.

God is not just able to forgive your sins, but He is well able to cleanse you from all unrighteousness. To say that we are clean and clothed upon when we aren’t is to deceive ourselves. Let us confess our sins and allow Him to cleanse us as we drink His blood (Life is in the blood) and eat His flesh. Will you yield to the Potter’s hands as He brings you to the completed work that He promised before He ever began? Will you be in faith? Our trial by fire is to prove or put to the proof what is abiding in you—is it Him or an imposter?

My prayer is this: “Lord, put your laws so deep in our hearts and minds to where we never leave from before your throne (Authority) whether it be night, when all seems to be dark, nor in the day; when all is going well and we forget You. Let us do only those things that please You so that we will be to the praise of Your glory.” Amen.

A VISITATION (REVELATION 5)

Mitt Jeffords

The Lord has given me many dreams and visions over the years. Some have been like those dreams seen by Daniel, and some of the visions have been similar in style to the visions that John saw in Revelation.

I was seeking the Lord one morning when He spoke to me and said, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and I never change. Even to this day I am the beginning as well as the end, and I always will be.” Then He quickened to me that which is written in Rev. 1:10, “I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day.” The Lord said, “All that which John witnessed in the Revelation, he did not see by vision or by dream, but rather I took him in the spirit to the beginning where he actually witnessed Satan and his angels fall from heaven (Rev. 12:7-9). I also took John to the end where he witnessed the great white throne of judgment (Rev. 20:11-15).”

Until this moment, I had never really given any consideration as to why it was written that Jesus was the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, but now this was taking on a whole new definition for me.

How can any man comprehend the power of God, a spiritual Being who is not limited to the laws of time and space as man is? I have learned that most unbelief is well rooted in man trying to comprehend the spiritual things of God with natural understanding. It cannot be done, and this is why the Lord is willing to give any of us the gift of His Spirit so that we might be able to understand and know God. For it is as it is written in I Cor. 2:11, "For what man knows the things of man except the spirit of man who is in him? Even so, the things of God no man knows, only the Spirit of the Lord. Now we have not received the spirit of this world, but the spirit which is of God so that we might know the things which are freely given to us of God." I then experienced a new thing, for after a few thoughts, the Lord allowed me to quit trying to reason out what had happened to John, and I believed that it was so. I now realized that the Lord was preparing me for something by revealing unto me how He was the Alpha and the Omega. I became very excited, realizing that the Lord was about to do a new thing for me.

The Lord led me to read all of Revelation 5 "And I saw, in the right hand of him that sat upon the throne, a book written on both sides, and then sealed with 7 seals. And I saw a strong angel, proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the book or who was able to look inside. And I wept much because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look upon it. Then one of the elders said unto me, 'Do not weep, for behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David has prevailed to open the book, and to loose the 7 seals upon it. And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb, as it had been slain, having 7 horns, and 7 eyes, which are the 7 spirits of God sent forth into all the earth

"And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat on the throne. And when he had taken the book, the 4 beasts and the 24 elders fell down before the Lamb, everyone having harps and golden vials full of odors, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sung a new song saying, "You are worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof; for you were slain and have redeemed us to God by your blood out of every kindred, and tongue and people, and nation. And you have made us to be kings and priests unto our God; and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels who were around the throne, and also the beasts and the elders. And the number of them was 10,000 times 10,000, and 1000's and 1000's: and they were saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing."

Wow! Even though I had read this chapter many times before, I had never realized just how big a heavenly event this was, seeing that there were at least 10,000,000 heavenly creatures witnessing this event. The Lord also confirmed again that John did not witness this event by vision or dream because one of the 24 elders actually came over to John and spoke to him. All of a sudden, I felt the presence of the Lord come upon me, and in a moment, I felt the heavens parted and suddenly I found myself at this very same event described in Revelation 5. The Lord showed me the events that occurred from the time that Jesus was crucified on the cross until He appeared as the Lamb that was slain in Rev. 5. I perceived that there was a lot more about these events than what I had previously understood; and I also perceived that I was about to learn more about Jesus Christ than what I had previously known.

It was then that the Lord asked, "When did I get the victory?" I thought about this for a moment, and I answered with what I had always believed, "Lord, did you not get the victory when you suffered and died on the cross?"

The Lord asked me, "Were there not thousands of others that were also crucified on those same Roman crosses; and did they not also suffer greatly before they died?"

I answered, "Yes, Lord, they did."

The Lord said, "So then, if the victory was gotten through the suffering and death of the cross, then why did not all of those thousands who suffered and died in like manner also get the victory? Should not they also be worshipped and served as "Lord"?"

I answered timidly, "Lord, I suppose the reason I do not worship them is because they did not die for my sins like You did."

The Lord's answer was: "This is truth: for I willingly offered Myself up for you so that by My blood your sins could be forgiven, and that you could be sanctified by this truth. I shed My blood so that the guilty blood could be redeemed by the innocent blood. Surely the new covenant is established in My blood.

“Let My blood signify unto you that you have a Lord whose love for you is so great that I willingly suffered and died for each one who comes to believe on Me. Let My blood always be a sign unto you, a sign that My love and My forgiveness is greater than the sin that dwells in you. When I died on that cross, the veil in the temple tore completely in two, from top to bottom, signifying the end of the old and the beginning of the new. No longer could the sins of any be atoned for by the blood of bulls and lambs, but by My blood only. But still, if the victory was not found in the suffering and shedding of blood on that cross, then where was it? Was not the only victory that was found on the day of My death that which the wicked thought they had won because they were able to crucify Me? Again, the cross is a symbol of the greatness of the love that I have for all sinners, but truly, it is also a symbol of the hatred that the hypocrites and the wicked have towards all things that pertain to God.

“Do not forget this truth—the only victory that the cross signifies is that which the hypocrites and the wicked thought they obtained when they crucified Me; for it was here that the heathen of this world united with the religion of the self-righteous to murder the Son of God. Have you not yet perceived that even the people of God found more value in choosing a murderer and a thief unto themselves rather than the Son sent to them from their God? In this is found the enmity that rules over all those who are kept in bondage to the thoughts and desires of the carnal mind: a mind which lusts to hate any thought, any man, or any doctrine that allows for the God of life to have any reign over it. This is the blindness of this world, the ignorance that keeps those who are carnally minded separated from the life that I created for men to be partakers of. Have I not revealed unto you that My will for you is that you may all be partakers of abundant life? Is it not written that when I rule in your hearts, you will experience a peace and joy that those of this world could not possibly experience?

“I have no desire to reign over the lives of men through force, or intimidation, cruelty, or oppression. In truth, I was crucified because I came into this world to free the minds of men from the misery and oppression that has ruled over them. Do you now see more clearly how the victory the world thought they had won was to rid the world of all My influence, My ways, and My thoughts? For My Spirit, My ways and My thoughts free the souls of men from the corruption and oppression of worldly governments and false religions. Of course, the victory that these thought they had won was only an illusion in their own minds. These are they who are blinded by the darkness, ignorant of how great it is for Me to be your God. Let the cross always be a symbol to you, believing in your hearts that you truly are the object of all My love and affection, for all the thoughts that I think towards you, they are thoughts to do you good, to give you abundant life and peace of mind.”

The Lord continued to question me, “If the victory was not at the cross, then where was it? Was it in the tomb when I arose from the dead?”

Seeing that I had erred so with my last answer, I thought better of it this time, carefully considering what I might reply. After I considered it for a time, I said, “Lord, I know that it is written in I Corinthians 15:26 that “The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death”, so I suppose that if you had triumphed over all of your other enemies, then the victory would have surely been won when in that tomb you arose from the dead, seeing that your overcoming of death would have been the last thing that you had need to triumph over.

The Lord answered, “If the victory was in the resurrection, then why did not the victory go to Lazarus or Jairus’ daughter after they were raised from the dead? Why was not the victory given to the son of the widow whom Elijah brought back to life? If then the resurrection is truly where the victory is found, then why are none of these worshipped as your Lord and Saviour?”

“Because, Lord, it is written that You alone should be worshipped.” Now my curiosity was piqued and I asked, “Lord, if the victory was not won at the cross or in the tomb, then where was the victory won?”

Again, the Lord spoke: “It is true that I overcame death, as well as all of the enemies that oppress My people, for it was with Me just as it is with all men, that My fight was not with flesh and blood, but with powers, principalities, rulers of the darkness, as well as with all manner of wicked spirits. I overcame all the forces and the powers that rule over this present evil world. Surely, each one of these triumphs was a great victory, for in each one of them I overcame an enemy that flesh and blood are powerless to overcome. In each of these triumphs, I experienced a victory that no man before Me had ever experienced; but still, the victory was not yet. Yes, it is true that the last enemy that I overcame of this world was death, and it was by this triumph that I experienced complete victory over the principalities, powers, and rulers of darkness of this world, and all wicked spirits, but still the victory was not yet.

“Having overcome this evil world, I was found to be without blame and unspotted with the filth of this world and was accounted worthy to appear before My Father’s throne. And, being found worthy, I was able to take the book from My Father that no creature before me had been found worthy to do—to take the book and to remove the seals from off the book. It is here that the victory was won!

When I suffered and died on that cross, or when I arose from the dead, did 10,000,000 heavenly creatures fall upon their faces, rejoicing and singing praises saying, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain?” Do you not think that if the victory had been won at the cross, or in the tomb, that these same heavenly creatures would have rejoiced and praised all those who had previously been raised from the dead as well as all of those thousands who had suffered and died on the cross? But who among any of these was found worthy to take the book from my Father and open the seals thereof?

“I alone was found worthy. I alone was found worthy among all the creatures in heaven, on earth, and beneath the earth. I alone overcame the world that is compassed with lies. I alone overcame the worldly man who is perverted through the desires of the flesh, the eyes, and the pride of this life. I alone overcame the corrupted judgment of this world. Only I was found worthy to stand before the glory of the incorruptible God, and take the book that was sitting upon His lap. It was I, the Lamb of God, before whom all of these heavenly creatures bowed and worshipped, singing, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, riches, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessings.”

I sat there, completely speechless and numb concerning these things that my ears were hearing and my eyes were seeing. Never once in 25 years had I heard or even considered that the victory was found in the events that are described in Revelation 5. I realized that I did not even understand why the victory was here, and what was in the book that had been sealed. The Lord continued, “It was when I was found worthy to take the book and open it that my heavenly Father gladly gave unto me His prize—His entire heavenly kingdom. Even though you do not yet perceive the truth of these things that I am speaking to you, you will shortly. I did not win my Father’s kingdom for myself, for why would I win that which I previously had? I won my Father’s kingdom for all those who would come to believe on me, desiring me to be their Lord, their friend, their king, their brother, and their father. I won my Father’s kingdom for those who allowed me to reign in their hearts and minds with peace, truth, joy, wisdom and love.

“You know that it is written that no eye has seen, nor has any ear heard, and neither has there been any heart that has been able to perceive the things that are of God; for who has seen and heard and understood that these are the things which have been prepared for the church, my bride. Now hear and understand: the words that are contained in the book from which I removed the seals, were the words that reveal Father’s heart unto man. It is because these words were sealed that man was kept in bondage to his own ignorance of God; the ignorance that allowed all the things of darkness to rule and reign over the hearts and minds of men, keeping the knowledge of God veiled from the eyes and the hearts of man. John wept because he knew that only he who could be found worthy to open the seals of the book would also be he who would receive authority and power to open the eyes and the ears of the faithful to see and hear of the things of God; the things which God has prepared for man from the beginning for all those who would come to love God.”

THE BRETHERN SHARE

1. Brenda Hoskins: When God was leading me out of the “religious” system, I started having gatherings in my apartment. During one of those meetings, I had a vision in which I saw a woman giving birth and there were several women (midwives) standing shoulder to shoulder, forming a circle around her as the child was born. It was a boy and as I looked at this scene, I saw the child grow from an infant to a youngster as quickly as he was raised up through the air. It was like he floated up and he grew up right before my eyes, and all the while there were hands trying to touch him. The hands were reaching through the midwives, but no hands could touch him as the midwives were his protection. The vision focused on the child and the midwives more than the woman. His development took only minutes.

Later, Jesus told me that He was going to take me back to a “virgin” state. Just before the Lord told me this I was told about the necessity of the “virgin” birth and how the holy child had to be conceived and delivered through a vessel never touched by human hands. He said that in my present state I was too contaminated with other lovers and had too much flesh of the “religious” man’s ways. I understood that when I was ready, cleaned spiritually, then I would conceive and bring forth “a great thing.” This was about ten years ago. At the time I knew nothing of the man-child in Revelation or of the bride.

Lately, I’ve been feeling anxious, like something is going to happen. It’s really hard to put into words how I feel. I was trying to explain to a friend when I saw in the spirit, a child in the womb, fully matured. He was so packed in the womb that his little knees and arms were folded in on him and he was squirming to try to move and he couldn’t—you know that feeling you feel just before the child is born? That’s how I feel!”

2. Cheryl Evans: The past few years have been full and often difficult, but I know that my events in life are no more difficult than anyone else’s and I’m sure, less than many. But I have been given such a gift—the love of the Lord, and His life, and so a present and future beyond the song “Abraham, how far can you see? Can you count the stars in the sky, or the sand by the sea?” And his answer, “Lord, I want all that my eyes can see.”

The gift of the Lord by my side living in me, is a gift beyond any dream I ever had, and I can only pray that He will increase in me, to carry me through what I am to walk through now and in the future, and that I will not fail Him, nor fall short. And I lean hard on His promise that He “Who has begun a good work in me will continue to the day of Jesus Christ, developing, perfecting, and bringing it to full completion in me.”

3. Douglas Clark: The Lord has burned into my heart that nothing of self can enter the place God has called us to. The angel is standing with the flaming sword, protecting the tree of life. There is only one way to partake, and that is to pass through the flaming sword. This sword of the Lord will divide and separate that which is born of Adam from that which is born of the Spirit.

4. Louise Mize: We hear others saying that our generation is the one to see “The Change.” I had my own experience of coming out of that awful cocoon and being a beautiful blue butterfly soaring into the heavens with nothing to pull me down, no gravity at all—just pure pleasure and freedom, a taste of that resurrection body so longed after!

5. Brian Albert: Just before I was about to doze off for the night, I heard very clearly in my mind Genesis 25:5. I got up and looked it up. It says, “And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac.” I believe that He is saying that there are some things that I am not giving to Him, and He won’t be satisfied until I give all that I have. A while back I heard Him say, “I don’t need bowls full of prayer from you. I need something else.”

Then, after awhile, I saw a cross in my mind. I’m glad to know that the Lord won’t settle for anything less from me than death to the self-life. I really can’t wait to be rid of it. It’s such a wretched thing. I’m praying a lot lately about what things I need to let go of. The verse in Philippians comes to mind, “Work out your salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you.” I know I can always count on His help!

6. Charles Swindoll on Attitude: The longer I live, the more I realize the impact of attitude on life. Attitude, to me, is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than education, than money, than circumstance, than failures, than successes, than what other people say, think or do. It is more important than appearance, giftedness or skill. It will make or break a company...a church...a home. The remarkable thing is, we have a choice every day regarding the attitudes we will embrace for that day. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude. I am convinced that life is 10% what happens to me and 90% how I react to it.

7. Janice Foote: I had an unusual dream. There were drops of water coming down from the ceiling of my front room. Someone said, “This is no roof leak!” After hearing those words, I noticed no more drops of water, but rain pouring down!

Awakening from the dream, my first thought was that it was unusual to have rain in the front room. Then it opened to me that this was a symbol of the “outpouring” of the former and the latter rain. I believe Father God is speaking to us in many ways so that we will be in continual preparation of readiness for that moment to come. As the Apostle Paul said, “I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live in the body. I live by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave Himself up for me.” Galatians 2:20.

9. Bill Cook: Hello! Hello! I haven’t been in close touch with our reading family for the last while, that is, to take part in the newsletter. I am at the big 77 in years now. That part is alright, but the doc has informed me I need to do something about the prostate cancer which has flared up once more. They have to check me out to see if I should take more radiation or chemo. There are some alternatives. We have been in much prayer on these matters lately so would ask y’all to remember us.

10. Scott Paris: “The mark in a child’s process to maturity is a growing ability to discern between stimulants they are subjected to internally and externally. Thus it is in the lives of maturing saints. Ones capacity to discern between conflicting stimulation being experienced and to respond wisely, and discern between the false and truth is the difference between infancy and maturity in overcomers. The ability to hear the voice of the Good Shepherd where ever, whenever, and through whomever He speaks and discern it from the voice of the “thief” is the discernment the Spirit gives you to hear the Shepherd’s voice. “He that enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep...the sheep follow him: for they know his voice” Jn. 10:2-4. But this is not new. His sheep were always able to detect His voice. What is new now is the growing number of voices claiming to speak the Lord’s mind. Also new are multitudes learning to discern between the language being used and the source of its inspiration.”

11. Free Book: Before the American Civil War many black slaves escaped from the South to the North and to Canada. Once they crossed that line into the North, they never went back. No way! They would have been beaten or killed if they were caught. Besides, why would they want to go back? They left slavery and found freedom—there was no reason for them to go back!

That is, none of them ever went back except a few brave souls who went to find their families and bring them out. Fewer still went back for a second or third rescue mission. A very few went back many times, and almost all of them were caught or killed or jailed at some time. But there was one who made 19 trips back to the South after her escape, bringing out over 300 slaves during those 19 trips, who was never caught, and never lost a single traveling companion: Harriet Tubman. She did all this through faith in God.

I have a 20-page bio/testimony about Harriet Tubman which I offer free to anyone who asks. Please write me at: Jim Meletiou, 4912 Lancer Drive, Knoxville, TN 37921-3014

13. Prophecy: My True Israel (Elaine)—When our Scottish friends were with us, they felt to wrap us in a tartan and pray. The Lord told me: “I am gathering My true Israel together. Even as there is a great conflict over the natural land, I am causing my true Israel to be restored unto their inheritance in Me. The binding together under the tartan speaks of the unity and restoration of My remnant people in this day.

“Their true inheritance is coming upon them from above and there shall no hand of man touch it, for it is spirit and not flesh. You are gathered together under the Banner of Love and the Headship of the Lion of the tribe of Judah. My true ones of My remnant shall walk in heavenly places where many have longed to walk but did not know it would be possible in this world. Thy possession—all that I Am—is nigh at hand. Keep thou humble and silent before My feet and you shall see My rising within you day by day until you shall know that I have come in a way you have never known possible. Keep open. Keep loving. Keep praising. I do come quickly and My reward is with Me.”
