From My Prayer Times Elaine

1—A Kingdom Principle: The Lord spoke to my heart, “As you have done unto others, so shall it be done unto you. This is one of the most powerful principles of the kingdom, and one of the least to be recognized. It cannot fail, for it is based on the love principle, which is My nature, and whatever is based on My nature can never return void.”

“I have given My Own ample opportunity to learn this—sometimes as the giver of grace, sometimes as the receiver of it. In either direction, My Love cannot fail and what is given in love is always returned—not necessarily in the same kind (i.e. as money, or goods), but in whatever will meet the need at any time.”

“I sent you ‘a pair of hands’ and a willing heart and you were greatly blessed. Along with the hands came a willing heart to do My will. Oh, that My children would learn where their blessing lies: it lies in giving rather than in taking!”

“Have I not demonstrated this truth in all nature which yields an overabundance unless there be a mean spirit which causes the land to withhold its bounty.”

(Elaine’s note: I have read several remarkable illustrations of nature giving or withholding its bounty. The Waldenses were a remnant of the early church who refused to join the organized Church of Rome. They were persecuted for their stand so they fled to northern Italy to Piedmont, a fruitful valley which provided all that they had need of.

The Catholic Church could not stand the thought of any group being separate and refusing to be under their control, so they attacked this godly remnant many times. At one time, they succeeded in chasing out the Christians and replacing them with their own people. This resulted in this productive valley refusing to yield its strength to them and they finally had to leave because of hunger!

It might interest you to know that, of this early remnant, God has raised up one of the foremost Kingdom teachers of our day: yes, Preston Eby. He comes from that faithful, persecuted people! Talk about God’s faithfulness!

2—The True Pattern: “The earth is full of violence.” We have no place to turn except unto the Creator of it. He alone has promised to keep it through seedtime and harvest. The covenant of the rainbow tells us so.

“The blueprint of My building in the lives of My creation has been almost lost; most assuredly it has been obscured. The natural man cannot see clearly that which is of Me and that which is not. He beholds what religion has wrought and either becomes ensnared in it or turns his back on it.”

“I am preparing My remnant people to manifest Me in such a way that there will no longer be any doubt that I dwell in temples not made with hands—in earthen vessels who have yielded themselves unto Me.”

“These shall not set themselves up as objects of worship, but they shall manifest Me and take no glory unto themselves. As I said, ‘Of Myself I can do nothing’ so shall these say, ‘I do only those things I see with my Father.’”

“I am surely raising up again the temple of the Lord—the true temple in which I shall dwell in fullness. It shall not be built of stones and mortar, but of living stones born from above. The site of My building shall not be Old Jerusalem, but it shall be the New Jerusalem—those who are born from above!”

“And it shall not have a literal throne of gold and precious stones. The throne of this temple shall be a place in the heart of any believer who permits Me to rule and reign in his life. I rule from the New Jerusalem—a blood-bought, born-from-above people. This is the true pattern that I am restoring in the earth!”

3. Have You Missed Me? I was missing the Lord today. I’ve been so busy with company and extra office work that I hadn’t spent much time with He Who is my Life! I determined that I wouldn’t go anywhere today and would spend time with the Lord. I was delighted when He spoke:

“Have you missed Me, My darling?
Have you missed Me, My dear?

Have you not known

I am always near.

“Nearer than hands or feet,
Nearer than home and bed,
For, fast in the depths of thy spirit
We are wed.

“We two are one, without a doubt,
In spite of everything without
That would pull your mind here or there,
I am with you everywhere.

“So many long for My coming,
The trump of God to hear,
The authority of the God-man
To bring to all great fear,

“So that never again should evil arise,
For He has rent the Eastern skies.
A pipe dream--a carnal vision, indeed.
I have already come in a holy seed!

“In a seed in whom I’m pleased to dwell
To deliver from a living hell.
To place before them a new way
To learn to walk in My New Day!

“Then shall I come to open hearts
Who’ve longed for Me to come and dwell,
To rule and reign in their mortal frame
Until they fully own My name (nature).”

“Ah yes, I miss Your tender voice
When daily tasks take me away
From pondering thy blessed Face
And knowing thy exceeding grace.

“Let me never cease to miss You!
Never let my heart grow cold.
For You are to me my Life-Source
As I yield to You my Course!”

4—Simplified the Way—When Elisabeth was still with us, one day she was recounting how many things have been renewed and simplified in the home this year. I said, “Often when the Lord moves in my natural life it has a lesson in the Spirit and I heard the word: “My Body shall be functioning.”

“There is a stripping-down for running! My children have been content to know Me and to press in to know My nature and My ways with the children of men. They have been more-or-less contented to remain in the hidden places where I have placed them, unseen by the world or their carnal brethren. They would gladly remain in this place, learning of Me.”

“But My Spirit has come to renew, to simplify, to stir the nest, for My eaglets shall learn to fly—to leave the comfort of the nest. Behold, I make all things new and I make provision for all that I require from My sons-in-preparation.”

“You shall see, as the days go by and the Church Age passes away and the counterfeit Israel is revealed, that all obstacles are being removed from My people who are yielded to My Word. My Word shall have free course like it has never had before, for I have gone before and simplified the way even as I have done for you. You shall see it and rejoice!”

Update on Elaine

A number of us felt led to come to Creston this weekend and we want to give an update on the physical and spiritual situation regarding Elaine. Physically there is marked improvement. There are more recognizable words of English before tongues or words get mixed.

On our first night with her at the hospital while in prayer we heard “You have not been this way before.” In a vision angels were seen standing about her guarding her, awaiting the command of the Lord. They are standing by her, taking care of her and the heavenly joy is great in her presence. Elaine is definitely in a place of special joy. The angels are waiting the command of the Lord. Whether the command is to continue a journey home; (there are times when the Lord’s desire is for us not to be apart from Him any longer.) At times when His love can not bear to be apart and He takes us to our heavenly home prepared for us. Or the command can be to return her to us. The command has not been given and whatever it is we will REJOICE.

While in prayer for Elaine at the house, another picture seen was that she is halfway through this door with beautiful, powerful light streaming through. What is she seeing? What can she see? This picture had two pieces- one was of the ministry awaiting through the door, the ministry to the generations waiting to hear the words of life and to be set free. The other part of the picture was for the newsletter ministry, it sheds the Light of the Lord to many peoples.

At this time, the newsletter for September was started by Elaine and we feel to finish it for this month.

As to what the next step is after that, we do not know. The same email address will be used, which will be answered by a few of us (many hands make light work).

This came in email this morning "As we were praising & worshiping the Lord this morning, we sang a song by Bob & Charlotte Torango that reminded me so much of Elaine and where she is now.

"There's a man standing on the river, he's proclaiming life unto both sides. He is dressed in garments made of linen, for he's a Priest of Christ, the Most High. Both banks of the river are rejoicing as they hear the resurrection sound Each side's receiving their new body as heaven and earth meet together on higher ground"

An Evening at Creston Regional

I see my sweetheart once through the day and then try to get back in the evening about seven o' clock which gives us plenty of time to fellowship & pray before visiting hours is over.

Such was the case yesterday evening (Friday, the tenth) I stretched out beside her on the hospital bunk so we could be close and pray together. Also she cannot speak clearly except for a few familiar words, but this is enough that I can often get the drift of her speech

She does not hesitate to give you the whole rundown on any topic for she thinks she is speaking plain English so I encourage her (as "surely; uh-huh,; why not; it's best that way, etc. .) I think it is best that she talks and talks until she gets a real lift in the Spirit and her words come clearer.

We were together on her hospital bunk (two people on a narrow bed) when a nurse rushed in. I immediately attempted to retreat to a nearby bench but this beautiful nurse stopped me, "Don't you move, you guys look so cute like that"

And even that helped our evening!

We (Elaine & I) continued to fellowship. At this point I should explain something: Namely that my darling was never ever idle. I can't ever remember of seeing her sitting and looking into space. If she wasn't occupied in the office she would be in her swing rocker reading a pamphlet or a book.

In fact to get some fellow ship with her, I would turn on the evening news and we would discuss the various issues.

Hurray, a time never wasted.

Hence the sudden change is felt very strongly by her. She can only read & write simple things. She has had so many days of looking at the wall, she fears for her sanity.

By the way when she gives you the whole rundown, as I said before, she thinks that you understand every word of it and does not seem to know that she is speaking another language.(All the better for her, else she would think she was not normal-I'm sure she couldn't handle that.)

To get back to our time together and the results of yesterday evening; I remember saying "Hey, YOU & I are both in great need of prayer--you with this stroke and me with the remnants of renal failure & prostate cancer. We must pray for you, for me and for both of us together).

Elaine agreed wholeheartedly

We prayed & prayed again--We felt His Holy Presence. We fellowshiped further and then I walked home.

The above was on Friday the tenth. Now on Saturday the eleventh I was at the hospital in the morning and what do you know?, her face was aglow with the Spirit of the Lord; she explained to me in glowing terms and tears of the dream the Lord had given her in the night seasons, and if I lacked any understanding, it was compensated, by the glow of the Holy Spirit upon her. Praise the Name of the Lord forever!

And my Elaine was back again.

Update on Newsletter

As we wait on the Lord's command for Elaine, we are not sure if there will be another hard copy newsletter. We will continue to send out updates utilizing the internet - via emails and the blog on the webpage. If you "must have a hard copy" newsletter for yourself, please reply to let us know. We do commit to keep sending email updates to the webpage. We encourage people to use the blog at www.kingdomgospel.net/blog Thank you for your help in this matter.

Update on Elaine

Update Oct. 5: With Bill, we visited Elaine last night in the Creston Hospital. Oh! The Joy inexpressible. Her frame appears fragile and her spirit is strong. Very enthusiastically, she tells us of important things we need to know or that are being revealed to her. The only problem is she starts in English and the words get mixed (mords wixed) and we are not able to comprehend; but the Joy is so strong. There is light around her face and the Presence of the Lord is so strong.

We await on His direction.
