THE SONG OF THE BRIDE

Part 40 (second part): Elaine Cook
Song of Solomon 6:4, “.....terrible as an army with banners.”

This term refers to bannered hosts of soldiers in a fortified city. Not only is the bride compared to Tirezah and Jerusalem, but also to a city full of valiant hosts that have gone out against the enemy and have brought back innumerable banners. These banners tell us of battles fought and won, of hard conflicts of the enemy in which they came out “more than conquerors” through Him who loved them. I wonder if we realize that, in every hard battle or testing, one side or the other always captures a banner? If we do not, then our enemy does! The Lord’s grace enables us to look upon all conflict, attack, and persecution, as opportunities to add to the banners that God has enabled us to take.

Psalm 60 tells us, “Thou hast given a banner to them that fear Thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth.” It is as we stand true to the gospel of Jesus Christ that we display this banner “because of the truth.” We enter into our identification with Him in His death and resurrection with exultant joy. We heed not those who have gone down a New Age path and say to us, “Who told you that you were a sinner?” (The Word of God says, “All have sinned and come short of the glory of God.”) They claim that both death and sin are illusions. If that were so, Jesus didn’t know about it. He would have died in vain if we had no sin! Oh, dear brethren, set yourself for the defense of Jesus! Hold high your banner because of the truth!

In the name of our God we continually set up our banners (Psalm 20:5). The profound significance of our banners is set forth in Ex. 17:15, “And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi, or, Jehovah our banner. “When Jehovah brought the enemy to naught, He gave to His people His own name for their banner! So with the bride. When the Bridegroom brought her into the Banqueting House, she saw His Banner floating over her and on it was inscribed the name

“Love”. This word reveals the character of God which He is inworking in His people

A VISITATION—REVELATION 5

Part 3 Mitt Jeffords

“Even so, My words will always remain sealed to the disobedient because they do not seek Me or trust in Me, but rather they trust in their own wisdom and lean to their own understanding to interpret My words. The unbelieving will never be able to see the truth of My words because they believe that how they see and interpret My words is how a man sees and interprets Me; for I am the Word, and My word and I are one. The words that are birthed out of man’s opinions or reasonings pertaining to the things of God, need not be veiled because they are words that are powerless to perform or to change anything. Only the truth of My words has power to perform the wonderful works that I send them to perform.

“Hear now, and understand: in the presence of My truth, there shall no evil thing dwell. I have spoken in parables, in metaphors, in secrets, in visions, in proverbs, in dreams and in mysteries to keep My truth hidden from the eyes of the disobedient and unbelieving, lest they also see and hear My words and believe them, thus allowing them to be made partakers of the life of God. I reward only those who diligently seek after Me, who desire to know My truth. Have I not appointed all to seek and to labor for My kingdom? But where are those who have honored My words, who have believed them to be My truth, and not as words that should be twisted and shaped to conform to the desire of men? It is for this reason that My words have been sealed, to keep the truth hidden from the eyes, ears, and hearts of the ungodly and corrupt lest they should also be made partakers of the inheritance that I won for those who overcome the world through faith in Me. When My word is unveiled, it heals your heart and transforms the thoughts of your mind.

“When John wept, he was not weeping just for himself, but for all men: for seeing that there was no man in heaven, or on the earth, or beneath the earth that could be found worthy to take the book and remove the seals from off of it. He knew that man would forever continue in bondage to the darkness of his own ignorance, and not be allowed to enter into the kingdom of God. John wept because he knew that as long as the book remained sealed, the truth about all things that pertain to the life of God would remain hidden from the eyes and the ears of man. You know that it is written that eternal life belongs only to those who know God: for the true knowledge of God is the entrance into the kingdom of God. I am the Word, and the Word is God, and My Father and I are one. I am the truth, and no man can come into My Father's presence except by Me. No man knows the Father except those to whom I have revealed the truth of My Father.

“Only by the revelation knowledge of My truth shall the darkness of your ignorance perish and Satan's habitation be destroyed. It is not possible for ignorance to inhabit the place where the knowledge of the truth dwells. Satan cannot dwell in the light of My truth, only in the darkness of man's ignorance. He that sees the truth of My word sees Me. He who sees Me also sees My Father. He that sees My Father overcomes the world and is made free from all of the powers of darkness.

“Those who see Me, see that My word is living. They see that My word is truth. They see that My word is powerful, always able to accomplish the purpose to which I send it. Those who see Me, see that My word is able to change the desires of the heart as well as transform the thoughts of the mind. Those who see Me, see that My word is able to give life to the dead, purging their consciousness from all dead works. By My word do the fruits of life spring forth in the heart of the barren. My word brings love to the hopeless. My word heals you of all your sins. My word makes all things new. My word is able to perform all those things that are impossible for any man to do for himself. By the word that proceeds forth out of My mouth are My people sanctified, made holy and justified. My word destroys all that profanes, all that corrupts, and all that defiles. By My word, the hidden things of darkness and the secret counsels of the heart are manifest. By My word, your sins are forgiven, never able to come into My mind again. All of the blessings that I desire to give unto you as well as all of My promises that I desire to perform for you can only come to you through :My word. John wept because he thought there was no one worthy to open the seals off the blessings of My word.

FROM MY PRAYER TIMES Elaine

For the past few months the Spirit of the Lord has been speaking to me mightily. I feel I should share with you the substance of His words.

1—Death of Saddam Hussein: On the evening news of Dec. 30th, we heard that Saddam Hussein had been hanged. The next morning I was typing away on the latest newsletter when the Lord dropped a question in my heart. Since I've given Him permission to interrupt me at any time He wants to speak, I stopped and listened. It seemed that a question was dropped into my heart as to the fate that Saddam would meet on the other side.

Suddenly, in the spirit, I was aware that I was seeing on the other side that the souls of every person whom he had sent to his death was standing before him. It seemed he was facing another trial and all these would testify against him. He could not possibly claim innocence before their faces a he had tried to do at his trial here.

. I knew he would be facing another judgment I heard, “We are accountable for the deeds done in the body.”

The Spirit spoke, “Though I bore the sin of every man who ever lived, it shall profit a man nothing unless he comes to the altar of God and gives himself back to Me. He cannot retain his sin and his independence and expect to receive My mercy and grace. It is a free gift and is given to those who acknowledge their need of Me.

“Many of My children have misunderstood My ways because they have not known My nature. Either they believe that I am a God of all-vengeance or that I am a God of all-mercy. I am neither of these. I am a God who is just and holy. I make provision, in My mercy, for all to come unto Me. But, to those who despise My mercy, and count My Blood as an unclean thing, they shall know the judgment of a just and holy God. My judgments are true and righteous altogether. A man shall surely be judged for the deeds done in the flesh that have not been repented of nor covered by My Blood

“Though it takes millennia, yet the evil man shall know no peace until he repents of his way and gives unto Me the life that I gave unto him. Then shall My mercy show forth and My judgments change to those that will cause him to yield up the nature of the adversary whom he had served in this life.

“In Me is found both wrath and mercy sent forth in appointed times to reconcile each sinner unto Myself and to make him the proper child of a king. Ponder My ways and My nature and rejoice at that which I Am! Jn. 3:20,21; Psalm 28:4.

2—The Spirit Speaks to Klaas Kruit: Klaas is a dear friend and brother in the Lord. Three days after I had shared the above word with him, he was prompted in his spirit to write down what the Spirit was saying to him. He couldn't get to breakfast until he had done it. He says, “It follows your word and is not unlike Sadhu Sundar Singh's visions on what would happen after our earthly death. He shared:

“I “saw” Hussein in the pit with those who died at his hand and who knew not the Lord. Their faces looked dead and tormented as they had their own loss of a fruitless life (in not knowing the Lord), but who also knew the anguish of being murdered by a tyrant. In the Spirit-realm-time he would be brought before this crowd many times to see them and be reminded of what his hands had wrought.

“Anguish and moans could be heard constantly. Each one was being drawn back to the Lord in a slow process and their inner wrestlings were heard but the murderer could not distinguish this because of his disdain for the true God. Time would go slowly for this man but he would notice that the crowd grew fewer and fewer in size. This would place in his soul the question, “Where are they all going?”

“Every now and then he would see a broken and contrite person who had a great sadness, yet gladness in his or her own countenance. He would ask, “What is going on with you?”

“The Lord is calling me to come up higher with Him.

“You have seen Allah?”

“No. I have heard the voice of Jesus. I have searched long and have come to the end that there is no Allah. But I've heard a small voice that has love to it, and I will now follow that voice.”

“And the crowd grew smaller.”

3—It is Time to Reveal My Secrets: “Are you not aware that it is time to reveal My secrets unto My Own who walk intimately with Me? Have I not said: ‘Shall I hide from Abraham that which I do, seeing that he is My friend?’”

“To My friends of this new age that is dawning shall I not reveal My secret plans for mankind? Shall they continue to remain hidden from My Own?”

“The glimpse I gave you and My other son, of the tyrant (Saddam) on the other side of the veil is the beginning of this time of the revealing of secrets unto My Own. Be not shaken or of doubtful mind at that which I show thee, but take faith and rejoice to be included in My councils.

“Walk softly before Me and you will hear and see and discern that which I do and thy heart shall marvel. Both dark clouds and great light are coming, and you may receive the operation of each with joy when you see what they do. Each one is necessary to accomplish a specific work. Enter not into the burden of the cloud, but stay in the place of light that I have prepared for you—a place in which I may reveal My secrets unto you.”

4--Not Healing, but Renewal: Some months ago the Spirit breathed a word into my heart. I knew it had to do with a serious physical condition, but I didn't even know what it was. I looked it up in the dictionary. He told me not to seek out the doctor for help, but to look only to Him. I don't even feel to tell you what it is. It has come for a dealing in my life and shall leave when the dealing is over.

I will have to confess that for many years I looked to the Lord alone to care for my body, and He was always faithful. Then, slowly, we started taking this alternative cure for one thing, and something else for another thing until we seldom looked to the Lord for healing. We were quite good at searching out remedies and treating ourselves. And, if I'm not mistaken, many of the Sonship Company are doing the same thing. You do not hear of many healings among them. That could be about to change!

I was looking to the Lord one day concerning my healing and heard Him say: “Not just healing—restructuring and remodelling. You are on the stage, even on centre-stage in the eyes of My people. They look to you for true counsel and direction of the way that I take by My Spirit. I do now take you a new way in front of their eyes, a way that requires faith and trust in My keeping power. It is like the days when My ancient people followed Moses through the wilderness. They had to leave behind all the “props” and securities of Egypt, not knowing that I would do a mass restoration among them so that there would be not one feeble among their tribes!”

Once again, My Israel, My spiritual Israel, is set to cross over Jordan (that river of death) at harvest time, and once more they find it in flood and know not how they shall pass over. This is where I must cleanse them from “the scourge of Egypt”—of trusting in their own ways, in seen things, of that which they can do to help themselves. These are not in themselves, evil, but for a people who desire me to be All in All to them, it has no place and must be removed from them.

“I would be their Saviour in every respect, not only of their souls, but also of their bodies, for the time has come for this to be made manifest to My remnant people.

“Would you, as a forerunner among My people, be willing to cast aside all the help that Egypt can supply to your natural body and look to Me—not simply for healing, but for a renewal at this time? This is in the covenant that we made with each other from the beginning and I shall not fail to keep My part of the covenant when you fully yield your body to My keeping.

“O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? Trust me, My little one, for I shall not fail thee, for My Name is Faithful and True.”

5—Time for Life: The Lord spoke to me, “Put aside all the writings that would seek to prolong your life, for I would renew it, not simply prolong it. You have come to a place where no one would expect life to come forth from you, for in the eyes of the world, you have already exceeded thy allotted days on earth. (I’ll be 80 in April).

“I would do a new thing in thy life—that which thine ears have not heard of before.

“Even as the house in which you dwell was given to you as though it were a gift from heaven, so shall this gift of life be. In fact, My little one, the home was a shadowy figure given aforetime of that which I would do in your body—a fine dwelling that came forth from My Hand through no effort of your own.

“Have I not written precious lessons upon thy life? Did you think that was all over? Nay, but the greatest truth is yet to be told in thy very members and no man shall be able to gainsay it! For this is the day of the resurrection of My firstfruit and none have understood how that shall be. Abram and Sarah are the pattern—I renewed their lives while they lived and walked upon this earth. This shall be the nature of the renewal that I have for My Own in this Day. Unto those who are ready shall I appear and My reward of Life is with Me!

Reach out and embrace that which I speak unto you, for it is for this hour and this people.”

6--Trusting in the Arm of Flesh: “There is a great trusting in the arm of flesh in the hearts of My people, even in My elect. They know not that simple faith that trusts Me in all their ways, for they have never had to trust Me to any great extent.

“This simple, child-like faith is needful for My people to walk in, and I will do whatever is necessary to work this into their hearts. I shall dry up various sources of supply until they find that I Am the One Who meets their every need! If this operation were not necessary, I would not do it.

“I want you to know that you have authority over your own bodies. This is the “land” that you have to possess. Think it not strange that you need to rid it of anything that would not glorify Me. This is what I am now doing—cleansing your land so that you might possess it fully. In doing so, you must know your dominion over it in the Spirit.”

In the night, I heard the Spirit tell me that in the Old Testament when Israel went to war, they were the ones who yielded the sword. They would pray and find the Lord’s leading for the battle and if there was any fighting to be done, it was their hand that did it—they didn’t sit idly by waiting for the Lord to do something!

7—Looking for Healing: “I want you to be looking for your healing, which means that you are looking to Me for your deliverance from your oft infirmities. Look not to anything outer that a man can offer you, though you may use it as a panacea for a time. Look for something bigger than your mind can comprehend at this time, for this is what I have for My remnant people.

“Yea, though I provided manna in the wilderness for My ancient people, yet I renewed each one before they set out, for there was not one feeble among their tribes. The manna sustained that which I had quickened. The manna is like the provision of natural cures that are made available to you from My Hand of nature. All men may be blessed by that which I have provided for their use—but My Own have the privilege and responsibility of receiving My Life to quicken their mortal bodies and few have taken a hold of this. This is what I would teach My people through your example at this time—seek after My Life—believe for My Life—receive My Life, for it is time to walk in the Life that comes from My Spirit and not just from the things that I have provided for thy comfort, from nature. It is a new day and I do a new thing in the camp of My True Israel who are pressing in to possess Me in all My fullness.”

As I was praising the Lord for this word, I heard a negro spiritual inside of me with these words: “Look away, children, look away to Jesus!” I couldn’t miss the message!

Another day as I was typing on the manuscript for my new book, I had paused for something. The Lord spoke this to me: “You have the authority to carry out the conditions of the will.” Well, I’ll have to admit that stopped me in my tracks! I knew the will was the New Covenant or New Testament that was ratified in His Blood.

8--Know My Love: I’m hearing from various members of the Body that the Lord is causing them to experience His Love like they have never known it before. This happened to me recently. One day I was listening to the Celtic tenor, John McDermott singing, “My bonnie lies over the ocean; my bonnie lies over the sea....” I wondered at him singing a little ditty like that on his CD. We used to sing that when we were kids. Then, I started to “hear” the words! The one you loved was across the sea and you really missed them. Our three friends from Scotland who visited us this summer came to mind with the thought, “Oh, how I wish I had hugged them more!” But, now it was too late to express my love in that way. I started to cry and cried for some time before the Lord spoke to me this word about “knowing His Love.” It was a demonstration to me of the Lord’s Love! This is what He said:

“I have granted you the privilege of feeling the Love in My Heart for My Own. Poems have extolled it; songs have been sung and praises praised, yet My creation has glimpsed only darkly the Love that I bear them. Their minds cannot fathom One Who would die for another, least of all, for every man. And not only to bear the weight of their sin, but to forgive it: ‘Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.’

“It is time for My children to begin to experience this Love that proceedeth forth from My Father. If they would come into My image and likeness, they must know this Love and walk in it, else the words they speak and the deeds they do will be empty.

“Rejoice that this Day has come, My own, for I can now begin to trust you with characteristics of My nature that you have never known nor experienced. It is a glorious Day, indeed! Though the waves roar and the tempests toss in the outer world, there is great peace in the midst of those who have entered My kingdom where I alone rule in their lives!

9--The Philistine Mind: “Everything is within your reach to heal yourself, My little one. Now, what will you choose? Will you choose the way that man has made for his own comfort or will you choose the way of Life with thy Creator?

“Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. I have called you unto the way of faith and even though you have much knowledge as to how to heal your own body, it is as the Philistine to you—it is an enemy of faith and it must be cast out of your land. Have no further common knowledge with the Philistine mind but cast it off and throw yourself upon My mercy and grace. This is a warfare that only you can fight. I shall not fight it for you but I shall rejoice at your victory!

“For every part of your body is under My care, for I am the Owner of it and I inhabit it by My Spirit. When I speak Life to any part, or to the whole, life shall come forth and you shall marvel at it. Be in peace regarding My part and do your part diligently of ridding yourself of the Philistine mind that thinks, with knowledge it can heal itself and be its own god.”

10—We Can’t Do It! “Gideon cried unto Me, “Don’t you know that I am the least in My father’s house? I am not worthy to do this that you ask of Me.. I am not a mighty man of valor!

“So do My remnant feel in this day—that they are nobodies and have no power to deliver creation from its bondage. They have heard the call of God but when they look at themselves they see no strength to do this mighty thing. They wonder if they can but save themselves in the midst of all that is coming upon the earth.

“But as I said to Gideon: ‘Go in this thy might...have not I sent thee’, so I say unto My remnant company today: ‘The victory shall not be wrought by thine own strength or wisdom. It shall be as it is revealed in My Word: ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord.’

“Let Me write this upon your hearts, My people, so you shall learn to look only unto Me in all of your ways. It is My kingdom that is coming in and I know how to bring it to pass. Trust Me, My Own! Be thou but an earthen vessel with My Light within; it shall be sufficient to defeat the enemy

11—Waver not in Unbelief: The Lord reminded me of the time a dear friend felt he was going to die and he was yielded to this if that was what the Lord wanted. (He was still young with a growing family). The Lord said, “As My Own were yielded unto the death of their natural lives, will they now yield to receive the Life that I have to give them—even the life of the ages? Rejoice that the time has come that I promised that I would arise in My people and show Myself strong on their behalf. Their minds have not yet embraced that which I have purposed to do. For this cause I write it upon your life that they may believe and receive.

“Waver not in unbelief but hold fast to that which I have spoken unto thee.”

12—The Unfinished Prophecy—At the same time as Jesus spoke the words above, He brought before me the words that He had spoken in the temple. He was quoting from Isaiah 61 and stopped in the middle of a sentence because the rest of the prophecy was for our day.

Here is what He spoke, “To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.....(and then He stopped and closed the book). The rest of the prophecy says: “...and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn; To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.”

The Spirit impressed upon me to examine this passage carefully and when I did I realized that I had been stuck on the first phrase—about the day of vengeance and hadn’t given any attention to the blessings that followed this judgment. I was greatly encouraged. I saw that the judgment was necessary, but the blessings of the Lord would follow as He used His prepared ones in a mighty work of restoration. This restoration, using almost the same words, is found in Isaiah 58:12, which tells how He will use a people who will walk in His rest and cease from their own works!

A friend from the States wrote to me recently asking, “Elaine, has the Lord given you any insight as to whether we might expect a nuclear holocaust this year?” My answer to her is found above. If we have let the Lord judge our self-life, we will not be judged with the world, but will be their deliverers. I see that the judgment must come, but we are to expect all the blessings that follow: the comfort, the beauty for ashes, the oil of joy, and the ability to bring restoration! What a promise! What a destiny!

I see that the Spirit has been speaking to others about these same verses so He wants us to see beyond the day of vengeance, and look to the blessings that belong to this day.

13—The Golden Age: A writer, speaking on the radio, was saying that, as a boy, he had great anticipation of the future, as if he could hardly wait to see what it would be like. But today he sees a lot of cynicism and fear in children’s hearts, for there is more of a dread as to what the future holds.

As I was praying, the Lord brought this conversation back to me with the simple statement: “It is the golden age. It is an age when God’s nature will be manifest in the earth. And, it is a time to redress all wrongs.” Gold speaks of the divine nature.

I find “redress” means: 1. from “to make straight, to set right, remedy, to make up for, compensate, to remove the cause of (a grievance or complaint; to exact reparation for (avenger); to requite (a person) for a wrong or loss; heal; correct. 2. “relief from distress; the means or possibility of seeking a remedy; correction, retribution, compensation for wrong or loss; reparation.”

And then I heard, “First in you. First in you.” I did not take this to apply to me personally, but to that Sonship Body that God is preparing in the earth.

14—DOORS—Chris Taylor: (I felt Chris’s dealings regarding the doors of her mobile home were a confirmation of the dealings of the Lord with me. Elaine) She says: “The double doors of my sliding door entry were so old that they would no longer lock which left me, living alone, in a vulnerable position. I had applied to a government program for assistance and after a lot of “red tape” I was turned down.

I still wanted the government to follow through with its promises. Yet, He showed me I was not to wait to see if the government would change its mind, and hope for something that may not be a sure thing. He is our Sure Thing, and we move when He says move. We are a peculiar people, not at all attached to the things of the world; in it but not of it. We march along according to His lead and plan, obedient to Him alone, without consulting with man or powers or wondering what they might do in the long run. He confirms that the government is upon His shoulders where we are concerned, and not at all on the shoulders of the Government of Canada or the U.S. or any other-country.

We are not dependent on these governments (even though He may use them to bless us for a time) but we are citizens of heaven, and thus we are free to abide under Kingdom law and grace. The grant program from the Canadian govt. failed and, for me, was like clouds which promise rain, but don't deliver. This grant from God given through His chosen listening and obedient member of His Body will not fail, but will bring forth, because we are children of Abraham who walk in faith and who bear the seeds of true promise, not false promises.

He has been saying to me, "You shall live under a government that is just and fair." I thought that was a confirmation that He would change the Canadian government's mind about their refusal to make good on their promises, but He indicated that we live under His government, and we look only to Him to meet our needs, whether bountifully or sparingly, as He sees fit, being content with what He sees is best and also accepting the ways in which He chooses to provide (or not provide, as may also be our experience).

At that point, a friend came and said he (or she) had the money and would buy new doors for me (not just repair the old ones). The installation of the new glass doors brought many blessings. They were much easier to open; the glass is clear and not foggy; it does not radiate cold like it used to; the wind no longer blows in, nor does excess moisture build up. Even in sub-zero weather I can see the view. The old glass always had a film-like veil over it—how like our carnal minds! The difference between the new glass doors and the old ones in other areas of the house is striking! "When that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away" I Cor. 13:10.

I believe this experience is symbolic of new doors opening to us—doors that we can open and shut, through which we can see with clarity; which close out cold and death, and open to life. I can "see" doors being replaced, being made clear, clean, and easy to open for many.

The one who paid the cost of the doors and walked through this with me said, "The old door let in the cold (i.e. death). It took much force to open them in order to let one enter (into life)." Doesn't this speak volumes concerning what He is doing in our lives as He replaces the old ways and that which required our strong efforts to function even minimally? Instead, He makes the way for us to enter into life on His finished work apart from our efforts. We are coming into a deeper apprehension of His tabernacle fullness as we appropriate more of His grace and comprehend more fully what He has purchased for us to walk in.

Rosemary Garzon has written about how "we were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, 'which is the earnest (earnest money) of our inheritance (possession) until the redemption of the purchased possession (the temple-body). The initial payment has been made on the 'house'; everything is in order, even legal, as His Own seal is on the contract.

The Lord spoke to me, "Release the prisoners! Come forth, men of God, to the ministry of Reconciliation. The time is right. The fruit is ripe. The angels are at the door. My Own are at the door. Indeed, the DOOR has been hard-pressed, though My Own have diligently pressed on. Now there comes a replacement of the might of man with the Spirit's might, as I establish an inner work for grace and righteousness—glorious wonders of grace and light."

These sliding doors face the north. The north often represents the mind. Putting this together with what the Lord showed about how the new doors will keep out death, this all speaks to me of how the mind of Christ in us will effectively lock out death from our minds and enable us to walk in life. The Lord made it real to us that He is closing out the door of death and is putting in place the door that leads to life! "When My people can shut the door to death, then they can enter into Life."
