THE SONG OF THE BRIDE

Part 42

Elaine Cook

Song of Solomon 6:8,9, “There are three-score queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number. My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother; she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.”

All these are related to the King in different ways. The love relationship to the Lord differs in believers. Some can be represented as queens, others have more of a concubine nature, and still others have affections like those of an immature virgin. All fall short of the unique love relationship that the bride has with her Beloved.

To say that she is “but one” means “the united one; to unify or make one.” In order to be brought into this perfect unity there must be an abandonment to the control of God, and a putting away of the flesh and all error. As we walk in the light of Truth, we shall put on the mind of Christ. Only then can we be of the same mind with each other. When every thought has been brought into captivity unto the obedience of Christ, we shall be brought into perfect unity with one another. When we keep our eyes upon Jesus, we are able to be brought into divine unity with one another.

As the gospel of Jesus Christ is made flesh in each one, all are found to be living epistles seen and read of all men. As each virgin comes into the image of Jesus Christ, all shall make up the one who will be worthy to sit with Him upon His throne. This won't happen by trying to be one with each other, but by being one with the Lord. As we come into unity with Him, we are united with each other in the perfect unity which is born in Him and given by Him.

The word “choice” means “pure, clear clean; clarified, made bright and polished, purged.” Though many are redeemed, the thought is implied that only those who are united and unified so as to make one, shall make up the bride of Christ. When she is prepared, she will be “the choice one of her that bare her” (even that New Jerusalem which is from above and is the mother of us all).

Each virgin must be purged and polished and made bright if she would be “a choice one.” She must forget her father's house (the Adamic nature) and yield to the process that will conform her to the Truth of God. It is only those who yield to the cleansing and polishing hand of God that will stand at the right hand of the King of kings and Lord of lords. All the honorable on earth, all those who could have been in the bride and were not, all the hosts of heaven, will rejoice that she has attained to that which they have missed. They will bless and praise her—not because of herself, but because she shows forth the handiwork of God and it is to His glory that she bears the image of His Son.

A SPIRITUAL DREAM

“Keep it or Delete it: The Choice is Yours.”

Mitt Jeffords

For judgment must begin at the house of God: for the saints shall judge the world.

I Cor. 11:31,31 (NKJV) “For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. But when we re judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.”

I Cor. 11:31-32 (Amp) “For if we searchingly examined ourselves [detecting our shortcomings and recognizing our own condition], we should not be judged and penalty decreed [by the divine judgment]. But when we [fall short and] are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined and chastened, so that we may not [finally]be condemned with the world.”

In this dream, I saw myself sitting and staring at my computer. I was meditating on how many times I have heard it prophesied over the last couple of years, “Whatsoever is not of God shall not be able to stand in the days ahead.” I meditated on how this word might be related to another word that has also been prophesied in the last few years: “My people are not ready for My coming.” I was also considering how some have said that the Lord has told them there is nothing they can do to ready themselves for the coming of the Lord. I was thinking how that might be in complete contradiction to what Jesus said in Mat. 24:44, “Therefore be you also ready: for in such an hour as you do not think, the Son of man comes.”

Jesus also warned us in the parable of the ten virgins, saying that when He would come, He would find five of them foolish because they had not prepared themselves for His appearance, according to Mat. 25:10, “And while they (the foolish who were not ready) went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.” I was wondering why Jesus would exhort us to be ready, but then send forth words to some that said the contrary—that there is nothing you can do to be ready. Would He actually do that?

While I was considering these things, the Spirit reminded me of Ephesians 5:25-27, “Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself for it; that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, so that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.”

I realized the truth that there was nothing that I could do “of myself” to ready myself for His coming, but that I could present myself as a living sacrifice before Jesus, my High Priest, and ask Him to prepare me for His appearing, for He alone sanctifies and makes us holy. The Lord told me it was time to go through all of the documents/files on my computer so that I might clean them up and delete all that were old, useless, and unnecessary. I perceived that the Lord was using these files on my computer as an example of what He desired to do in my heart and mind.

My Judgments of Others: I was still sitting at my computer when a document appeared on the screen before me entitled, “My Judgments of Others.” I had done nothing to bring this file up. It just appeared before me, which I thought was very strange. I opened it up and was astounded at what I saw. This file was, as it were, my own little personal black book on everyone I had ever known, or heard of, or read of, or seen in my entire life.

I was surprised to see that it contained my judgments of all who had come and gone in my life. It could be used to remember each one’s faults, weaknesses, offensive words, mistake, or sins, as well as all the things that were said or done with which I had not personally agreed. All the good works and good words that had been spoken or done, especially those that had personally profited me, were also found there.

I was shocked to see that I had kept such an extensive record on everyone who had come into my life, almost as though each one was going to be judged by me. I saw that I had also recorded next to the names, all of the words and deeds that I had never personally witnessed them do, but what I had heard spoken of them by others.

Even though I was shocked to see all of the information that I had gathered in this document, I was truly shocked by what I saw next—I had even kept a file on the Lord Himself! I had recorded all the things in my life that had not gone according to my will. I had blamed God and thought evil of Him for doing such things. I recorded my displeasure against God concerning all the things that I had prayed to Him for, and that He never answered or that He had never done.

My body quivered all over as I realized the depth of the information that I had recorded in this file. I had no idea that I had ever done such a thing. As I went down the list of names (including the Lord’s) with their works and words that they had done, I realized that every time I saw one of these people or even heard their names mentioned, I would associate them with the deeds and words that I had recorded in my little black book. It was my book of remembrance, as though it was right for me to judge them accordingly. All those who had offended me, or spoken evil of me, or hurt or accused me, or had not seen eye-to-eye with me, were highlighted so as to stand out in my book!

As I considered all that I had seen, the Spirit quickened Matt.7:1, “Judge not so that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you. And why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me remove the speck from your eye’; and look, a beam is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.”

The Lord quickened to me that the beam in my own eye was my own judgments of others. He reminded me of Romans 13:8, “Owe no man any- thing except to love one another: for he that loves another has fulfilled the law."

To Keep or To Delete: I sat there wondering how I could remove such a great beam as this from my eye when suddenly a new screen came up on my computer. It was a screen that had two square boxes side by side. Above the boxes was written this instruction: Choose either Box A or Box B. Box A, on my left, had these words written within, "Keep and hold on to this file." Box B, on my right, had these words, "All that is written in this file is that which Jesus Christ died for on the cross so that you might not have to live unto it anymore. Do you choose to allow the *Lord to delete this file from your thinking?"

Under Box A was written: Roman 2:1, "Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you re that judges: for wherein you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge do the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. And do you think this, O man who judges them who do such things, and you do the same, that you shall escape the judgment of God?"

Underneath Box B was Zephaniah 3:15, "The Lord has take away your judgments, he has cast out your enemy: the king of Israel, even the Lord, is in the midst of you: you shall not see evil any more." Then I remembered that it was not I who could make myself ready for the coming of the Lord, but it is the Lord who is well able to make me ready for His appearing. I do not desire Him to appear as long as this file was still written in my heart and my thinking lest I be judged in the same manner that I have judged others. Now I knew that if I chose Box B, I was giving the Lord permission to delete "My judgments" from my thinking.

I was just about to press Box B when I saw the * that had been inserted before the words, "Lord, delete it", and read, "Do not press Box B if you doubt that the Lord will do this for you or if you do not believe that the Lord has the power and the love to perform His word for you." Seeing that the Lord has brought me through many trials, and that His love for me had never failed, I pressed Box B while praying, "Lord, would you take away all of my judgments so that I will not condemn myself on that day and so that I might also now receive Your love towards all men. Fill me with Your love so that I might be found in Christ Jesus; for there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ because Jesus did not judge any man."

FROM OUR PRAYER TIMES Elaine

I feel the Lord would have me share the latest personal dealings plus the "feedback" I have been receiving from our friends.

1. First, a precious friend: In 2003, the Lord said, "I am setting the stage for NOW Time! The stage has to be cleared of everything." In 2006, His Word was, "You have moved to center-stage. Everything is converging now. One thing ends, and another begins. The old will fall away and the new will take its place. You are now entering into that which is finished, therefore I don't need your help!"

I have been hidden away from public view and the Lord told me I was of those "Stones of obscurity that would become Light."

I would hold the Bible up before the Lord as the legal document (the New Testament) that would prove my claim to new life. One day He spoke, "You are on legal grounds to claim your inheritance. The NOW Time has come!

(Elaine—In /06 the Lord spoke, "You have the authority to carry out the conditions of the will.")

2. The Covenant: I heard the Lord speak "The Covenant" three times, then He said: "...not the covenant written in ink, but the covenant written in Blood—My Blood that was shed that My people might be partaker of My Life.

"My people have been taught to have faith in My Word—that what I have spoken, I will surely do. I would now take them up higher to have faith in My covenant that was ratified by My Blood. ("ratified"="to approve, confirm, sanction formally, authorize, from root words meaning "to make fixed.")

"That yielding up of My natural life to the Father--not only on the cross, but throughout every day of My natural life, (even bearing the sins of all mankind), was the seal of the covenant—that it is true and everlasting—from generation to generation. There will never come a time when it will not be honored in the courts of heaven.

"My people pray and plead and hope and weep before Me for their healing when they need only to accept the terms of the covenant that was made for them when I shed My natural life and went into spirit again that I might be the mediator of the New Covenant. You do not need to understand all the spiritual workings of the covenant—you just need to know that you are wholly covered! It can only be overruled by the will of My Father who determines whether one would be profited more by being removed beyond the veil, or by remaining in this realm. This is His decision which in no way nullifies the covenant.

“Every disease known to man was a part of the curse that I bore on man’s behalf. How could you not be healed when I perfectly bore your disease? Is not My covenant ratified by My Blood? Is it not the Blood of man and of God that was spilled? And was it not received by My Father on behalf of every man? Have you not heard of many of the heathen being healed when they heard of My sacrifice for them? And yet, My people Israel cry and faint daily as they look to man’s ways to deliver them from their oft-infirmities. My people need to have faith in our covenant and know that it is true and I delight to fulfill that for which I have already paid!

“I show thee a deeper way of receiving the benefits of Calvary.” When I had dried my tears I asked the Lord to enlighten my understanding. A short while later, I heard this song within:

How big is God?

How big and wide His vast domain?

To try to tell, these lips can only start.

He’s big enough to fill this mighty universe

And small enough to live within my heart!

3. My Gethsemane: As I was working, I heard these words: “Gethsemane” and “Ishmael.” It was time to listen to the Spirit. I found that the Lord wanted to encourage me further to trust Him fully in yielding up all control of my health into His loving Hands. The Spirit of the Lord spoke to me:

“When I stood in the Garden of Gethsemane I understood that, not only was I required to yield up My natural life, but I was also to bear the sin nature and its outworkings in disease and evil of every description. I, Who had kept Myself free from sin through the strength of My Father’s Spirit within Me, would now know, firsthand, the depth and depravity of all mankind. And, after a bitter struggle with the nature I had inherited from Adam, I won the battle and could say, “Let us go hence” and found thereafter not a word of protest to My Father in that which He required Me to do that all His creation might be set free.

“In comparison, is it not a very small thing that I ask of you—to cease trying to make your own way in the matter of your restoration? So long have My people said: ‘O, let Ishmael live before Thee,’ but I have refused him. I will not have a man who is a mixture of faith (Abraham) and the sense realm (Hagar-Egypt). I will have a man who is willing to deny the inheritance to Ishmael that I might work in him the faith to be quickened in body, circumcised in heart, and able to bring forth the promised son—even the seed of the woman who shall set all creation free.

“Thus, the first covenant, that which was delivered unto Adam concerning the seed, would be fulfilled.

“The covenant of Abraham calls for a renewal of life, to replace the death that came upon all the progeny of the first pair in the garden. It is time for the fulfillment of the covenant—not just the circumcision, which has continued for years among My firstfruits company. It is time for the life and fruitfulness to come forth, and in this I can have no interference from man. This life comes only from Me and in My appointed time.

“Rejoice that the time is nigh at hand and I have asked thee to cast out the bondmaid and her son from your thinking, and seek to look only to the Son that has been promised you.

“Fear not, but know that I shall watch over you with dove’s eyes that no harm shall befall you. Look expectantly day-by-day for that which I do when you yield your body totally into My loving care!

4. Faith Williams: The Lord said to me recently, “Did you think you’d suddenly wake up as a manifested son? You’re walking every day to this place—obeying Me every day. This is the way into sonship!”

The word that the Lord is emphasizing over and over to me is: “Trust in the Lord with all thy heart and lean not unto your own understanding.

God is challenging us to believe Him; for not only healing but restoration. One night as I was praying this before sleep. I heard Him add, (clearly), ‘Rejuvenation.’”

“Lord—like the eagle? Youth renewed? Not for vanity’s sake, but that we might be like Caleb-able to take and possess our mountain!”

5. Rita Speers: The Lord has verbalized answers to you that answer the questions pressing on my own heart for healing, for the life hereafter and so on! I, too, have given up on doctors for the most part and could no longer feel His anointing on seeking “cures” for the things that pain and ail me. His answers are always so much better

6. Marcelle Seal: I, too, have gone through so many things in my body and have received a lot of help through nutrition but have struggled with whether I should quit taking supplements and going to my alternative doctor, and just trust the Lord completely. Several months ago as I was praying, I heard, “Death swallowed up in Victory!” A few nights later these words came to me, “Into the newness of life.”

A week or two later I went to a small home-meeting. The brother who was ministering looked at me and said, “There’s going to be a renewal—a resurrection!” I do believe it is nigh at the doors when we are going to come out of our grave-clothes and go forth and do the mighty works He has set forth for us to do. I believe when this happens, our bodies will be healed and we’ll be completely set free from all bondages.

7. Linda O’Neill: In 2004 I had a dream of being in the bathroom and looking in a mirror and suddenly noticing my skin had become as clear and blemish-free as a child’s. I kept looking and looking for those tell-tale signs of age that most have quite visibly by the age of 61, but none were to be found.

8. Ricky and Karen Evans: The parts from your prayer times were so much confirmation it would be hard to share it all. I do believe that we are in a time where God is going to reveal some great things like never before and He is going to take us back to some foundational aspects of the kingdom that many have never really walked in. The part on healing, which should be foundational, is just an example. Many have gained “kingdom knowledge” and have bypassed the basics. We can’t do that.

9. George Argabright: I so enjoyed what you shared about the renewing of life that comes from the Lord, that I felt to share with you. When we ended home meetings, we looked for a new direction and were told to wait. We waited a year and felt unproductive and time was slipping by. The Lord stopped my whining when He said, “If I desire to wait until you are 250 years old before I call you forth, your strength and ability to serve Me will not be diminished.” That wasn’t exactly what I wanted to hear, but the Lord showed me that His time is all that matters. We have been tested on our journey of finding that He was sufficient for every need. This thought was not really popular with most folks that I knew at the time. They thought I was just “off.”

Three months ago the Lord said, “I will renew thy youth as the eagles.” I’m not sure what all this entails, but I believe that if I will, with reckless abandon, run after Him and not let the cares of life be our crutch because often what we think is holding us up is really chaining us down.

10. Knowledge vs. Heart: (Elaine) “The Philistine shall not come into My courts. There are those of My people who certainly expect to have a goodly inheritance in Me. They have an abundance of knowledge of the word of the hour concerning My sons and have attended all the important meetings of the kingdom ministries. Yet, all this shall avail them nothing, for it is the condition of the heart that avails them entry into My heavenly courts. If a man cannot obey even the most basic responsibilities of life, such as caring for his own and loving them as a true father, how shall he walk in Abraham’s steps and be a father to nations?”

“To have knowledge of something and not have a heart yieldedness is vain, for it causes a man to feel he is a part of something great when he is unable to attain unto it. The Philistine (knowledge in the mind, not worked out in the heart) is an enemy to My people.

“Should one have a yielded heart and no knowledge of deeper things, yet he could still enter in to them because his heart is ready. Yet, if one has only knowledge and his heart is not prepared, the knowledge is a stumbling-block to him, for he thinks he is well able to enter in.

“There is a great sifting among My first fruits, for I am searching for ripe fruit, even those who are mature, those upon whom the Son has shone and melted their stony hearts. These count not on anything but My love and grace to bring them into My courts where fullness dwells.

DELIVERANCE IN THE FIRES

Grace Aderinto

(Grace, a young American-Nigerian living in the States, has been experiencing much tribulation in the workforce. Her response to this is worthy to share with you. Elaine)

I have wondered what I was going through or what lesson God was teaching me and thought a million of things at a time, but God always signified that it was discipline. Even though I was bewildered and it seemed I was suffering from adversity due to my own making and at the same time for righteousness’ sake, He made it clear that I was going through both and the adversities were as fires necessary for my cleansing.

The Lord said that these are the fires in which priests are revealed, and this is true. I have been mistreated by some, and when I approach and ask why I was treated this way, I have been told that they were treated the same way and I need to suck it up and drive on with my life! I usually left wondering why people would want to make someone else go through a bad ordeal they never enjoyed, but the Father has made it clear to me that it is His nature in us that vows never to subject another to an unfavourable experience we might have had. If our hearts are unyielding to His will, it hardens in the fire and is broken just like clay. On the other hand, if we are yielding to His will, the Son of God is formed within us and people will proclaim, just like in the times of Meschach, Shadrach and Abednego, that “the fourth is like the Son of God.” The world expects us to break and crumble, but if we are of “another Spirit” just like Caleb of old, they will see the likeness of Christ, and the kingdom of God is established.

The most important lesson I have learned is to accept the Lord’s discipline, for He scourges every son He receives. It is not for our destruction, but refinement. Also, we need to press through tribulation and not look for a way of escape, because our deliverance is even in the fires that we pass through. Daniel was faithful all the way into the lion’s den. This caused the King to fast, and the saving nature of God to be known. Remaining in the fires refines yielding hearts, brings about our deliverance and destroys every enemy in the soulish realm. As we are patient while waiting on the Lord, Jesus’ word comes to pass that “In your patience, possess ye your souls” Luke. 21:19. Our souls are redeemed!

Above all, I am now convinced and rooted in the knowledge that my Saviour, Jesus Christ, will never forsake me. It is not in His nature to do so. He remains faithful when we are faithless. His determination to make me the way He desires me to be was confirmed in the Song of Solomon 4:6, “Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.” The work is finished! I enter in! Now my soul sings as a bride for her beloved. I have found my beloved. “My beloved is mine and I am His...” Song of Solomon 2:16.

A NEW CREATION Bill Cook

Do you ever ponder our history as—only one man born; i.e. Adam and his offspring up until the time of the birth of Jesus, the Christ? And, of course, you are a definite part of that man.

So, let us consider our beginnings. When we left the safe haven that our Heavenly Father had provided for us (yes, the Adamic part had sorely flubbed up), the tragedy appeared more terrible than our finite minds could ever imagine. When we were in His care, all our needs were met, but now we must “make it” on our own.

I’m probably running ahead of my story when I say I have a memory of earthly fathers, approximately half a century ago, who would tell their offspring when they left home, “Don’t ever come back here if you get yourself in trouble of any kind; seek the Lord; go straight, so we can continue to be proud of you.”

So, to get back to my story: We were already in trouble when we were ushered out of the garden; in fact, an angel with a flaming sword guarded the gateway so we could not re-enter. However, as we look back on it now, our Saviour must have had a plan even then, so that one day we could return. He did not say, “Don’t come back if you get in trouble,” but rather He had a plan that would get us out of trouble!

It only goes to show that His plan would take time—not just a few years, but possibly thousands of years. That could be one of the troubles with us. It is more than difficult to consider ourselves in God’s environment where there is no such thing as time. Probably six or seven thousand years are just as one little season to Him.

But the individual comes with the argument, “Hey, I’m only here for a season, so don’t burden me with some seven thousand year build-up!”

Therefore I say, consider only one man born thus far—Adam and a few billion of his regular offspring with just as many foundlings included. This way we can squeeze things together a bit—sort of MP3 our history.

Yes, a ponderous yet exhilarating thought—that He followed us out of the haven He had provided for us. But wait, there is infinitely more glory to come! An Old Testament verse proclaims, “But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?”

Yes, wait again, for the glory gets greater. When Jesus walked upon earth He said, “.... for

He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.” (John 14:17).

Many have accepted the invitation to receive Christ Jesus and have bowed at the altar before Him, but sadly, they are taught to yearn for Him to come again. They hardly recognize the truth that He Who came to abide with men for a time, to redeem them from the nature of Adam, has now come and lives within them. They have “Emmanuel”—“God with us”, living in them! If they really understood this, they would no longer reckon themselves to be like any other man. They would know that they are a new creation, under new management, and need not live like other men. Their life is now “hid in Christ with God.”

THE BRETHERN SHARE

1--David Jensen: If I understand correctly, the works of the Kingdom were finished from the foundation of the world. Heb. 4:3. “As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.”

Lev. 16:31 “It shall be a Sabbath of rest unto you, and you shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.”

Afflict: In Strong’s, the Hebrew word is “bel aw”, “to wear out”. So we are to “wear out” our souls (forever), putting to death our soul’s desire to work for God, so the works we do are not created out of anything we do, because the works are (Today), already done before the foundation of the world.

2-A Notice: Some of you are lovingly sending us U.S. money orders as a love gift. I need to tell you that you should buy an International Money Order because a U.S. money order can only be cashed in the U.S. and we live in Canada. You could make it out to: either Bill or Elaine Cook or just Elaine Cook. Thanks!

3-DVD Surprise! One year when I ministered a message on The Kinsman Redeemer in Hawaii, our host had a professional photographer from the local TV station come over and videotape the message. It filled three video tapes. I recently discovered that I could have them made into DVD’s. So, I did so, and by the time you read this paper, they will be ready to distribute. If you would like to have the three DVD’s, just let us know. Elaine are the key to change for you. As the powers of atomic energy are released, they react oppositely on the elect to what they do in the unbelieving.

“The rare changes promised you of the Most High take place in strange and extraordinary ways. Now has come the time for the inner being to be called forth and relegate disastrous results into oblivion. Now is the hour of change whereby the physical body takes on a possession not witnessed before.

“The Hebrew Children walked in the midst of the fire without harm, in fact, were changed in the fire. So at this time what kills many will only make you alive. You have chosen life, therefore life shall be. Mark your experiences and see that from henceforth earth’s disasters enjubilate you into fuller life, not physical deterioration. The time has come for visible change, and that change goes hand in hand with earthly upheavals.

“Know you not that El Elyon works glory in the gloom? Fear not to enter into the cloud that hangs over the world, for the distributing particles shall not radiate you to troubles but irradiate to long promised alterations.

“He who sits upon the circle of the earth encircles you into the position of fully overcoming all things—even potential danger.

“Arise and sing a new song—even sing in the perils, for they work unto complete salvation where the body becomes a chariot in the day of battle—even a chariot of fire conveying His Holy Presence wheresoever the Spirit chooses.

“This great alteration is in progress and shall quicken in tempo as the days progress. Great is your salvation! Great is your advancement! Great is your joy! And, great is your Elohim, even the Almighty! (Given 5/28/86)

5 Abolition of Slavery: This is the 200th anniversary of the abolition of slavery in Great Britain. Who could redeem someone in bondage? By divine law, Jesus Christ came to redeem the whole earth and all of mankind. Was He capable of making such a huge payment? His Blood was worth far more than the entire debt of the world. His was the right of redemption because He was our near kinsman. Was He willing to do this? “It is really a question of how much He loves His creation. If He were an angry God that preferred to destroy the creation, then one might doubt that He really would redeem all of mankind. But the Bible says, “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son.....” John 3:16.
