The Wars of the Lord

A Short History of Spiritual Warfare in Our Time

Stephen Jones

(Elaine says: Some people have a peek at the back of a book before they start to read it. That's what I did, and when I did, I felt I must share part of the last chapter with you. Several weeks before I peeked at this writing, the Lord spoke to me in prophecy of the Stone cut out of the Mountain! I thought it was a very timely word, so it follows this article).

We have come to the place in history where the Stone is crushing the image on its feet (Dan. 2:35). The Stone is Jesus Christ, but it is also His Kingdom. His Stone Kingdom is about to become dominant in the earth in the Tabernacles Age to come.

This can only take place with a Tabernacles anointing, and for this we are totally dependent upon God Himself. The Passover anointing was insufficient in the days of Moses; and the Pentecost anointing has proved to be insufficient during the age now ending. The promises of God can only be fulfilled through that final great feast called Tabernacles.

This requires people on earth to be filled with the fullness of God—the subject of Paul's prayer in Ephesians 3:19. Without this, the kingdom of God can never fully manifest in the earth. The partial measures of the Holy Spirit, given in past ages, could only give the Kingdom of God a foothold in the earth.

The year 1986 was the 120th Jubilee from Adam. The number 120 is associated with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. I believe that the Net of Prayer received a five-year mandate from 1981-1986 to call the people of Pentecost to seek His face. But they failed to respond. So God separated the overcomers into a new "field" in order to work through them. These are the ones called into the anointing of Tabernacles.

This book has shown a partial history of the way God has been training and preparing the overcomers for the Age to come. Most of the overcomers have already lived and died in ages past, but the purpose of resurrection is to bring them back to earth where they can build the great Stone Kingdom in the Age to come.

Yet those of this present generation have had a unique opportunity to see the collapse of the Babylonian System, after its lengthy period of world domination. Its 'head of gold' in 607 B.C. was only the first phase of the multi-beast system, and we are now in the time of its feet being crushed by its final successor, the Stone Kingdom.

The year 1993 was important as well, for it was the 40th Jubilee of the Church under Pentecost (since 33 A.D.). It also marked the end of the reign of prophetic "Saul," after which time we observed the 71/2 year transition from "Saul" to "David."

The transfer of spiritual authority allowed the overcomers to conduct spiritual warfare against Babylon in a "Jericho march" of thirteen years (1993-2006). This ended in Babylon, NY on the first day of Tabernacles, October 7, 2006.

Since then we have observed the results of the fall of Jericho, manifested by the current financial and economic crisis. The leaders of this Babylonian system are working hard to resolve this crisis--as well they should--but they are unaware that their spiritual foundations have been undermined and destroyed by spiritual warfare. And they certainly do not believe or want their system to be replaced by the Kingdom of God.

Nevertheless, the Stone will continue to crush the image on its feet until it is ground to powder and the dust blown by the wind into its final oblivion of history. This earth belongs to God by right of creation. The Heir of the world, called to rule as the King of the Earth, is Jesus Christ. He received this authority, not only by right of genealogy from Adam through Judah and through David, but also by His righteous character, His love as manifested by His willingness not to be served but to serve and to give His life for our salvation and well being.

No other ruler on earth has done this, no other god, no other prophet, no other righteous man. He will be King at the appointed time, and there is no force on earth to stop this. We are, however, privileged to participate in this work and calling. This book has presented a short history of spiritual warfare in our time, and it is hoped that it will be of help and of interest to future generations.

From My Prayer Times Elaine

1—The Vision Shall Not Tarry: As I waited before the Lord I was surprised to hear Him say, "The vision shall no longer tarry." The visions that I gave to My prophets of old time, speaking to them that they were for a people of the end of the age, have now to come to pass in the earth. Man shall see "That the days are at hand and the effect of every vision." Though they be spoken against Babylon of old; they yet speak to Babylon of this day; this Babylon that has a stranglehold upon all the nations of the earth.

"This is the age when the visions spoken before-time shall be accomplished. The effect of the visions shall not tarry; they shall not wait for another day. This is the Day of the Stone that is cut out of the mountain to strike a mortal blow at the feet of the last of man's kingdoms. (Daniel 2; Hab. 2:3)

"The vision shall no longer tarry. It is even now in preparation to be brought forth into view! Man's boastings and arrogance shall not be able to detain it, or stop it in any way; for it is time for Babylon to be judged and great shall be the fall thereof. Understand these things and have My heart for what I do in the earth. Pity not the evil-doer, but rejoice in My judgments that shall bring forth righteousness in the earth."

(Ezek. 12:22-23, "Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.")

(effect = to bring about; a result; an outward sign; appearance, power to bring about a result).

2—Lessons from Joseph's Life: We were praying with some friends and the Lord spoke to me, "It's time for Joseph's hair to be cut." When the time came for Joseph's deliverance from bondage and time to be elevated to the throne, he shaved himself and changed his raiment and came in unto Pharaoh.

Unruly or unkempt hair speaks of wildness, and the strength of self, so Joseph must be clean-shaven which signifies to us that we must put off the strength of self before the Lord will raise us up!

Elisabeth saw a 3-D effect of the picture: "In the world, but not of it. We are to be Joseph's storehouses so that, in time of famine, we have spiritual food to share."

Kristal felt that the stored-up grain speaks of the love of God that is to be stored in our hearts (not knowledge!) It is the Spirit of the living God that we will have to share.

We were reminded of Gen. 47:12-26 where the Egyptians under the famine found that their money failed; their cattle were taken away, until only their lives were left. When they gave their lives to the king, it is as when we give our lives to Jesus, who wants our hearts. When we cry, "Give me seed, lest I die!" He will give us the seed of life so that we may receive of life eternal!

Elaine heard: "Secret kingdoms shall fall! Those who have plotted in darkness to take over the world and to rule mankind and his course, shall be uncovered and their plans brought to naught, for they have transpired against the Holy One of Israel, to dethrone Him in the minds of men and to bring Him low. It shall not be! It shall not be! For every man upon the earth is My possession and his destiny lies in My Hand. No man shall control the earth and mankind except the Creator of it. Comfort thyself with this word in days to come."

3—Turning Upside Down: These scriptures were dropped into my heart: "The Lord preserveth the strangers: He relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked He turneth upside down." Psalm 146:9

"Behold, the Lord maketh the earth empty and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof." Isa. 24:1.

"All nature shall testify against the wickedness of mankind. Yet, My mercy shall be so manifest that all heaven shall rejoice at the coming-forth of those who love My appearing. What My loved ones shall bring forth shall be more remarkable and powerful than all the manifestations of nature which I have sent for judgment. In that day, a Rock shall be for a hiding-place in the midst of trouble. I have said unto My beloveds, 'Your foot shall not be moved in this Day, for it standeth on the Rock that cannot be moved!'"

Elisabeth—In the Spirit, I am seeing scenes of desolation; empty fields; no workers there. The land is empty. There is no food. And, I hear Habbakuk 3:17-19, "Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat;

the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

“Yet will I rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation. The Lord God is my strength, and He will make my feet like hind’s feet, and He will make me to walk upon my high places.”

4—The Plan: “I spoke to Noah for 120 years, giving him the plan for the preservation of the species. Shall I not, likewise, give the plan and divine instructions to My remnant company for their preservation and for all who will come under the shadow of their wings?”

“Yes, I will do it in truth, in the midst of a dark and perverse generation. My Own shall know wherein they shall walk and all that I require of them to establish My kingdom in the midst of the darkness until the light shall swallow up the darkness and My creation shall be free.

“Rejoice at what thine eyes have yet to see, and thine ears are just beginning to hear, for My secret councils are being opened up before thy wondering eyes and you shall never be the same! You shall find yourselves to be ‘Himself creatures’ indeed!”

5—Battle of the Ages: In waiting before the Lord, I said, “Lord, it looks like the world is falling apart.” I didn’t expect an answer, but I heard one: “I am putting it back together. It had already fallen apart because those who knew Me not were at the helm. This I allowed for an allotted time that My creation might know, in no uncertain terms, that they cannot, without Me, bring forth a righteous world wherein peace abounds.

“It can only happen when the Prince of Peace reigns in a person’s life. Until now, the enemy has had the power to put down and to subvert My righteous servants, but the Day of the Lord has come when My servants shall be able to exercise the throne dominion that I have purchased for them. They now shall have the power to put the enemy under their feet.

“This seems to be to you like some beautiful fairy tale at this time, but I ask you, ‘Is it more difficult to subdue kingdoms and to put down anarchy and misrule than to subdue the self-life of man?’ Those who have won over their self-life shall surely have the victory over all that rises against Me. They shall not lack for any good thing in all that I ask of them, for all that I have is theirs! Ponder this word and take heart that this ‘battle of the ages’ is truly Mine!”

6—A New Phase: “I am bringing you into a new phase. That which has been spoken by My Spirit to

My prophets of old, and those of this day, shall come into view. No longer shall you have simply words to guide and encourage you on your way. The words shall now “become flesh” as they begin to manifest in the visible realm.

“The feeding of the 5000, the multiplying of the oil—incidents such as these will follow My Own and become commonplace. Fear shall come upon the God-mockers when they see that which I speak, come into visibility. It shall become a common occurrence in the lives of My remnant people, to see My spoken word become manifest.”

7—The Army of Preparation: “You are in charge of a vast feeding program throughout the earth, the extent of which is completely unknown to you. Another, whom you know, has been assigned to send Bibles to those who are hungry in various nations. Then, there are the trumpeters who exhort, warn, and instruct. You are also one of these.

“These are all a part of My Army of Preparation and they have been quite unaware of the part they are playing in My plan to bring in the kingdom. Each one, in his order, is doing far more than he knows, for I am multiplying the seed of My word that is sent forth.

“And then, there are the intercessors who cover My people when they are weak and vulnerable to attack. They lend them a shoulder to lean on until they are fully able to walk on their own again.

“And then, there are the Lovers who minister Love to Me and to My Own who are in need of My Love.

“Then, there are those who are entrusted with My fuller’s soap to cleanse with love and gentleness those who have need of cleansing without wounding.

“All of My children involved in this Great Preparation do their parts humbly, scarcely realizing of what their part consists and the impact it has upon the Body. They humbly walk in their appointed paths, feeling they are ‘unprofitable servants’ when they are of great value to Me and have a great impact upon My Own—who shall then impact the world with the knowledge of My goodness!”

President Lincoln's State of the Union Speech

“It is the duty of nations as well as of men to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, and to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in Holy Scripture, and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord. And, inasmuch as we know that by His divine law nations, like individuals, are subjected to punishments and chastisement in this world, may we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war which now desolates the land may be but a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people? We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious Hand which has preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us. It behooves us, then, to humble ourselves before the offended power, to confess our national sins and to pray for clemency and forgiveness." (Unquote) [March 30, 1863] How things have "changed"!

The Horsemen Are Riding

A Vision

Hollie L. Moody

(Bill Cook: I would like to introduce Hollie Moody who has received much revelation for our day. She tried to share it with the people at her church but they could not receive it. She received so much criticism that she does not share anymore and feels she is out of the race. She is one of His precious ones so I'm requesting that we all help to carry her burden until she regains what has been stolen from her. She gave many of her prophecies to Mr. James who distributes a number of them free upon request. Write to him at: 4912 Lancer Drive, Knoxville, TN, 37921-3014, U.S. Or Email Mr-James70@BellSouth.net)

In my vision, I began to hear the sound of hoofbeats. The group of people with me heard them also. "What is happening, Lord?" I asked.

"The horsemen are riding," He replied. "Truly, they have already been riding individually. But now, they have joined forces, and are riding together." Suddenly, from every direction, horses with men seated upon their backs burst into my view. I saw white, red, black and greenish horses who charged toward us. They encircled us and began to ride around us. I heard many of the people in the group begin to cry out in fear.

"Fear not!" the Lord's voice rang out in command. "Listen to My voice. If you listen for My voice, the things happening already and about to happen in the nations will not strike fear and terror in your hearts. I will make a way for My people in the midst of all the troubles that are about to befall the earth. You will not fear as those who do not know Me, fear. I am with each of you. I will lead and guide you, but you must keep your eyes upon Me. You must not allow your hearts to be overcome and overwhelmed by the coming evil days. These are times which will try your faith, but I have prepared you in advance for these days. I have given you warning, and I will give instructions each step of the way in what to expect and how to stay prepared in order to remain victorious."

I watched as the horses and horsemen formed into groups of four. Each group contained a white horse, a red horse, a black horse and the sickly-looking greenish horse. They turned from our group of people and furiously rode off in all directions.

"What about my nation, Lord?" I asked. "What is coming next to my nation?" (The United States)

"A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine," the Lord replied softly. "Economic lack is coming to your nation. There are some I will instruct to lay up certain food, water, household and medical supplies. Others I have instructed to trust in Me daily for their needs, and to refrain from storing up supplies. Nothing will remain stable in your nation for any length of time. This uncertainty will cause many to grow weary. An attitude of quiet despair will begin to prevail"

"Do not allow yourself to lose hope, child," The Lord comforted me. "Have I not promised that I will be with each of My children? I will not leave them or forsake them. But the days ahead are indeed days filled with evil. Much has been plotted against your nation, and is being set in motion. This will set in motion a time of persecution against My children.

"Persecution?" I repeated. "Persecution here, in America, against Your children?"

"The persecution will at first come about as lawsuits and restrictions and new laws will seek to limit the voice of My children. Many churches will be fined, and when unable to pay the large fines, will be shut down or sold. Pastors will be imprisoned for their refusal to be silent against certain sinful practices. Their congregations will be left untended and the sheep will be scattered if pastors do not begin now to train My children to follow Me and not man. I would have My children know to continue to follow Me even when their leaders are removed.”

“How long, Lord?” I asked. “How long will these things continue?”

“These things are just the beginning of woes, child,” the Lord said gently. “I am giving advance warning to My children, not to discourage their hearts, but to prepare them. These things are at hand, even at the doors. I command My children to watch and pray; watch and pray! Only then will My children be able to discern My voice and be able to withstand these evil days. To those who overcome, I will give power to rise above that which would bring them down to cause them discouragement and despair. I have not left My children promiseless or comfortless. I am with them and will not leave them alone. Do you believe this, child?” He asked me.

“Yes,” I replied. “I believe this.” The group I was with stood silently, watching and listening to the sounds of the horsemen riding. (End of vision).

THE BRETHREN SHARE

1--Jim Alspaugh: “Elaine, I had a dream about you the other night. I was in the primary school that I attended for the first through the sixth grade. I went to look at the door of my first-grade teacher and the name on the door was not Mrs. Martin, but Mrs. Cook! The Lord then told me that you were the first-grade teacher in Tabernacles and that the primary book you were using to teach Tabernacles was your recent book “My Word Made Flesh.” I had read it previously but reread it again and realized that you were writing about many things that had happened to me.

Jesus told me that the difference between Pentecost and Tabernacles was that in Pentecost we did the living with God’s help. When the anointing was not manifesting, we fell back into self-effort, as that was all we had at that time. In Tabernacles, the Holy Spirit has to form Jesus in us as us so that Jesus is the one functioning and living His life in and through us. We merely express His functioning, because without Him we can do nothing.

We noticed when we left Pentecost, we could no longer manifest the gifts. That was over with! Now, we just let Jesus do the living as us. If a problem arises, as they constantly do, we just turn it over to Jesus to handle it. The problem is an opportunity, not a disaster. It is a call for us to get Jesus into the situation so His life can swallow up the negative.

Many churches teach that when you get saved you are put into Jesus. This is not true. Jesus must put the Holy Spirit into you so that the Holy Spirit can sanctify you and fully form Jesus in you so that He can live in you as you. Jesus justifies; the Holy Spirit sanctifies; and the Father glorifies.

2—Pauline Graham: What a season to be living in! I just read “My Utmost for His Highest.” His anointing stays fresh upon that word and never loses its effectiveness. I have read this page much over the years until this paragraph just became a part of me. This quote in particular: “It is no longer I who live. My individuality remains, but my primary motivations for living and the nature that rules me are radically changed. I have the same human body but the old satanic rights to myself have been destroyed.”

3—Free Book from Mr. James: The book of Revelation speaks about Babylon the Great, and many have written who they think is Babylon the Great. I have also written about Babylon, but I put in my book only those things that I am most sure of. Please ask for my book, The Mighty Babylon has Fallen—about 70 pages, Free and postpaid. 4—Douglas Clark: In /08 I received the word “Convergence.” I heard, “The world is collapsing in on itself. Just as there are changes taking place in the natural world with a shifting of the earth’s gravitational pull, there is a shifting taking place in the spiritual realm where the spiritual world will take preeminence over the physical world.”

5—Louise Mize: Warn the People of the “Beast!”

When I was around seven year’s old, I dreamed I was lying in our yard looking up at the clouds when I heard a noise that scared me. It seemed to be coming from the roof, from the attic where it’s dark.

I saw “beasts” (large animals) which I had never seen before. They were stretching and getting up. I then heard God speak to me for the first time in my life. He said, “The Beasts in Revelation are awakening; you must go and warn the people of the Beasts, for they will try to scare or hurt the people.” In the dream I jumped up and started running toward my aunt’s house. On the steep hill appeared a large white object, like a king-sized sheet.

Many children of all ages were playing around the white object spread out on the ground. They were unaware of the Beasts that were fast approaching. God told me to put them on the white object and they would be safe. I grabbed a little one and placed him on the “white.” I struggled to get him there and when I’d put the second one down, the first one had crawled away. I labored trying to keep them safe from the Beasts! I awoke, just terrified!

Again, when I was 13 or 14, I dreamed I had been swallowed up by a big hairy Black Beast. He was walking around upright with me inside and my family did not even see him! Like Jonah, I cried out to God. I seemed to know there was work to do for God, but I felt I was doomed. I prayed, “O God, I’m sorry I’ve put off making things right with You. I can’t get out, but if I could, I’d give you my heart and I would tell the people.” And then I awoke.

I was 15 years old when I made a real commitment to God. When I was 30, the Lord renewed the dreams to me and said, “That dream was your ‘calling’.” God began to awaken in me things different from what Pentecost taught. I was teaching Sunday School and was struggling with changes I had to make. As I was preparing a lesson about Jacob helping to put the hairy skins on his arms to trick his father, suddenly all the dreams of the Beasts were made open to me.

Now I know that carnal beast nature is not only in me, but in all creation who has been bound, blinded and confused. But God has heard our cry from the belly of the Beast. No longer can he scare or hurt us, for we are “awake”. We are not dreaming any more of the fearful powers coming to scare or hurt our families. The scriptures are symbolic in their language.

The white simply means “purity”. We are safe in His righteousness. We need never be afraid of the Beast nature, for God has awakened us to that fearful mystery of iniquity. He has revealed to His own that we are safe when we are walking in His righteousness. There are still those who are children (spiritually) who need to be warned. If they have an ear to hear, they too, can be safe from the fears of the beast nature. They just need to be in touch with some who are awake! I am now in my seventies and many times my peace passes my understanding!

6—Pat Savas: “I have been sensing the veil getting thinner, and this was confirmed by the last ‘Little Letter’ sent by our dear brother, Carl Schwing before he passed into the invisible realm on Easter Sunday, 2008.

“My spirit lifted up as he described seeing our family of completed sons, together with our Father and Elder Brother, Jesus, on the golden horizon. They are eagerly looking toward us sons-in-formation and are joyfully awaiting our completion in Christ. My heart dances an ‘Amen!’

When people ask me what church I go to, my answer is always, ‘The Church of the Weak and Simple!’

7—Aaltje Yntema: “The winter has been rather hard on me. I was hospitalized four times with heart problems, but He got me through. A week and a half ago, I was absolutely done—I thought I was going, but after ten hours, things got better again. It is wonderful to be so at peace, and at one with the Lord. He said to me, “Your flight has been cancelled.” So He has a purpose in all this and has plans for me. I am deeply thankful!

8—Jamie Russell: The vision Susan Cummings shared (Rain of Fire from the Feb. newsletter), seems to be saying what the Spirit revealed through my wife Pamela, in our prayer meeting recently. It speaks of a bud covered over with leaves that becomes a beautiful flower and the equal example of the caterpillar transforming into a magnificent butterfly. The final transformation comes suddenly when it is not expected. Susan’s vision said, “It rained down suddenly.” It’s interesting to note that both the vision and the prophecy mentioned suddenly. We believe both the vision and what Pamela received was the manifestation of the sons.

(We hope to share Pamela’s prophecy with you another time. Elaine).

9—Norma Melton: The processing of the death of the carnal mind may seem to be long. The Lord told me that “time would be the trying of the vision”, of entering into the fullness of Christ—spirit, soul, and body. In the meantime, physical affliction seems to remain 24/7 and continues to try us. The Lord told me He was going to use physical affliction, not healing some, though He certainly still does heal His people, but in some He was going to allow these things to remain for a season. He was going to temper their spirit through these things.

My understanding of this was that it was to make them very strong. When He gave this to me, I had been very sick with a bad throat infection. He made me to know I was not to seek medical help. On the third day, I became delirious from a high fever. I sat up in bed and cried, “Oh Lord, you could heal me instantly; this is so humiliating!”

He spoke, “Yes, that is your body of humiliation.” And that’s when He spoke about using physical afflictions. Four days later I was completely well.
