America's Coming Super Depression

Nov. 29/09

Nathan Leal

Over the last several months I have been wrestling with a prophetic warning that I received from God. This warning is not one to be taken lightly. Every one that is reading this prophetic alert needs to prepare themselves and their families for very hard events that are approaching. The warning of God always begins with a trumpet sound and, by the leading of the Holy Spirit, I am sounding an alarm.

If you reside within the borders of the U.S., what is coming concerns you. If you reside outside of the borders, you will also feel the residual effects of what is coming. America is going to face the incredible torrent of a Dollar crisis. How bad will it be? Bad enough to forever change the landscape of the United States! What is coming will not be a mere correction in the markets, but instead, will be at the level of currency extinction!

As Americans, we are all facing a tsunami of economic destruction! The U.S. Dollar is going to collapse! As a result, the once strong middle class is going to be slaughtered and replaced with a new type of lifestyle. The rest of the world calls this lifestyle: Third world living!

When the financial super storm arrives, the administration will no longer be able to lie to the public and say, "All is well and recovery has begun!" It will be difficult for the media to successfully tell the general public that things are okay when the people are starving and eating out of garbage dumpsters!

In early 2009, I had a prophetic dream. In it, I was speaking to a financial expert who told me that in mid-August of 2010, wheels would be put into motion to abandon the US dollar and after this happened, everything was going to change! I kept the dream to myself and prayed and sought the Lord about it. Finally, God answered my prayers and on Aug. 15/09, I had another prophetic dream.

In this dream, I found myself at a shopping mall. I was hungry, so I decided to go the food court to eat. When I arrived there, all of the restaurants were closed and out of business except for one. It had a sign called "School Cafeteria." Many people were in line to eat. I remember saying to myself, "Well, this will be good. School food is cheap!" I assumed that the meal would be about two dollars.

The restaurant did resemble a school cafeteria. The ladies serving the food were school cafeteria workers. As I ordered my food, there was only one choice for a meal. It was a slab of processed chicken with some mashed potatoes and a few green beans. I took the plate of food to the cashier who said, "That will be $30!"

"Thirty dollars!" I protested. "I'm not going to pay that!" I left the food and walked away. As I left the mall, a restaurant appeared in front of me. It was a Chinese restaurant. I walked toward it. There was a waiter standing outside of the restaurant showing everybody his menu. The waiter was Chinese. I walked up to him and said, "I just want coffee. How much is a plain cup of coffee?"

The Chinese waiter pointed to his menu which read: "Coffee--$10." Again, I was shocked and angry that it cost so much money, so I walked away and the dream ended.

In the third dream, again, I was hungry, and was in the cafeteria of an actual school. All of the other people in line were adults. I did not see any children. I asked the cashier, "What is the special?"

She said, "It's Thanksgiving dinner. It is five meals for $99."

I shouted, "Five for $99! That is $20 each!"

She said, "Yes! And if you want it for this price, you need five people in your group." Again I protested. The dream was over!

After I had the third dream, I began to realize that these three dreams actually went together so I began seeking God over many days of prayer. Finally, God answered! This is the message that God revealed through the Holy Spirit (Oct.14/09.)

"In the days ahead, a secret meeting is going to take place somewhere in the world. The participants of this meeting will decide that they are going to abandon the US dollar. And the target date that they would decide to begin abandoning the dollar would be what you heard in the first dream, mid-August of 2010!"

I need to be very clear. My prophetic dream did not say that in mid-Aug. of 2010 the dollar would collapse. What it did say, was that in mid-Aug. of 2010, the wheels would be put into motion to begin abandoning the dollar. After that, everything was going to change! In my first dream I had heard that word change.

When these wheels are put into motion, I do not know if they will be announced to the news media. It is entirely possible that all of these events are going to take place behind the scenes. Therefore it may be difficult to track them. God did not tell me if this news would be made public.

During the coming super depression, one of the sources of food will be provided by government soup kitchens, hence the school cafeteria feeding adults. Another big player in the coming Dollar collapse will be China—that is why a Chinese restaurant was in my dream. Another food source will be the smiling Chinese, but it will come with a hefty price! Those meals I was shown saw increases of 500 to 1000%!

I asked the Lord, “How bad is it going to be?” After several more hours of prayer I actually saw the picture of what is coming. What I heard was very, very disturbing. The Holy Spirit whispered to me, “Lamentations is coming to America!” (He also spoke this same word to David Wilkerson—Elaine).

I was told that the things that are written in the Old Testament book of Lamentations would happen in America’s future. When I read it, He said, “When you see the word Jerusalem, substitute the word America as you read it! Not to rewrite the Scriptures, but instead to get a picture of how things are going to look in our future. I was overwhelmed with what I read.

Lamentations is Jeremiah’s diary of what he saw when Jerusalem was invaded. As he wrote his report, he was overwhelmed with tears, heartache, grief and sorrow. His words painted a picture of something that is only witnessed in nightmares!

He saw people he knew and loved, starving to death in the streets! He witnessed the death of children that he had held in his arms as swaddling babies. He witnessed an economy that was destroyed and failed money. Only people willing to trade their valuables were able to get bread. He saw people who were once rich, reduced to begging in the streets. He saw all the wealth of the city looted by foreigners.

These five chapters describe the judgment of God—and soon, these same events will visit the land of America. From coast to coast, the fall of America’s economy will be evident. Restaurants, stores, and shopping malls will become abandoned buildings with broken windows and in disrepair.

Why? Because America’s cup of iniquity is full! God is holding the cup in His hand... and it is boiling! The voices of God’s messengers have been warning for years that she needs to repent. Instead, she went the other way. In her arrogance, she has boasted that she does not need God or His commandments. Her judges have proclaimed that freedom to “Do what thou wilt” is nobler than “Thy will be done!” The blood of her innocent ones flows through her sewers. They cry out from the ground and also from her cosmetics and vaccines.

Therefore, coming soon to America, the things written by Jeremiah in Lamentations! Spiritual endurance will be the key to survival. What is coming is not a curse. It is a chastisement and yes, it will also be painful. But, through the coming events of hardship, many of God’s people are going to discover their faith in God. They will realize that the path that lies ahead will be an opportunity to minister to the weak as they themselves are also being purged.

The time to prepare for these things is now. The spiritual bank account needs to have some deposits—now! Your bank account of prayer needs to have some deposits. Your knowledge of the Word of God needs to increase. If you are rich or famous, know that the storm is not going to play favorites. The only thing that will save any of us is a humble repentance to the Lord God, our Creator!

Get ready! Get your spiritual house in order. Surrender your life to God in repentance and in humble favor in His sight. Many who call themselves Christians today are living a life full of secret sins. Entire families should be challenged to repent. Pray with your children, or at least, for them. After a season of repentance, seek the Lord about any practical measures He would have you to do.

If possible, pay off your car or buy a cheaper car so as to get out of debt. If job loss is in your future, you do not want to be worrying about a car payment.

If you have a savings or retirement fund, take time to educate yourself on preserving your wealth. When the dollar starts losing its value, people who have their money in savings accounts will see the buying power of their dollars diminish. Hedge the value of your money now by converting it to gold or silver bullion or other currency. You may need to get advice from qualified people, but only those who understand that the dollar is going to crash. Those who do not know what is coming will steer you wrong!

Educate yourself now on the science of preparation. Research this topic on the Internet; read Christian forums. By all means, get started now if you have not already. Find the mercy of God, my friends. Do it now!

From My Prayer Times Elaine

1—A Comment: I want to say that I have been very careful to always try to uplift and encourage our reading family of friends. Many reports of coming troubles are sent to me which I have not felt to share. But with the article above from Nathan Leal I felt a strong witness that I should share it with you. My spirit witnesses that it is true and we need to face the facts.

I have mentioned before about the Lord showing me in the eighties while travelling in the US about the famine that would be coming to the land. Now we understand more about why that should be so. He also showed me this year that Canada would not be exempt from His judgment. Our people have sinned in a similar manner and can expect the same kind of treatment. I don't want to frighten anyone by this word, but want your heart to be prepared.

2—Babylon is Judged: Dec.4/09. "I am preparing the answer to the problem before the problem appears in all its fullness. That little stone cut out of the mountain is the cause of Babylon's fall. It is not a people prepared because of her fall, but it is because of their preparation that Babylon can no longer stand! (Daniel 2:44-45).

"Because My sons stand in My righteousness in the earth, bearing My word and My righteous judgments in their mouths, Babylon's time has come and the judgment of the great whore has come—she who captivated the whole world through her sorceries shall fall and not rise again and great shall be the fall thereof.

"All mighty works done in the earth originate in the heavens, and mighty edicts and proclamations are being made in the heavenly realm in this day, for it is the Day of the Lord when Babylon's judgment is upon her.

"The people are being lulled into believing in a "recovery" from her illness, but there shall be a death, not a recovery! Babylon shall fall and not rise again and great shall be the fall thereof. My kingdom, which has been hidden, shall suddenly appear and shall be greeted with both joy and fear—joy to the simple who look for a better way, and fear to those who will lose their own wicked way. Your eyes shall see it and rejoice and I will be magnified in your eyes and My awe shall be upon all My people who understand what I am doing in this Day.

"Walk closely to Me. Fear not, but magnify Me in the fires!"

2—His Finest Hour: "Men will say of one who has wrought a mighty work in the earth: 'This was his finest hour.'"

"I want you to know that My 'finest hour' lies shortly upon you—even when I shall display to the God-despising, My handiwork in the earth.

"Man takes great pride in his exploits of science and space-conquering prowess, but these things are as a child's toy in comparison to what I have made: even a man, a many-membered man in My image and likeness! There is nothing that man can do in his own power to compare with the work of My Hands in preparing a people in whom the Spirit of the Lord will be pleased to dwell in fullness! Within them are all the answers that mankind has need of, and all the power to bring forth those answers! In these, I shall be greatly glorified and man's works shall seem as child's play when men see what I have wrought in earthen vessels who have been obedient unto My Word."

After I heard this word, this scripture was dropped into my heart: "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." (Hebrews 12:2). I now understood that the "joy that was set before Him" was seeing His image come forth in his first fruits company! Can you agree with that?

3—Dec.13/09: "There are many mangers throughout the length and breadth of the earth, from which shall come a holy birth. From humble hearts in lowly places shall arise that which all creation has been groaning and travailing for.

"There has been no room for them in the 'inns' of this world, for they do not fit there—they are not one with them. Only the lowly shall find them. And later, those who have been searching the heavens for Him.

"These are very solemn days of My power and presence such as My children have not yet seen because I come bearing gifts. These are the gifts that were given to Me at My birth: the gold of My divine nature come in flesh; silver—the salvation prepared for mankind from the foundation of the world, and frankincense and myrrh which tell of the cross and its suffering that I bore for them and of which they have partaken along with the silver and gold.”

(Note: The Mountain of Myrrh is a symbol of the tomb in which Christ lay. Myrrh shows forth the priceless value of His redemptive work. It has a bitter taste. Esther was purified with oil of myrrh for six months. The Hill of Frankincense represents the cross of Calvary where He offered Himself. It is an emblem of Christ’s perfect acceptability before God, and His abandonment to do His Father’s will. Its sweet spicy odor is not released until it is put in the fire! Elaine)

4-- As I Arise

I’ve gone the last mile of the way
I behold the closing of the Day.
Yet, mine eyes do behold
A new dawning of gold
Peeking over the horizon:
A coming of God for His son-
That son that has been made right,
Through the darkness of the night;
Through storm and tempest,
Yet heavenly streams
Proclaiming things beyond our dreams.
All that You have done to me
Will be to me a blessing true
As I arise and look like You!

5—A Good Report: I know you like to hear how Bill is doing from time-to-time. Recently, he had a colonoscopy to see if the cancer had spread to his colon. He was having bad constipation and wondered if that was the reason. When we went to the doctor for the results, he said there was a polyp, which he removed, and another one that was pre-cancerous which he also removed. He said things looked just fine—no cancer there!

You can imagine how thrilled we were to hear that! We decided to go out and have a big breakfast. On our way there, a spirit-praise began to well up from within me. I spoke a few sentences in tongues and then continued, loudly, speaking these two words: “Gracia Domine” over and over with tears. The spelling may not be correct, but I believe it is Latin or Italian for “Thank You, Father!”

We were both amazed at the spirit-praise which the Lord put upon my lips for His goodness to Bill. We want to thank each of you who uphold us before the Father. We appreciate your prayers more than you know!

6—My Lights are Shining: In the last few days I have had three good reports of His shining lights in the workplace. In one case, a sister was definitely at ‘the bottom of the totem pole’ in her company. Each month the manager would ask those attending the business meeting if they should keep her on. There was always a resounding “Yes!” from the employees. Yet, they haven’t always treated her well, but she never responded in kind. She simply spoke the words that the Lord gave her which always smoothed out the troubled waters.

Recently, an engineer in the same company asked her what church she attended. She told him that she didn’t go to any church, but walked with the Lord. He clearly was seeing the light in her and wanted to know where it came from!

Then, again, I heard from another sister who was offered a good promotion in the company she worked for. It came ‘out of the blue’, so to speak. Evidently they had been watching her for the past few years and ‘just knew’ she was going to be hired by someone else soon, and they didn’t want to lose the possibility of having her work for them. Whether they knew it or not, it is our God’s nature and character they are seeing and they want to bring His light into their office. Isn’t this great news?

7—The A, B, C’s of Our Spiritual Walk: After many interruptions, I have finally finished the book I wrote with the intention of making simple, the plan of the Lord in a Christian’s life. It is a book of 115 pages and it will be back from the printers by the time you receive this newsletter. Write and let me know how many you could use.

8—The Great Awakening/Dec. 18: I was resting one afternoon when the Lord began to deal with me about so many of His people who are fearing to face the Great Tribulation and expecting the Lord to rap-ture them out of it at any time.

We, too, who know His ways, have some fear as to how we shall fare through this time of judgment.

I heard the Lord say: “To some it will be a Great Tribulation, for I am causing their god to fall down at My feet. It is like the fish-God, Dagon, who could not stand before the Ark of My Presence and was utterly broken in pieces. (I Sam. 5:2-4)

“So shall it be in this day—that the god of mam-mon shall be utterly broken and will be powerless to rise and enslave My people as before.

“To My Own it shall not be a day of the Great Tribulation, but it shall be a day of The Great Awakening when I shall appear in the clouds of My people who are as lights in this dark world. I shall give them anointing, wisdom, and provision such as their eyes have never before seen. The hardened hearts who behold them shall be stricken and broken in fear of Me, for I come in power and glory such as My Own have not known.

“Spend no time or energy in fear or dread of these days, My little Ones, but know that you are My answer to the sickness of mankind. To see a man or a woman who acts in My nature is the most convicting experience a man could know. That light would shine upon an evil heart of unbelief and break the hardness thereof until the sinner cries out for mercy from His Maker.

“Rejoice to be a part of this Great Awakening at the beginning of this new age. You are not appointed unto wrath or judgment, for your sins have gone on before you. (I Tim. 5:24). You are My instruments and weapons of war. With you shall I reap the earth until their gods are defeated and I (in you) remain victor in the field! (Rev. 15:15).

“Take heart! You are in My Hand and I shall lead you and direct My Army as I see fit. You shall not be left to your own devices!”

9—Sweep Away the Lies/Dec. 23: While resting, I heard this verse: Isa. 28:17 “...the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.” Then the Spirit spoke to me, “Did you not know that there would come a day when mankind would have to renounce his imagined godhood? Did you not know the time would come when I would gather up all the lies against My nature and break their power upon mankind—to keep them from Me?”

“I purposed in My Heart to wait until the lies were as a flood in the earth and man vaunted his supposed godhood. At that time, which is now upon you, I send My hail of judgment from which neither priest, peasant, or king might find a place of safety. Man shall know that it is not in his power to deliver or to bring forth a life of any worth by his own efforts.

“My little flock, even My small remnant in this day, yet cry out unto Me, as did Gideon, ‘Why do You call me a mighty man of valor? I am poor and the least in my father’s house.’ It is I Who have kept them in this humble place until I should summon them to do My bidding. And when I call them to move forward they shall see that it is the light in the clay pot, and the obedience to My Word that will bring the victory.

“No man shall be able to continue to believe a lie about Me, for My Word made flesh shall be in their midst and there will be no gainsaying the reality of My Life that abides in these earthen vessels.

“There shall be great remorse in many hearts as they see that they have believed lies upon lies about My nature and My plans for My creation. The reality of My indwelling presence shall remove every hiding place man has made for himself so that he could rule his own life. Great shall be his anguish to know that I have loved him and gave Myself for him!”

10—The Day of the Lord: As I was waiting before the Lord, I kept hearing a portion of this scripture: “In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats.” (Isa. 2:20). Isa. 2:17-22 tells the whole story of the Day of the Lord.

The prophet Isaiah gives us a picture of what will happen on the earth “...in the last days.” (Isa. 2:2). Just prior to the Lord’s return, He will judge the nations. Vs. 11-19, “The lofty looks of man shall be humbled...The Lord of hosts shall be upon (come against) every one that is proud and lofty...and upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, and upon all the (trading) ships...and upon all pleasant pictures {things}. And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down and the haughtiness of men shall be made low...the idols He shall utterly abolish. And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord when He ariseth to shake terribly the earth.”

They will be so shaken they will cast their “...idols of silver, ...and idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats.” (Verse 20). All the material things they trusted in will be so devalued, they will be tossed aside as worthless. Why? “...for fear of the Lord and for the glory of His majesty, when He ariseth to shake terribly the earth.” (Vs. 21)

11—They Shall Not Be Moved/Dec. 31/09: On New Year’s Eve we waited before the Lord in case He had a word to give us for the new year. I saw, in the spirit, a person who seemed to have his feet standing in cement. The Spirit spoke: “Hitherto have My Own been tossed to and fro, full of questions and unsettled doubts. Know ye not that the year ahead shall establish them in a way that they have not yet known.

“And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure” Isa. 33:6.

“Their feet shall be established that they shall not be moved. They shall walk in a new assurance that they are My Man in the earth and I am their Head!

“And they shall know that all I have spoken unto them is true and shall come to pass in due order. They shall see Babylon fall and they shall see Christ arise for they are His instruments of both war and mercy in the earth as His judgments are coming forth.

“Say to My people: Ye shall be established in the strength and power of My Spirit.” (Ah, that is what the feet set in concrete meant! Elaine)

The Brethren Share

1—A Confirmation from Udeme Anosike: I write to say that the words you shared from your prayer times – End of the Sixth Day & What Kind of Judge is He? came as strong confirmations to certain words the Lord had ministered to me recently.

Recently, the Lord affirmed through Lev. 26:14-25 that we are in a time of His judgment. He stressed that the purpose of His judgment is to turn men back to Him; hence, in Lev. 25 He repeatedly uses words like, “And after all this, if you do not obey Me, then I will punish you.” (vs. 18). “And if by these things you are not reformed by Me...I will punish you yet...(v. 23-24).” So, we see from this scripture (and we should expect it in our day) a progressive unleashing of God’s judgments until men are broken to the point of surrender.

The Lord also indicated that we’re in a season when Haggai 2:6-7 will be fulfilled: “For thus says the Lord of hosts: ‘Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the seas and dry land; and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this temple with glory,’ says the Lord of hosts.”

So God will yet shake people’s lives and circumstances. He will also shake things and systems that people believe to be safe and secure. As this shaking occurs, many will turn and come to the desire of All Nations—our Lord Jesus Christ.

But God said He needs “harvesters” to reap the fruit of His judgments for Him in this season. He needs men and women who understand the times we’re in from God’s perspective--people He has trained and prepared to serve in these times. He needs people who are accustomed to obeying His leading; people who are willing to go wherever He leads in order to reap this harvest. We see the latter modeled by our Lord Jesus Christ who went into the pits of corruption and immorality to reap for the Father, not minding the inevitable criticism from the Pharisees (Mat. 9:9-13).

As the Lord spoke these words, He emphasized the need for His sons and daughters (who have been prepared by Him) to be willing to go wherever He leads for the purpose of doing His work. He said we should not be inhibited by fear (especially fear of criticism) but, like the early apostles, should boldly say to opposing thoughts and words, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge.” Acts. 4:19.

2—Onions for the Flu! (Elaine): With all the publicity that has been presented about the H1N1 virus, I thought I’d share what has been sent to me. The Alternative doctors, with one accord, are saying that the flu is not the problem—the vaccine is the “bad-die.”

Years ago a friend told me how her husband’s family lived through the terrible flu of 1918 without any of them getting it. They were the only ones in their farming community that were well so they would go around and tend to other people’s chores for them. It so happened that they had onions and garlic hanging up in the house to dry and had no idea how they were keeping them well!

They have powerful antibacterial, antiseptic properties. A hairdresser said that she placed several bowls with onions around in her shop and none of the staff got sick after that.

One person had pneumonia and was very ill. She read an article that said to cut both ends off an onion and put one end on a fork and place the forked end into an empty jar. Place the jar next to the patient at night. It said the onion would be black in the morning from the germs. It happened like that—the onion was a mess and she began to feel better!

One mother said how her little son used to get colds all the time. She cut an onion and rubbed it on his chest. The onion turned very black and her son soon felt better. It sounds like a remedy worth trying!

3—David Wilkerson’s New Book: Called “America’s Last Call.” David has put it on the Web site for anyone to read. You cannot download it but you may read it. The Lord has been speaking to him from Lamentations just as He has to Nathan Leal, in our feature article. It tells of the scenes that Jeremiah witnessed when Babylon laid siege to Jerusalem. It is right up-to-date. Here is the address:

http://worldchallenge.edgeboss.net/download/world-challenge/books/americas_last_call.pdf

Also, Andrew Strom wrote on “The Crisis of Contemporary Christianity,” a message recently delivered in Uganda. Briefly, he said: “Right across the continents of Africa, Asia, and South America, where God has been moving the most, we find this gospel of greed beginning to utterly dominate the church. They are nations full of the simple and the poor—who often make the most devoted lambs of Jesus. Now I feel like we are seeing the “rape” of these precious Third World Christians by a vast army of corrupted charlatans who call themselves “God’s preachers.” Leaders by the thousand have been utterly ruined by the greed-inducing lies of Western Christian media. And now they are ravaging God’s precious sheep.

“On one trip to Nigeria I stayed in the home of a pastor of a large church there. He had two brand-new Mercedes parked in the driveway as well as a new Lexus SUV. Inside, was a 10-foot wide Plasma TV. Such things are more and more being seen as “normal.” And how do they get all this money? By manipulating the poor, precious lambs of Jesus—taking it from a people who live in poverty the like of which you and I can hardly imagine. And, where did they learn all these ‘money tricks’? Why, from U.S. Christian television, of course!” (unquote).

I read a recent quote from one of these “prosperity” preachers. It was: “The year 2010 will be a year of overflowing prosperity!” (If that is true, the Lord has not spoken by me, nor by David Wilkerson, nor by Nathan Leal nor by Andrew Strom!)

One sister was told in 2005 by the Lord, “When I want to visit the economy of a people, I change the climate.” Back then, there was not the panic that is now seen over climate change which, I believe, is not caused by man, but by God.

4—Mary Ellen Hope: (prophecy) “To partake of Me and know My voice, you must be very still, as many voices are speaking that are not of Me and want to speak through you. You have My protection from deception that would lead you to another head. As you continue to seek Me in the quiet place, I will rise up in you, changing and transforming your hearts that you can live in Me and I in you. I am preparing a people to be pure in heart by the many purging and trials.

“Judgment has begun in the house of the Lord. I am also setting judgments in the world to prepare a place for My Son living and reigning through those that I have called out for My name’s sake. I am no respecter of persons, but I have mapped out a plan for My sons and daughters before the ages. My Kingdom is coming on earth, as it is in heaven. To see Me, as I am, no flesh can remain in My presence. All man’s ideas and knowledge shall cease.”

5—Awesome Dream—Dawn Sikes: In the dream, I walked into a daycare/care-giving center to drop off my Resume. I saw across the room a door which opened up and a nurse walked out. As the nurse came out, I saw a young handicapped man in a bed with his arms and legs curled up. He was mumbling words, trying to speak, but could not be understood.

I felt led to go into the room. I walked up to the man in the bed and told him that God had not intended for him to remain lying in this bed and in this condition, and that I was going to pray. I turned to the others in the room and told them that they may not understand what I was going to do, but that I was going to pray.

I began to pray over this man, speaking forth life, and restoration, and called out to each part of his body to come into order and function. First, I spoke to his legs, then his arms, and so on until I reached his head. As I spoke out the prayer, it was with authority and purpose. I felt the Spirit move through me into this man and I saw each part of his body begin to be healed. His legs uncurled and became straight; his arms unfolded and stretched out, then his hands and fingers. I continued praying and seeing this happen before my eyes. Then I spoke to his mind and then his mouth and the words coming out of them became clear and understandable.

I was utterly amazed at the miracle of which I was a part! I can’t remember exactly what the man said when he could be understood, but I know he said something to the effect of, “How long have I waited for the word to come forth from me!”

I think this is what God is doing with the Body. The religious systems had at one time received God’s word and His Body was formed but because the systems were unable to fully understand it, they made a covenant to keep it safe for God (as if God needed them to nurture His Word). Because of the system’s ignorance, the Body has become sick and weak and its parts unable to spread the good news (legs and feet), unable to heal (arms and hands), and unable to teach (mind and mouth).

It’s gotten so bad that it has nearly become disabled, but God will not let this happen. He is sending forth His called, appointed, and qualified (hence the resume) Mouthpieces to speak forth life into His Body and to call forth its purpose and function. God is restoring His Body so that it will have His Mind and then His True Word will come forth.
